Fourth at Belen.

Though a little late to report, Fourth of July items it may be of interest to some to know how the day was celebrated in our neighbor down the Rio Grande.

On Monday, the 5th, as per previous agreement, the merchants closed their stores for the day and a picnic was given by Belen citizens at a grove near town near the bank of the river. There were visitors from Los Lunas, Chicago and St. Louis. Music was furnished by the string band of the former town and the Rio Dey cornet band.

The Declaration of Independence was read by Capt. A. Dalies, who, being a good reader, held the attention of the audience to the end.

Next H. Udevsen, of Lunas, was announced as the orator of the day and delivered an address based upon the history of the colonies, beginning with the Pilgrims and their first efforts at self government, closing his address with a strong appeal on the total transfer of government of the people, by the people and for the people. He addresses were listened to and tendered throughout, and he gained loudly applauded.

National airs were sung, and song by the ladies and gentlemen.

Dancing was indulged in on a platform erected for the occasion. There were also foot racing and other sports. Refreshments were served from a booth to the ladies. All seemed to have had a good time and went home happy.

The evening exercises at Belen the writer was not able to report, as he was not present.
