THE EVENING PAPER

The most remarkable feature of the newspaper business in the past ten years has been the shifting of great circulations from the morning to the evening field.

There was a time when the morning paper was the paper, with the evening sheet merely an adjunct. That condition of affairs is rapidly being reversed. In three-fourths of the great cities of the union the afternoon paper takes precedence now as a news getter, and in circulation and business over the morning publications.

The Los Angeles Express says that the reasons for this phenomenal change is not far to seek.

The people prefer to have the news on the day it happens, instead of waiting twelve hours for it.

They like to read a paper in the evening, when they have quiet and leisure, instead of in the morning, when they are busy.

The women like a paper that stays at home, instead of running away down town in some man's pocket.

The advertiser likes a paper that has a home, and not an office and street circulation.

In short, the sudden advance of the evening paper to the front grows out of the very spirit of the day. To be alive, awake, and to make the most of every opportunity.

HOME OF YELLOW FEVER

There is a tradition that yellow fever originated in the horrible Spanish slave ships which centuries ago landed African captives at Havana. The filth was so unspeakable and the condition of the slave ships so frightful that there broke out among them the epidemic which has since been known as yellow fever. The bay of Havana was a cesspool for the vessels, and it is to this day a cesspool for the whole city of Havana. Storms and winds stir up the reeking bottom of the bay, and its poisonous stench is driven to the Florida coast. Key West is less than ninety miles from Havana. The deadly fever germs are wafted by wind and wave to our American gulf coast states. What sort of sanitarians the Spanish authorities who maintain a quarantine have labels them should be in a rude way. Western colored [illegible] medical leading dark to be sent to Havana from Spain. A Maxwell Dead

Tuesday morning at [illegible] o'clock A. Maxwell suddenly expired of heart failure. Mr. Maxwell had been feeling unwell for several days, but it seemed to be only a slight cold, which aggravated his old trouble, asthma.

He was 69 years old and leaves a widow and seven children, five daughters and two sons, viz: Mrs. Henry Jones, Mrs. George Hickam, Mrs. J. Martin, Misses Fannie and Zora Ed. and Frank, all of whom are here.

The funeral will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The deceased was one of the oldest residents of Raton, and the family has the sincere sympathy of the community in their deep affliction.—Raton Reporter.

His Bid the Lowest

W. H. Goebel, the well known and enterprising hardware merchant, has been awarded the contract to supply the capitol rebuilding board with eighteen kegs of wire nails. Mr. Goebel's bid was lower than the bids of any of his competitors, including the George Tritch Hardware company of Denver, and E. J. Post & Co. of Albuquerque. Talk now for a Santa Fe merchant who believes in advertising.—New Mexican.

Very Complimentary

During the absence of Col. W. S. Williams, publisher and editor of the Socorro Chieftain, in Arizona the bright printer he left in charge complimented THE CITIZEN in the following item:

THE ALBUQUERQUE CITIZEN, of all the excellent territorial dailies that come to this office, is one of the best. Its telegraphic news is full and fresh, its territorial news complete, and its editorial page is replete with good, sound common sense.

For Over Fifty Years

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY.

Mrs. Winslow's soothing syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's soothing syrup, and take no other kind.

WHAT THE GALLUP FOLKS ARE DOING

Gallup, Oct. 29.—The first snow of the season fell on last Sunday evening, and since then we have had several light falls of the beautiful dampness.

Mrs. J. J. Keegan is on the sick list, but improving.

Rev. Brooks and family are settled in the Methodist parsonage.

Rev. I. Mantor will preach at Winslow the coming Sabbath, and the Episcopal church at this place will have no services other than the Sunday school.

The ladies of the Congregational church gave a very enjoyable supper on the evening of the 20th, which was well attended.

The St. Agnes society met with Mrs. Ed. Hart this week, and all report a pleasant time. The ladies are preparing for their annual fair, to be held some time early in November.

The band orchestra are busily rehearsing their fall new selections for entertaining concerts, and on Friday evenings their practice as a full band the music to be given on that occasion.

The delegates for the "Benix and [illegible] of Brackville, have arrived, and [illegible] are quite striking. They are to [illegible] after piece, and appear in [illegible] at the band concert.

[illegible] Hinch has returned from his visit in Lincoln.

Dr. R. Edmundson and bride will probably return to the coal city to the mint for a November and will occupy the new [illegible] building opposite the Episcopal church on Cross avenue.

The [illegible], i. e., the bachelor maids of Hickory avenue are giving a Hallow E'en party for Saturday eve. "Roast apples, spotted lead, "mirror tricks" and all that you know. Lots of fun in Gallup.

Schools of Gallup doing fine work and much interest on the part of the pupils this is as it should be.

Wednesday evening Miss K. Doughty practiced with the orchestra and will again on Monday evening. The piano when well played is a great addition to the melody of an orchestra. Miss Doughty will also assist the evening of the concert.

Mrs. J. J. Keegan and little daughter will start for California on the morning of the 1st, to be gone for a few weeks. Mr. Keegan had intended to take his family to Florida for the winter, but the news of the prevalence of yellow fever in the south deterred them.

The Crescent and Caledonia stores have received new and beautiful fall goods, and the firm of Russell & Elsie are showing a splendid assortment of dry goods and millinery.

The band concert is to be given on the 20th of November. The program includes selections by full band, overture and interludes by orchestra, and good songs, a few favorites suitable for character of the entertainment, but mostly late ballads, jubilees, and some from proof sheets obtained from an eastern publishing firm, that are not "out" as yet. The afterpiece was written especially for the occasion, and for the characters that represent at Gallup's favorite home talent.

The digging of the water trenches give Gallup a particularly untidy appearance at present, and the blasting is a source of annoyance, but in no other way can we get good water service, so we are patiently enduring our discomforts.

Much to our regret Miss Rupert has decided to go to California for the winter.

Rev. Simpkins' cosy residence is nearing completion.

Mr. Ed. Morris and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a little son.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centers in the stomach, greatly stimulates the Liver and Kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50 cents or $1 per bottle at J. H. O'Reilly & Co.'s Drug Store.

Discharged yesterday convict No. 987, Juan Molina, sentenced from Bernalillo county to one year's imprisonment for the larceny of a horse. Earned full good time.

Yesterday morning Henry Brown was received from Eddy, to serve a term of one year for embezzlement. Brown was cashier of the First national bank of Eddy and treasurer of Eddy county at the time the embezzlement was committed. In addition to the sentence of one year's imprisonment, he was fined $17,[illegible].

Good Paper

THE ALBUQUERQUE DAILY CITIZEN is not only a live, progressive newspaper, but it is a firm friend to Flagstaff, and northern Arizona, and publishes all items of interest concerning this section as well as the cream of the news of New Mexico. THE CITIZEN well deserves the high reputation it has achieved in journalism.—Flagstaff Sun Democrat.

Big Sheep Shipment

To date, Inspector P. J. Towner says [illegible] head of sheep have been shipped into Colorado from New Mexico this season, and he estimates the total shipments since June from this territory at fully half a million, the average price paid being $1.50, or $[illegible] in all. The inspector estimates that cattle shipments since March 15th last from New Mexico have been 150,012 head, sold at an average value of $[illegible] per head, or a total of $[illegible]. This, with the wool sales of 12,000,000 pounds at an average of nineteen cents, yields about $[illegible] to the people of New Mexico for the year, which is a fraction over $[illegible] per capita for every man, woman and child in the territory.—Optic.

THE GRAHAM MURDER.

The Cruelty of the Father the Cause of the Killing.

THE SON PROTECTED HIS MOTHER.

It will be remembered by readers of THE CITIZEN that a meagre report of the killing of W. [illegible] Graham near El [illegible] Socorro county, by his son, Fred, was handed in for the paper and published last Tuesday afternoon. [illegible] the particulars of the tragedy are as follows, taken from the Socorro Chieftain of the 23d inst.:

On the night of the 20th inst. W. A. Graham was shot at Graham, the Gallinas River, and [illegible] miles east of Socorro in the mountains and was killed by his son, Fred Graham, [illegible] about 20 years old.

From the testimony brought out at a preliminary examination it appears that on the evening of the 20th, the deceased with one of his younger children [illegible] where he had a saloon, and in a drunken stupor, to left his son Fred and [illegible] Oscar Graham, to come up to the [illegible] that Mrs. Graham. Fred [illegible] fallen from a wagon and was [illegible]

Fred and his cousin started [illegible] to [illegible] Fred, who [illegible] model, was [illegible] marked. Money, papers [illegible] from the wagon. The deceased [illegible] present but said nothing. Soon after [illegible] went to bed and sometime during the night the family was awakened by [illegible] of Mrs. Graham and the [illegible] blows. Fred got up and went to the room and found his father beating his mother. On entering the room, he [illegible] picked up a shotgun which [illegible] fired to the bed with him and pointed the gun at Fred, who backed out of the room into the room where he and his cousin were sleeping, and there got hold of a .22 caliber target gun with which he shot his father three times, but apparently without effect, as he continued to pursue the boy with the shotgun, apparently trying to shoot him. Fred ran out of the door and his father followed, but as he got out of the door, he fell off the porch. But immediately got up again and started toward his son, who was some distance away, and who thereupon shot him three more times which dispatched him.

At the preliminary examination the slayer was acquitted.

Mrs. Graham is beaten and battered about the face and body until she is unrecognizable.

Public sympathy is with the boy, but there are certain features of the case that look very suspicious.

Graham was undoubtedly suffering from delirium tremens, as he drank heavily, and was very disagreeable at such times.

The three-year-old boy of J. A. Johnson, of Lynn Center, Ill., is subject to attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Bros., of that place, and they handle a good many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians ready to respond to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other, and among the country over for its cures of croup. Mr. Johnson says this is the best cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by all druggists.

Back Home

Machinist Wm. Irvine of this place has resigned and gone to Albuquerque to reside. Lecture on Archeology.

A. M. Swan proposes to deliver a lecture at Perkins' Hall (Academy building) on Tuesday evening, Nov. 9, his subject to be "Some Evidence to Show That Man and Human Civilization Originated on This Continent and Probably in New Mexico." Mr. Swan has made archeological discoveries recently, in New Mexico, which seem to be in the line of proofs of his theory. He has had sufficient practice in public speaking to give assurance that he will make his lecture interesting.

Wait Awhile

H. T. McKinney, accompanied by Capt. John Armstrong, of Alton, Ill., drove in from Hell canyon late yesterday afternoon, and the captain, who is the president of the Alton Mining and Milling company, took the north bound passenger train on his return to Alton.

Mr. McKinney, who is one of the members of the company and the resident manager, was seen this morning and he stated that Mr. Thompson was well pleased with the manner in which work was being conducted on the mill and the other properties. "A start was made of the mill," said Mr. McKinney, "while Mr. Thompson was present, and, although considerable more machinery is yet to arrive, the start was indeed very successful and satisfactory. However, before the mill is started up, for permanent work, a car load of other machinery must be received from the east, and for that reason we ask the public to be patient and wait awhile longer."

Mr. McKinney also stated that Mr. Armstrong and other Alton, Ill., members of the company are expected to arrive in the city in a few weeks.

[illegible] proposes to connect, see that the people are in earnest, they will come for [illegible] competitors for co-operation, and [illegible] in these scores may be a puzzling [illegible] to avoid, as with the farmers of Minnesota who built a railroad of [illegible] to length and then had to [illegible] it from being forced from [illegible] prices. The farmers stuck [illegible] a profit, however."

Very Lucid.

The St. Louis Globe Democrat, of last Friday, contained the following item:

Lucid, the league pitcher who finished a brief engagement with the Browns the past season, wired a friend in St. Louis yesterday that he was in Kansas City, and would reach St. Louis this morning. Since leaving this city Lucid has been at Albuquerque, N. M., where he managed the team of that place during the Texas fair, held at Dallas, Texas. Owing to the New Mexican city the team got mixed up in a railroad wreck at Emporia, Kan., and has brought suit for $[illegible] damages against the company.

The writer of the above item has got himself considerably mixed. Lucid never managed the team of this place during the "Texas fair held at Dallas, Texas." He came here to play with the local Browns at the base ball tournament during the Territorial fair, at this place, but, claiming himself disabled in the wreck near Emporia, Kan., Manager Crawford was afraid to use him, either in the pitcher' box or in any other position on the nine.

P. E. Harroun, the civil engineer of the territorial capital, came in from Santa Fe last night, and is around to-day with T. J. Curran talking low line ditch and beet sugar factory.

Lieutenant H. H. Tilton, formerly connected with H. Brockmeier's bicycle establishment as bookkeeper, is now filling the same position for THE CITIZEN.
