IN COURT CIRCLES.

Special Term of District Court to Open in Taos County on Oct. 5.

Judge Laughlin has issued an order for a special term of the district court in Taos county to open at Taos on Tuesday, October 5, says the New Mexican. The occasion for grand and petit jurors is caused by Clerk Weixler yesterday issuing warrants to the sheriff of the county summoning the jurors to attend. The term is called for one week only. It will probably commence about Monday.

Warrants in proceedings were brought before Judge Laughlin in chambers yesterday to compel the superintendent of schools of Taos county, James Mirabal, to recognize the election of two school directors whom he claims were not legally elected. The case is entitled The territory of New Mexico, ex rel. Eugenio Garcia vs. James Mirabal, county superintendent of schools of Taos county.

Cuapa, one of the districts in Taos county, the county superintendent will refuse to recognize two of the officers alleged to have been chosen at the election in June on the ground that contrary to the law distinctly provides that only those who have paid their taxes are entitled to vote at such elections, the contention being that the voters should foot over, and this action is brought to force the issuance of certificates of election to the new officers.

The mandamus will be argued before Judge Laughlin tomorrow morning, Bartlett appearing for the plaintiff and A. B. Renehan for the county superintendent.

THE RAILROADS.

Ellsworth auction cars of wool was shipped this week from Las Vegas to St. Louis.

[illegible] will ship 2,000 sheep in southern counties to Nebraska over Pecos Valley railroad.

[illegible] of Colorado has been appointed general agent for the Cumberland railroad in New Mexico, with headquarters at Trinidad.

The potential report that Chauncey M. Depew is to retire from the presidency of the New York Central is denied by the Tribune, the great Republican journal of that city.

La Madera is equipping its dinky cars with [illegible] which enable the conductor to stand ahead for mail bags at the regular stations. The improvement is owned to that recently introduced on the Santa Fe's Western.

A fine exhibition between two locomotives occurred recently at Chicago. Mines, Iowa, and other places will be given near Kansas City on October 5, and will be one of the attractions of carnival week. Two sixty-ton engines, each with two box cars attached, will be started toward each other on a level stretch of track several miles apart. The engines, while going at full speed will meet in front of where the

What a Writer Has to Say About Robinson Park.

Winslow, Ariz., N. M., Sept. 15, 1896.

To the Citizen:

I could leave this city without saying a few lines in praise of Albuquerque for its grand work in the line of improving and adorning Robinson park. Have been in Z. T. from about twenty years, I guess, I know and made it the most pleasant resort in our city.
