Weekly Citizen

ALBUQUERQUE, SEPTEMBER 25, 1897.

[illegible]

Louis Gaet, representing the Wood Brothers of Kansas City, Mo., was engaged in selling bottles last night.

Dr. Frank Woods and wife, of Portland, Oregon, are stopping at the Claweyo. They will probably remain here for the winter.

Mrs. E. L. Cooper and daughter, Miss Harriet, of New York, are here for the winter. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don A. Sweet.

Mrs. J. W. Walker will leave tonight for Los Angeles, which Mr. Walker is forbidden to do. Mr. Walker is a sufferer from consumption.

E. Cook, president of the Rio Grande Cattle company, and family, left for Los Angeles last night.

Mrs. J. L. Dodge, who suffers in the south, left for her home in Los Angeles last night.

[illegible]

Miss Ella Abrams, the popular young singer, who is now in Los Angeles, is expected home next week.

[illegible]

Mrs. E. L. Cooper, daughter of Colonel Harriet, of New York, arrived here last night. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don A. Sweet.

Mrs. J. W. Walker will leave tonight for Los Angeles, which Mr. Walker is forbidden to do. Mr. Walker is a sufferer from consumption.

E. Cook, president of the Rio Grande Cattle company, and family, left for Los Angeles last night.

Mrs. J. L. Dodge, who suffers in the south, left for her home in Los Angeles last night.

[illegible]

Miss Ella Abrams, the popular young singer, who is now in Los Angeles, is expected home next week.

[illegible]

Mrs. E. L. Cooper, daughter of Colonel Harriet, of New York, arrived here last night. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don A. Sweet.

Mrs. J. W. Walker will leave tonight for Los Angeles, which Mr. Walker is forbidden to do. Mr. Walker is a sufferer from consumption.

E. Cook, president of the Rio Grande Cattle company, and family, left for Los Angeles last night.

Mrs. J. L. Dodge, who suffers in the south, left for her home in Los Angeles last night.

[illegible]

Miss Ella Abrams, the popular young singer, who is now in Los Angeles, is expected home next week.

[illegible]

THE METHODISTS.

Two Conventions to Be Held in This City Next Week.

[illegible]

MURDER MOST FOUL.

An Employee of G. W. Bond & Brother at Wagon Mound Found and Murdered.

Wagon Mound was in a fever of excitement over the discovery, yesterday morning, about 10 o'clock, of the dead body of a man named Pedro Mates, at a ranch about five miles from that town. The ranch had evidently been dead since last Friday. There were two bullet holes in the back of his head, and his throat was cut from ear to ear. His horse was also found dead near by, and the animal's head had been completely crushed in with rocks.

Mates had a quarrel about ten days ago with a man whose name the reporter could not learn, but the latter was heard to swear that he would eventually have Mates's life. This man is missing, and every indication seems to point to him as the author of the crime.

That the motive was not robbery is shown by the fact that Mates's watch and money were untouched.

Mates was employed by G. W. Bond & Brother, and they have offered a reward of $100 for the apprehension of the murderer. Bloodhounds have been sent for in hopes of locating the trail of the murderers, but as there is so much time elapsed there is not much to be hoped for in that quarter. Should the murderer be caught there is no doubt that summary justice will be dealt out to him.

A man named Fernando Labato was the afternoon before last at Springer on suspicion of being connected with the crime, although reports are vague as to what his connection was, if any.

A Lost Art.

Bottles of wine, which were so plentiful as being found in mines places in large quantities are becoming very scarce and valuable. There was a time when they had but little or no value, but the enormous quantities of them exhibited in the numerous mining scams in this country and the world has almost exhausted the stock to be found. It is a lost art among the Indians and it is doubtful if there is an Indian now living who can make any of it. Bottles of the ancient Indians were formed to use a yellow or pink stained flint.

[illegible]

RETURNS TO HER MOTHER

Inmate of House of Ill Fame in This City Goes Home.

A gentleman came here from Denver a few nights ago in search of a wayward girl daughter, who he had learned was living in this city. He had a conversation with the chief of police and learning that the girl was in one house he went to the house which he gave. He came here well supplied with funds and he performed a noble deed in rescuing some of the demi monde of the city, he learned that his daughter went here by the name of May Cleveland and was an inmate of one of the scarlet houses of the city. Armed with this information he called to meet her, and yesterday afternoon he called upon Marshal Gilbert for assistance. Together they went to the place where the girl wanted held forth, and the marshal informed the proprietress that the girl might as well present herself for an interview first as last. She then came out and gave a very chilly response to her step father's very affectionate greeting. She melted at last when he appealed to her for her mother's sake, who he said was in a dying condition and was crying every day because her daughter was away. She then agreed to go home, but said that she went for her mother's sake, and not on account of her stepfather.

May Cleveland has been in the city since last March. She is about 22 years of age and she has a younger sister here Birdie, who is now the mistress of a house in Colorado. May told her aforementioned friends that her step father had all of her things out of his house three years ago and ordered her away, and since that time she has never been home. She was married shortly before that but her marriage was so ungodly and that she left her husband and returned home, only to be ordered away by her stepfather, who now implored her to return.

An Outer Territorial Wedding.

There was a quiet wedding at the M. E. parsonage last evening between one of Albuquerque's charming young ladies, Miss Jessie Buchanan, of this city, and Mr. F. W. Nelson, of Navajo county, Arizona. Mr. Nelson is county clerk and recorder of Navajo county and an attorney with a good practice. Miss Buchanan is a graduate of the New Mexico Territorial University and has been successfully engaged in teaching since her graduation. Intellectually she is one of the brightest women of Albuquerque and will be missed by a large circle of intellectual people here. After the wedding ceremonies were over Mr. and Mrs. Nelson left for Las Vegas, where Mr. Nelson will meet a brother whom he has not seen in seven years, and who for some time past has been engaged in archeological work for the Smithsonian Institute in Old Mexico.

The happy couple will return to Albuquerque in a few days visiting with Mrs. Grimes on north Fifth street, the bride's relict, after which they will go to Winslow, where Mr. Nelson has a house prepared for their future housekeeping.

The happy couple enters upon matrimonial life under the most auspicious circumstances, and have the best wishes of a host of warm friends in both New Mexico and Arizona, who wish them bon voyage over the matrimonial sea.

From Friday's Daily.

Mrs. J. R. Sanchez and children, family of Barber Sanchez, are on a visit to friends at Los Lunas.

Miss Alta Frey, who has been on a visit to Southern California, has returned to her desk at the local freight depot.

Don Davis was at the depot last night, leaving for the east. He goes on business but expects to return inside of two weeks.

E. R. Coe is at the Jemez hot springs, where he will remain for ten days or two weeks. Mr. Coe is the watch repairer at the jewelry store of Arthur Everitt.

J. E. Smith, of Laurel, Iowa, and Allen Parker, of Union, Iowa, stock buyers, are at the Grand Central. They are here to receive several thousand head of lambs.

James Eakin, junior member of the tailor firm of Melini & Eakin, packed his grip sack yesterday and left last night for a trip over the Santa Fe Pacific.

T. K. Cutler, brother of Geo. C. R. Cutler, who has been absent in northern New Mexico and southern Colorado for several weeks, returned to the city from the north last night.

Early this morning W. L. Trimble, James Martin, George L. Neher, Len Holz and other hunters left for a trip up the river. The gentlemen expect to return to town this evening loaded down with game.

The advance agent and business manager of the A. L. Pearson company, Arthur Truber, called at this office yesterday. His company commences an engagement at the opera house next Monday night.

W. F. Bell left last night for Los Angeles, to accept a position in a grocery store there. He is a brother-in-law of F. E. Trotter and a brother of James Bell, and for a long time was a worthy clerk at Grocer Trotter's store.

Major Ernest Meyers, of the firm of Lowenthal & Meyers, continues on the sick list. He has been "under the weather," so to speak, for some time, but his energy and general activity will pull him through, no doubt, in a few days.

There was a big rush during fair week at Sturges' European restaurant, but Henry Goetz on the day and Joe Gerard during the evening hours, with their able help, handled the crowd in good style, and not an order missed their careful attention.

Rev. E. H. Ashman, superintendent of the congregational home missions, accompanied by Rev. G. E. Birlew, of San Rafael, and Jesus M. Moya, the teacher at San Mateo, came in from the west last night. Rev. Ashman visited the mission at San Mateo.

S. M. Shattuc and E. A. Cooper, of Denver, came in from the south last night and after eating supper at Harvey's, continued on north. They are western passenger traveling agents, the former representing the Baltimore & Ohio, and the latter the Chicago & Alton.

Ben Jones, of Chicago, and Joseph De Mars left yesterday for Copper City, in northwestern Bernalillo county, and they will be absent about a week. While away Mr. Jones will arrange all the preliminaries to assume work on the big Copper mine of that district at an early day.

Fred. W. Beechynden and James H. White, representing the Thomas A. Edison laboratory of Orange, N. J., who were at the Indian village of Isleta yesterday taking vitascope pictures, came in from the south last night and continued on to Denver. They have been down in southern California, and registered Wednesday at Sturges' European. They will probably visit Mexico and other countries before returning to New Jersey.

Thos. S. Hubbell, sheriff, and Elias Armijo, deputy, were out in the mountains east of the city yesterday serving jury papers. The sheriff states that just as he and Mr. Armijo reached the Silva place, about 5 p. m., the little stream down through Tijeras canyon suddenly became a torrent of waters, the result of a cloudburst a few miles above the Silva home.

Col. H. W. Lawton, late inspector and auditor of the United States Army paymaster, came in from Santa Fe last night and is registered at the Grand Central. He is auditing the books and accounts of Capt. A. H. Jackson, the paymaster stationed in this city, after which he will visit Los Angeles.

Ex-Gov. L. Bradford Prince, of Santa Fe, and Hon. R. E. Twitchell, of Las Vegas, returned to their respective homes north of the metropolis, but expect to be here again in a few days. They are prominent attorneys in the Celestial land grant hearing.

There is a small-souled sneak in this city who is devoting his spare time to scattering tacks on the streets to puncture bicycle tires. The offense comes under the head of malicious trespass, and if the offender is discovered he will be severely dealt with.

Mrs. Joseph R. Goodell and Mary E. Shiner, of Lancaster, Pa., left the Highland last night for Los Angeles, to spend the winter with relatives there. They spent an agreeable and pleasant day yesterday looking at the attractions of Albuquerque.

Mrs. Wm. Cook, wife of Foreman Cook, of the Albuquerque Foundry and Machine works, this city, who was operated on at the railroad hospital in Topeka last week, is now convalescing and will be able to leave for her home in a short time.

Chas. W. Lewis, who was down in Mexico on important mining matters, returned last night, and was met here this morning by Capt. Saunders, who is in charge of the Milagros Gold Mine company properties out in Bell canyon.

The executive committee of the Territorial Fair association will hold a meeting at their office, over Fox's jewelry store, this evening, and it is the wish of President Myers and Secretary Saint that all the members attend the meeting.

Hon. Jose Armijo y Vigil, of Limitar, Socorro county, is here on a visit to relatives and friends. The visitor was born and reared in old Albuquerque, living here at least thirty years, when he moved to Lemitar.

Sheriff Hubbell has received no word from his deputies, who were dispatched a few days ago in pursuit of Charles Scott, the Gallup murderer. Letanger, the man who was shot by Scott, died on Tuesday.

District Attorney Finical, Lawyer F. W. Clancy and other attorneys, having business before the Los Lunas district court, returned to Los Lunas on the 11:50 o'clock freight train this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Hopping are happy over the arrival of a baby girl at their home Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Hopping is a member of the Democrat job office force.

The championship base ball cup, 1897, won by the Albuquerque Browns at the base ball tournament, is on exhibition at Quickel & Bothe's, proprietors of Zeiger's Cafe.

Jacobo and Paul Trisarri are shearing about 11,000 sheep at Carnuel, near Tijeras canyon, and it is understood that the sheep will average about two pounds each.

Dr. F. H. Allen gave the second of a course of interesting lectures at the University assembly yesterday morning.

Jacob Sichler and wife, good folks of Belen, are at Sturges' European, coming in from the south last night.

Don A. Sweet returned the other night from a trip down in Mexico in the interest of the Santa Fe railway.

Harry Wilson, of the Buena Vista ranch, San Miguel county, is in the city on business.

MRS. A. C. WELCH'S ACCIDENT.

Fell From Steps at Her Home and Dislocated the Hip Joint.

Mrs. A. C. Welch met with a very painful accident at about 11 o'clock last night, when Dr. Welch was away at the train to meet Dr. Coe, the new presiding elder, who arrived last night and succeeds Dr. Bovard.

She was going into the back yard, and somehow slipped from the back steps, dislocating her hip joint, and for a time it was feared that it was fractured. She managed to get back into the house but suffered intense pain until the joint was put back into its position.

Dr. Welch returned shortly after the accident happened and immediately sent for Dr. Bishop, who responded immediately and did everything in his power to relieve the sufferer's pain.

Dr. Bishop was seen this afternoon just after a visit to his patient and he expressed himself as very hopeful of a speedy recovery. He said that he feared at first that the joint had been fractured, which would have made the accident serious indeed, and he was surprised and happy to find that his fears were groundless. Mrs. Welch's many friends will learn with sorrow of her mishap, but will at the same time rejoice that it is not of a more serious nature.

Back from Bell Canyon.

"Commodore" F. H. Kent, with Charles Bonsall, returned from the Bell Canyon mining district late yesterday afternoon, where they had gone to look over the whole field, and that includes the Milagros group of mines, which, for some unforeseen reason, are not being worked.

Mr. Bonsall was met this morning and incidentally remarked that Kay Ross, son of ex-Gov. E. G. Ross, is doing good work on the Star for the Alton company—the latter expecting its machinery in a few days; that Chas. Knapp and others are working their placer field near by and are down eighteen feet; that Capt. Post is arranging to take charge of the boarding house at "The Star," and that the Alton company has rented the building owned by C. W. Lewis and will stock same for a general merchandise store. In regard to the Kent placer fields Mr. Bonsall stated that they were, at present in liquidation owing to the recent assignment of the Fleming Chick outfit.

Circus Coming.

J. Henry Rice, the advance bill poster of the Walter L. Main's "Grandest and Best Shows on Earth," was here yesterday, and arranged for additional bill boards on the corner of Railroad avenue and Fourth street and elsewhere in the city, the contract being let to Carpenter Fox. Mr. Rice left this morning, but, at THE CITIZEN office, to an attache said that the shows will be at Albuquerque on October 11.

MISS ABRAMS' BENEFIT

Very Fine Home Talent Entertainment Given Last Night.

The benefit tendered Miss Ella Abrams, at the opera house last night, was one of the most pleasing home talent entertainments ever given in this city. There was a good sized audience present, but many were undoubtedly kept away by the threatening weather.

The evening's program was commenced with a song by the popular quartet, composed of Messrs. Biles, Brown, Washburn and Harper.

Miss Edna Mills sang a solo, "When the Tide Comes In," and in response to an enthusiastic encore she sang "Would You" in an admirable manner.

Louis Smith followed with some beautiful solos, which were heartily applauded and encored. Prof. L. Fennaar treated the audience to two high class violin solos, with Miss Guthrie as an accompanist on the piano.

Messrs. Biles and Harper next sang "I Feel Thy Angel Spirit," which was loudly encored.

Miss Abrams took the audience by storm with her "Bohemian Love Song," and responded to an encore by singing "Whisper Your Mother's Name." W. K. Harper sang some beautiful solos and then Mrs. Whitcomb and Miss Abrams sang the popular song, "When Thou Art Near."

"Life's Dream Is Over" was sung by Misses Mills and Abrams and received several very enthusiastic encores. W. K. Harper then sang a solo and was accompanied by Mr. Bliss on the piano. Mrs. Whitcomb and Miss Abrams put everybody in a good humor by singing "Move on." In response to an encore they sang the humorous song, "Little Dark Brown Lou," which caused another hearty laugh.

Mrs. Cundiff, on account of illness, was unable to give an exhibition of illuminated club swinging, much to the regret of everybody in attendance.

Miss Hawthorne, who accompanied most of the singers on the piano, added materially to the pleasure of the entertainment, by her excellent playing.

A Fine Company.

The A. L. Pearson Stock company will play a week's engagement at the Grant opera house, commencing Monday, September 27. This is one of the largest and most popular stock companies traveling, and the only one playing pieces that are the property of the manager. A car load of scenery and a team of trained horses are carried for these productions, and they will be produced in their entirety. Monday night will be presented the big patriotic naval drama, "The White Squadron," a play that appeals to the hearts of all good citizens. Prices for this engagement will be 25 and 50 cents.

Police Court News.

Domingo Aranda and Fernando Garcia were arrested last night while fighting. They were brought before Justice Crawford this morning and given five days each working on the streets.

John Harvey, Thomas Davis and Clarence Brolis, three young chaps who came here to the fair and ran short of funds, were caught begging around town yesterday and to day they were adjudged guilty of vagrancy, and sentenced to five days working on the streets.

WARNING TO YOUNGSTERS.

The Bandits, Terrorizing Street Car Drivers, To Be Watched.

Some of the bad boys of the city, who roam about at night, have organized into a bandit for the purpose of terrorizing the drivers of street cars.

As soon as the curfew tolls its warning for all youngsters to be at home, they hurry away from the precincts patrolled by the city police and amuse themselves in the vicinity of the park by playing tricks on the street car drivers. Whenever a car comes along with naked benches, and no passengers to assist the driver, they board the car and put on the brake in the rear, thus stopping the car. If the driver gets off the car to give pursuit, they greet him with a volley of stones and dirt, and he is fortunate indeed if he returns to his car with his head unbruised.

The street car company does not propose to have its drivers pestered any more, and from this on there will be spies about to identify the disturbers, who will then be arrested and punished to the full extent of the law. Some of the boys are said to come from good families, and if they do not wish to disgrace their parents, they will refrain from a repetition of their past actions.

WANTED McKINLEY.

A Case of Promise Which Was Broken—A Disgusted Caller.

Our correspondent at Washington, D. C., under date of Sept. 18, writes as follows:

"About 9 o'clock last night a well dressed, apparently sober gentleman, somewhat over 50 years of age, entered the reading room of the Ebbitt house, where about twenty gentlemen were occupied in reading, writing and conversation. He stopped near the end of the long table, which extends across the room, and addressing himself to a group of about half a dozen persons, he asked in a loud voice: 'Has Mr. McKinley been here this evening? I mean the president.' No one knew who he was, and after a short silence, which caused all in the room to look up, one of the gentlemen in the group said: 'No, I think not. I have not seen him.' The stranger said: 'Why, that's strange. He promised to meet me here to night.' He then left the reading room of the Ebbitt house a thoroughly disgusted man."

A Nice Party.

Last night one of the nicest parties of the season was held at the pleasant home of Col. and Mrs. B. Lewinson, on west Copper avenue, and there was present quite a crowd of young people. Yesterday afternoon THE CITIZEN announced the marriage engagement of B. Flesher, of Roswell, to Miss Amanda Rosenwald, of this city, daughter of Merchant Aaron Rosenwald, and the party last night was in their honor. The evening was passed in card playing, prize giving, dancing and music, and last but not least in eating a royal and substantial supper. Miss Hawthorne was at the piano, and the merry dancers were treated to choice music. In the card playing, Mrs. Louis Baer secured first prize, Mrs. Bernard Ilfeld second and Miss Belle Ilfeld, a young lady visitor from Santa Fe, the booby prize. Chas. Vincent had charge of the supper, and his department could not be excelled. Mr. Flesher and Miss Rosenwald were the recipients of many pleasant "bits of tats," and the good wishes flowed in great abundance. The day of the marriage will be announced later.

German Catholic Mission.

Rev. F. Shubeck, S. J., of Chicago, will reach here to-morrow evening, and on Sunday will open a mission for German Catholics, which will continue through the week, lasting from Sunday to Sunday. A complete program of the exercises will be published to-morrow evening.

Rev. A. M. Mandalari requests all Catholics to notify their German Catholic friends in the city and out of it that the mission is to be held, so that they can come here and have the services in their own language.

Mrs. Henry has closed up her millinery store on West Gold avenue, and will return to Kansas City.

[illegible] and comedies. It is a humorous [illegible] that the man who [illegible] Rock of Ballaire [illegible] No matter how [illegible] and delightful [illegible] Every [illegible] Al the [illegible] [illegible] Mr. [illegible] "of my whole gang of inmates."

By the way, THE CITIZEN representative found at the jail "cleaning up the jail." Jailer Fornoff has spared the lime, for each and every [illegible] up and down stairs has secured a [illegible] and even the cells, where the [illegible] dangerous characters are kept, will be found on inspection to be in a [illegible] clean condition.

The jailer is all right.

A CLEAN JAIL.

County Jailer Fornoff Proving to be a Competent Man.

It will be remembered that [illegible] ago THE CITIZEN announced [illegible] that when Fred. Fornoff quit [illegible] the efficient and worthy marshal [illegible] city of Albuquerque, a job was [illegible] over in old town that of county [illegible].

These expectations have now, [illegible] administration, been fully realized. Fred. Fornoff has in more capacities than one proved his efficiency as a [illegible] manager.

A visit to the institution gives the information that within its [illegible] walls there are twenty-six prisoners among whom are two murderers, [illegible] burglars, one forger, ten or twelve accused of petit larceny, and [illegible] people "the happiest," said Mr. [illegible] "of my whole gang of inmates."

By the way, THE CITIZEN representative found at the jail "cleaning up the jail." Jailer Fornoff has spared the lime, for each and every [illegible] up and down stairs has secured a [illegible] and even the cells, where the [illegible] dangerous characters are kept, will be found on inspection to be in a [illegible] clean condition.

The jailer is all right.

ECCLESIASTICAL CONFERENCE

Held at Bernalillo Near One Will Be Held Here in December.

The ecclesiastical conference of the Catholic clergy of the Rio Abajo district was held last Wednesday at Bernalillo. Rev. J. M. Coudert being the presiding officer. The following fathers were present:

Rev. F. Gatignol, Belen; Rev. C. [illegible], Bernalillo; Rev. A. Martin, Galisteo; Rev. Ph. Martin, La Joya; Rev. A. [illegible], Isleta; Rev. L. Carpentier, Manzano; Rev. A. M. Mandalari, S. J., Albuquerque; Rev. T. M. Grom, Socorro; Rev. J. B. [illegible], Tome; Rev. N. Pinnarest, Peña Blanca; Rev. A. Cazals, Santa Fe; Rev. P. [illegible], Lemitar; Rev. A. Deshors, Jemez.

The exercises were opened at [illegible] Wednesday morning by Father [illegible], who read a very able paper on [illegible] two epistles to the Corinthians. Father Cazals, of Santa Fe, spoke with much erudition on the unity of the church. Father Ralliere and Father M[illegible] solved two difficult cases of [illegible]. Father Gentile was not present, and in his absence Father Mandalari read a paper on Catholic education.

The morning meeting adjourned at 12 o'clock, and at 7:30 p. m. there was [illegible] vespers and the benediction of the most blessed sacrament as a preparation for the patronal feast, which was celebrated in honor of the Blessed Virgin of the Seven Dolores yesterday.

Yesterday there was solemn high mass at 9 o'clock. Rev. J. B. Lalliere was the celebrant, and Rev. A. Martin and Rev. A. Deshors were deacon and subdeacon respectively. Rev. P. Martin was the master of ceremonies.

After the gospel Rev. Father [illegible] of Old Albuquerque, delivered a most instructive and eloquent sermon, dwelling especially with the figures of the Old Testament, exhibiting the mystery of the sorrows of Mary at the foot of the cross.

Brother Gabriel, of Bernalillo, in the choir, rendered efficient assistance to the singers.

At 12 o'clock a bountiful repast was served to the visiting fathers, and after dinner they set out for their homes.

The next ecclesiastical conference will be held in this city in December.

Removal of Wm. Burns.

Judge Wm. Burns, late deputy collector for Arizona, and well and favorably known in this city, arrived from Santa Fe this morning. He will return to Phoenix to-night. The late official called at this office this morning, and upon being questioned related without a spark of malice the prompt and efficient manner by which he was restored to private citizenship. He visited Santa Fe and called upon Judge A. L. Morrison, the new collector, and in pleasant tones inquired if he was still the deputy collector for Arizona. He was promptly informed that he was not, and after thanking the new collector he retired a private citizen. The late collector informed THE CITIZEN that a number of his democratic friends had told him that Collector Morrison could not remove him, but their statements, while consoling, were misminded him of the man who was in jail, whose lawyer called and assured him that he couldn't be.

Mr. Burns has a good position awaiting him at Phoenix, and takes his removal with the philosophy of a [illegible] democrat, firmly believing that to the victors belong the spoils.

H. A. Devere and the Misses Kilpack, known here recently as members of the "Elite Dramatic and Extravaganza company," are making fame and a few dollars in Chicago as the "Handicap Trio."