BOOTERY SMITH ARRESTED

Charged with stealing a gold watch from Miss Moore

Last week mention was made of a machinists helper who was in the city looking for a job. Was attracted to the place by a gold watch which was missing from the room of Miss Moore. The latter reported the matter to the police and the man was arrested on the charge of having stolen a gold watch from Miss Moore. The latter reported that when came here accompanying her brother who was stationed at Camp Whitman and which there was their home. The watch was left in charge of Smith. Miss Moore came to Santa Fe a week to get some for her brother. Last Saturday afternoon she was at Leffler's when she missed the watch. She left it in a drawer. She reported the loss to the proper authorities and Smith was found. The watch was found in his possession. Last night Mr. Walsh was called at Mr. Coleman's and told the police immediately and Smith was found. The watch was found in his possession. Smith was taken to the city jail and locked up. He was arraigned in the police court this morning and pleaded guilty to the charge. He was fined $25 and costs, which he paid. Smith is a machinist by trade and has been employed at the Santa Fe shops. He is married and has a family living in Los Angeles. He is a young man of good appearance and has been employed by the company for some time. He was discharged from the shops a few days ago. He says he was drinking when he took the watch. He says he had no intention of stealing it when he went into the room. He says he had been drinking for a week. He is a good workman and has been employed by the company for some time. He says he
