Mrs. W. H. Slaughter, of Springerville, A. T., is visiting friends in this city.

Regular review of Alamo Hive, No. 1, L. O. T. M. at Odd Fellows' hall, at 7 o'clock. Mina Corson, R. K.

Mrs. C. Munson and her daughter, Myrtle, who have been in Chicago all summer, returned home last night.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will meet Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Mrs. Beattie.

J. H. Overhuls, the well known and fearless deputy sheriff of the Cochiti district, is in the city on official business.

Louis Ilfeld, of Las Vegas, who visited relatives here, has returned home after a most enjoyable time in the metropolis.

The Woman's Circle of the Baptist church will hold a devotional meeting Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the church.

Louis Huning, the wealthy Valencia county stock raiser, was here yesterday. He reports the range of Valencia in fine condition.

Edward Grunsfeld, the southwestern manager of the Washington Life Insurance company, left this morning for the southern towns.

Miss Birdie Stone, of Philadelphia, who since her arrival here has been indisposed, has recovered and will from now on enjoy her visit here.

The popular Methodist minister of Gallup, Rev. W. E. Foulks, has returned home. He reports a large slice of prosperity visible at the Coal city west of us.

Work is being pushed on the C. Colombo hall and it is expected that the hall will be completed by October 25th, at the time of the opening of the big Catholic fair.

Antonio Garcia, 80 years old, died at his residence on the mountain road this morning at 3 o'clock. The remains will be buried to-morrow morning in San Ignacio cemetery.

N. W. Alger and family are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Stitt and children, of El Paso, Ills., who are on their way to California after visiting the Colorado resorts.

A. P. Frederick, the postoffice inspector, whose headquarters are at Denver, is in the city on court matters. He is here to appear before the United States grand jury.

Captain George M. Cundiff, who was here during fair week, has mysteriously disappeared from the territorial metropolis. It is thought he accompanied "Jacoby's Colities" back to El Paso last Saturday night.

A. G. Pettus, who was in charge of the news stand at the local Harvey house up to a short time ago, has been promoted to the position of manager of the Chicago department of the Harvey news service.

Gustave Becker, of Springerville, A. T., president of the Becker-Blackwell concern at Magdalena, came in from the east last night. During his trip he purchased a large stock of goods for his big store.

The report that Mrs. Campbell, who was Miss Bertha McAntyre, a former resident here, had been drowned during the storm at Galveston, was untrue. She and her husband were not there at the time of the disaster.

J. S. Mactavish, well known here and at present manager for the Blackwell-Becker company at Magdalena, was on the train last night bound for the above place. He had been with a large shipment of cattle to points in the north.

Forest McKinley, a former resident of Albuquerque, and a special agent of the interior department, has been assigned to duty in Coconino county, to take the place of J. H. Osborne, who was recently transferred to Oklahoma.

Prof. C. E. Hodgin has pensioned his reliable grey pony who for years has visited the educational institutions of the city, and assisted the professor and his wife in their many journeys. At the age of twenty-one he retires in favor of a stylish black horse that may become as familiar to the public as his predecessor.

T. D. Burdick, who had been suffering with cancer of the stomach for the past three weeks, passed away yesterday afternoon, being 62 years old. The funeral will be held at the Church of Immaculate Conception at the hour of 9 a. m. Friday. The remains will be buried in Santa Barbara cemetery.

Fred Fornoff, ex-city marshal of Albuquerque, and a good one at that, still lingers in the territorial metropolis, although the fair closed doors on the universe, except the big city bills, last Saturday night. Mr. Fornoff states that he had a fine time last week and that he had no difficulty whatever in deciding certain prizes during the big parade, over which Dr. L. H. Chamberlin had charge, as the efficient grand marshal.

R. J. O'Hanlon, national organizer and lecturer of the American Humane association, Milwaukee, Wis., is in the city, and he proposes to build up the pateral lodge of New Mexico in Albuquerque. The scenes of brutality to little children and animals by human brutes, suggests the formation of such an association, and Mr. O'Hanlon will no doubt receive encouragement from the Albuquerque people. He will hold a meeting at the city building Friday night of this week at 8 o'clock.

B. A. Sleyster, the real estate and insurance agent, who took a vacation and visited the principal cities of the Pacific coast, returned to the city last night, and he reports having had a most delightful time, being accompanied by his mother and sister, Mrs. R. S. Platt of Los Angeles. Mr. Sleyster was at San Francisco on September 16th when the celebration of the admission of California as a state took place, and this being the fiftieth anniversary, a most glorious time was had. The celebration was given under the auspices of the "Native Sons of the Golden West."

L. M. Olin, the Jersey dairyman has sold his business to C. E. Gleckler, who will move the outfit to his finely equipped place just north of Old Town and proceed to carry on the milk business in a first class manner. Since coming here from Oklahoma a few years ago, Mr. Gleckler has proven himself to be an energetic and successful business man and producer. He has made a success of raising thoroughbred poultry, and has the only up to date yards in the territory. His place is well worth visiting. He also raises vegetables for the local market and has an orchard that contains some choice fruit. Lately some large improvements in the shape of modern buildings have been erected, and The Citizen predicts his success in the dairy business, for which he has unrivaled facilities.

Jacob Metzgar, of the San Jose Market, regales the early risers with a rat killing exhibition almost every morning. During the past two weeks the faithful Metzgar trap has caught nearly a hundred rodents and this morning the trap contained nine of the rat family. A Scotch terrier had no trouble in killing the whole lot.

Col. Martin Tierney, the street commissioner, whose work at the territorial fair was commended by every visitor here, this morning was noticed at work with his gang on Railroad avenue. The colonel has a happy faculty of making everybody smile, even if they are in a tight pinch a la fair, and, of course, he is all right.

Mrs. C. M. Higginson and party passed through the city last night for the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. Mrs. Higginson is the widow of the late assistant to President Ripley, of the Santa Fe railway.

Chief Ruppe, of the fire department, has received some goods which should have arrived here for the fair trades' display and parade. The goods got here from New York the day after parade.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church, will meet Thursday, September 27th, at 3 p. m. in the church. All members are requested to be present.

Mrs. Lulu Wilson and sister, nieces of H. E. Fox, left this morning for their home at Topeka, Kansas, after a visit here during fair week.

J. F. Purdy, the bright son of Col. J. H. Purdy, left this morning for Chicago, to be absent from the city for a few days.

A new light, as brilliant as an electric light, was on exhibition at the second hand store of Borrodaile & Co. last night.

Miguel Abeytia, a well known citizen of Sabinal, is here to-day.

A. J. Loomis, deputy internal revenue collector for this district, is in the city from Santa Fe.

Mrs. Ellen Slusser, from Osage City, Kansas, is in the city and has her name on the Grand Central register.

Mrs. H. R. Moore, registering from El Paso, is here to-day. The lady has friends in the territorial metropolis.

P. E. Harroun, the civil engineer and surveyor, returned to the city last night from a business trip to Santa Fe.

A. J. Martin and wife, from Gallup, are visiting friends in the city, they arriving from the west yesterday morning.

J. P. Brown and wife came in from the south this morning and put up at the Hotel Highland, registering from Silver City.

C. Stern was a passenger going to El Paso this morning, where he will obtain employment in a mercantile store there.

Charles E. Hennessy, of Oklahoma City, has been appointed teacher at the Mescalero Indian school, New Mexico, at $600 per year.

W. C. Leonard, alderman of the First ward, was up and around yesterday. He has been on the sick list since his return from the east.

W. A. Smith, city marshal, L. L. Henry, attorney, and other Galluptes came in from the west this morning. They are here on court matters.

H. J. Emerson, one of the outside hustlers for the Mutual Life insurance company, returned to the city yesterday morning after a tour through the southern counties.

I. F. Barker, wife and two children, registering from Clinton, Iowa, arrived last night, and will remain sometime in the territorial metropolis. Mr. Barker was here last year.

C. L. Doran, a postoffice inspector, with headquarters at Deming, joined Postoffice Inspector Frederick here last night. They have business before the United States grand jury.

Russell Brooks, the Gallup manager of the Albuquerque Cycle and Arms company, is closing out the business of that concern at Gallup, and will concentrate here at Albuquerque.

The Catholic fair will be held on Wednesday, October 31 and continue until Tuesday, November 6. The committee in charge of the details is now busily engaged in arraging all the preliminaries.

The Young People's Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a social at the parsonage this evening. A program of instrumental and vocal pieces has been arranged and will be rendered this evening.

A. F. Robinson, a well-known citizen of Pinos Altos, came in from the west yesterday morning, and continued north. Mr. Robinson had been to the Pacific coast, where he enjoyed a most delightful vacation.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held in Congregational church to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Important business will be transacted and therefore a full attendance is desired. All new members are specially requested to be present.

Last Tuesday night the fire department held a regular meeting, with Chief Ruppe in the chair and nearly all the members of the department in attendance. It was decided to hold a ball on Thanksgiving night, the proceeds to be derived therefrom to help fix up the quarters and add to them a bath room. It was also decided to hereafter hold regular meetings on the third Tuesday of each month.

Hon. Pedro Perea, of Bernalillo, is in the city attending district court.

Col. Thomas Kline, the Bland mine operator, is in the city on court matters, and will probably remain several days.

D. S. Patterson, the ranchman and dairyman a few miles south of the city, was here this morning consulting his family physician. An investigation revealed the fact that an heir to the Patterson household in the shape of a fine baby boy, appeared last night, and mother and child are reported doing nicely, while the "daddy" is stepping over all the high places on his ranch this afternoon.

W. H. Wilson, the pyrotechnist of the Los Angeles firework factory, and his assistant, Fred Able, will leave tomorrow morning for Roswell, via El Paso and Pecos City, where he will furnish the fireworks for the Roswell fair, which will be held next month. The Roswell people will find Mr. Wilson a perfect gentleman and a man who will do his part toward making their fair a big success.

In the rush of fair week The Citizen reporter, who was detailed to write up the window decorations, unintentionally omitted the windows of O. W. Strong & Sons. These windows, besides being tastefully decorated with bunting and flags, contained some of the finest furniture goods ever brought to the city.

All Very Appropriate.

An exchange prints the following which will be enjoyed by republican girls:

Three girls who were riding bicycles stopped by the roadside to get a drink and rest. After drinking one of them sprinkled some water on her wheel and said: "I baptize thee in the name of McKinley, because you have made a good run." The second girl sprinkled her saddle with the remark, "I baptize thee in the name of Roosevelt, because you are a Rough Rider." The third girl sprinkled her tire and said, "I baptize you in the name of Bryan, because you are full of wind."
