He had been treated by some of the best physicians in Europe and America but got no permanent relief. The Coal Strike Off

The Madrid strike has been declared off, a majority of the men accepting the company's proposition and going to work. Quite a number of unmarried men refused to return to work and left town, but the married men, having families at Madrid, concluded under the existing circumstances to accept the reduction and work full time, rather than remain idle part of the time, which they would be forced to do under the former schedule of wages.

CONSERVATORY CONCERT

A Crowded House Greets the Faculty and Its Pupils Last Night.

Ever since the palmy days of the orpheus club, chorus singing has been at a standstill, and it remained for Prof. Dupuy to again start the interest in this style of work.

Last night's concert was a success musically, financially and socially, and to Mr. Dupuy must be given a large share of the credit although he was ably assisted by Miss Gillmore, Mr. De Mauro and Mr. Bone in preparing the program, which was a pleasing one. With the exception of two numbers the program was all concerted work on the part of every person who took part.

The first number was an overture from "Martha," played by an orchestra composed of pupils of Prof. De Mauro. The unaccompanied quartette for violins in this number was so well played that the audience was aroused to enthusiastic applause.

The second number, "Untold ye Portals," from Gounod's Redemption, showed the careful drilling the chorus had been through. The effect was grand, and at the close the forte passage was brought out as no chorus has yet done here.

Miss Gilmore and Mr. Bone played the "Triumphal March," by Costa, on the piano and organ with great precision and good ensemble work, which showed the care these two well known players take in everything they undertake.

The fourth number was undoubtedly the gem of the evening. It has often been said that Prof. De Mauro could bring out the most beautiful tone from a violin, but those who were fortunate to hear him last night will now know that his technique and execution is wonderful. Especially did he show this in his encore number. We have a master in De Mauro and we should not forget it.

"Gypsy Life," Schumann, was a beautiful number, and sung by the chorus with fine precision and good attacks. The solos in this number by Miss Walton, Mrs. Ada Brown, Mr. J. K. Brown and Mr. Harding were daintily sung, especially Miss Walton, whose voice shows great improvement.

The selection from "Il Trovatore" by the orchestra was the signal for another outburst of applause.

The next number brought out Mr. Dupuy, who sang "Heavenly Aida," from Verdi's opera of that name. Mr. Dupuy has often been heard, but it is always a pleasure to listen to him. His enunciation is so clear and his voice always in good form, and he never forgets expression. He was enthusiastically recalled, and gave as an encore what the writer considers is his best effort since he has been among us. It was Massenett's "Elegie." This song brought out the pathos that is so much needed in its rendition, and showed that the gentleman is an artist in his profession.

Andante, A major (piano and organ) by Wely-Nicoli, was another success for Miss Gilmore and Mr. Bone, and after great applause they gave the "Intermezzo" from Cavaleria Rusticana.

The closing chorus, "When Evening's Twilight," by Hatton, was sweetly sung and left an impression upon the audience which they will not forget for sometime.

THE CITIZEN has always tried to do all it could to help this worthy institution, and closes this review of a most successful concert by wishing the faculty as many pupils as they can conveniently teach, and hope that they will give us another concert on the same style of work in the near future.

From everywhere comes words of praise for Chamberlain's cough remedy. "Allow me to congratulate you on the merits of your remedy. It cured me of chronic bronchitis when the doctor could do nothing for me."—Chas. F. Hemel, Toledo, Ohio. For sale by the Maxwell Drug company.

A GOOD LETTER.

From the Clerk of the District Court.

FERNANDINA, FLA., Feb. 28, 1895.
Mr. J. George Suhrer, druggist, City.
Dear George: Please send a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I would not feel easy if I knew there was none of this valuable remedy in the house. I have given it a fair test and consider it one of the best remedies for croup that I have ever found. One dose has always been sufficient, although I use it freely. Any cold my children contracts yields very readily to this medicine. I can conscientiously recommend it for croup and colds in children. Yours respectfully,
GEORGE E. WOLFE.

A Sad Tragedy.

A peculiarly sad tragedy was enacted at Central last Monday morning. It appears that the wife of Timothy Murray, a respected citizen of that place, was subject to fits of dementia, which were the source of great annoyance and worry to Mr. Murray, and while laboring under temporary aberration of mind due thereto, she took his own life, shooting himself in the stomach, from which he died a few hours later. Mr. Murray was retired from the army when sergeant-major of the 13th United States Infantry, after thirty years service in the army. He had an enviable record as a soldier and was respected by all who knew him. The sad tragedy has plunged into deepest grief the unfortunate widow and his three children—William D., James and Josie Murray. The funeral occurred at Fort Bayard on Wednesday and was attended by a large number of sympathizing friends of the family.—Silver City Enterprise.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflammed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Los Lunas Court Matters.

Judge Collier and District Court Clerk Marron have returned from Los Lunas, where they went yesterday to dispose of some court matters. There were a few appearances and the court entered some formal matters and adjourned court to Albuquerque.

The fund out of which the jurors are to be paid is not available until the next fiscal year and cannot be used until that time, so no jury cases could be tried at the present time.

A Valentine.

On Sunday morning, at 2 o'clock a pretty Valentine came to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Meehan, on north second street, and it is in the shape of one of the prettiest little fellows that was ever born in this city. The brother of the new arrival, Ivan Francis, was born on Christmas morning, 1893, and the little chap that made his appearance on St. Valentine's morning is a perfect image of his Christmas brother. THE CITIZEN extends congratulations.
