efforts of the best people, which I believe we have irrespective of party, church or clique, the school will soon take a position worthy of the territory. Mr. Hadley has done a great work and deserves more appreciation than he has received. To his patient, intelligent and self-sacrificing effort we owe the dawn of this new era of rapid evolution in the highest educational institution in the territory.

Tax Collections.

Up to date Territorial Auditor McKenzie Garcia has received reports from county collectors as given below, the sums of money indicated having been paid into the territorial treasury.

The following counties are still behind in their reports, and in paying over taxes collected, which the law requires shall be done on or before the tenth day of each month: Union, Mora, San Miguel, Guadalupe, Taos, Rio Arriba, Doña Ana, Grant, Lincoln, Chaves and Eddy, leaving eleven out of the eighteen counties in the territory.
