The Knights and Ladies of the Maccabees had a combination public installation of officers last night to which a large number of the friends of both lodges were invited. This important duty performed, dancing was resumed and kept up until the usual hour for dispersing came, which to many was entirely too soon.

THE SISTERS' HOSPITAL.

Plans and Specifications Here—Will be Completed in Three Months.

Sister Hyocinth is here today with plans and specifications for the new Sisters' hospital, which will soon be erected on the Highlands, and this afternoon Mayor Marron examined them. The building will cost at least $25,000, and will be the most convenient and appropriate hospital in the territory. On the second floor will be the chapel 23.6x18, eleven private rooms, four baths rooms, toilet rooms, office, with corridor through the building. On the third floor there will be two wards, 25x50 feet each; operating room 13½ by 22; two dressing rooms; four private rooms; three toilet and three bath rooms; sitting room 16 by 18; with etheizing, drug and duty rooms, and a balcony. The main dining room and kitchen, two private dining rooms, sewing room, three store rooms, laundry, boiler room and toilet rooms, will be on the first floor and in the basement. The dimensions of the building will be 141 feet long and 67.3 feet wide. It will be completed in about three months.

RETAIL MERCHANTS.

They Assembled Last Night in a Well Attended Meeting.

The retail merchants of the city, to the number of about thirty-five, met last night in the large room over Zeger's Cafe, for the purpose of organization.

After waiting for fifteen minutes for the principal promoter of the proposition, Berthold Spitz, Ex-Mayor Mike Mandell was requested to call the meeting to order, and after assuming the chair he appointed Fred. Marshall as secretary.

Mr. Spitz still being absent, A. Fleischer, who mailed out the cards, was requested to explain the object of the meeting, and he did so in well rounded sentences.

Just then Mr. Spitz put in an appearance, and he, in an appropriate talk placed the objects of the meeting before those present, showing conclusively that the retail merchants have suffered greatly from bad accounts and that the best thing to do was to organize and consult together.

Arthur Everitt suggested that, in order to put the meeting on some firm basis, a committee of seven be appointed to draw up plans of organization, by-laws and to name the permanent officers. He also moved that a committee of seven be appointed to see all retail merchants as to joining the organization.

The two motions were promptly seconded, whereupon the chairman appointed the following committemen:

Hyman, etc—B. Spitz, Arthur Everitt, F. G. Pratt, J. A. Weinmann, L. C. Brooks, J. L. Bell, H. E. Fox.

The other committee as follows: Simon Stern, O. A. Matson, A. B. Mellinger, D. H. Boatright, Samuel Vann, H. M. Palladino, F. H. Strong.

Seeing that no further business could be transacted, H. E. Fox moved that the meeting now adjourn until Thursday night, January 24, which motion prevailed.

F. G. Pratt made an objection, just before adjournment, as to how much publicity should be made of the proceedings of the meeting, seeing newspaper man present with his note book, but on receiving certain information from the newspaper man he modified his expressions by stating that he thought the greater publicity as to the motives of the association would prove beneficial to the retail merchants.

The adjournment then took place, after which the above two committees held a caucus meeting and will report January 24.

Skipped Out.

Hugh Vaughn, late of the Wells-Fargo express office in this city, and subsequently a train messenger, is reported absent from his post of duty, he having been suddenly called to other parts for some unaccountable reason. Some developments may follow his departure.

J. J. Crawford, the expressman, is said to have left town between two days, and his present whereabouts are unknown to his family, besides a number of creditors, who were not informed as to the exact hour of his departure.—Optic.

The father of Hugh Vaughn is the worthy cashier at the local office of Wells-Fargo Express company. He was seen this morning, and stated that he had not heard from his son and knew nothing of his present whereabouts.

John S. Bell, who was here on business yesterday, returned to Bland this morning.

Chas. McWilliams and wife, nee Miss Fareley of Tacoma, Wash., who have been here the past week visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hathaway and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. S. Negus, expect to leave in a few days for El Paso, where they will attend the mid-winter carnival, and from there they will return to New York, where Mr. McWilliams is in the freighting and towing business to all points on Long Island sound. On October 26, 1900, in Tacoma, Wash., Mr. McWilliams and Miss Fareley were united in marriage, and they are now on an extended wedding tour.

Three sixty-foot flat cars passed through Albuquerque this morning, bearing twelve large floats for the El Paso carnival. The floats are sixteen feet long by a height equal to the length, and were fitted out by Naxon & Twomey, the St. Louis scenic artists. The vehicles are for use in the night parade and will be illuminated by electricity. They are all complete, ready for use and will add materially to the effect to be produced. The managers of the El Paso mid-winter carnival are indefatigable workers and have spared neither time or money in their efforts to score a big success.

Killed in Mine Explosion.

Meager reports have reached the city of the killing of Peter Grouland on Mineral creek, about ten miles from the Blue Bell mine yesterday. It seems that Mr. Grouland, in company with W. J. Murphy and John Crosby were doing some assessment work on a group of mines, and had placed a number of shots in a shaft. After the explosions Mr. Grouland went down the shaft supposing all the shots had fired, but one of them had hung, and when he was quite near it the explosion occurred killing him almost instantly. We have been unable to learn further particulars today. Mr. Grouland was about 45 years of age and a native of Sweden.—Prescott Journal-Miner.

Folsom, defendant in error, and Martin P. Stamm et al., appellants, vs. the City of Albuquerque, appellees, were overruled. The time for examining applicants to the supreme court bar was set for today. The applicants who are here are Percy Wilson and M. R. Turner of Silver City and N. S. Rose of Cerrillos.

ANOTHER RARE TREAT.

Noted Jossey Stock Company to Play Again in this City.

The noted Jossey Stock company, which gave such general satisfaction here a short time ago to crowded houses, will play a return engagement at the Neher opera house, beginning next Monday and continuing during the week. Since leaving here the company has met with great successes and are now on their way east. Their plays are the greatest, grandest, most varied and impressive productions ever attempted by a traveling stock organization, whose glories make all others insignificant. The performances are second to none. The acme of realism is fully illustrated by the Jossey Stock company. The specialities are all up-to-date, among which will be found the Millar Brothers' Famous Diaromic "Under Two Flags" will be the attraction Monday, and ladies free. Price of admission within the reach of all. F. C. Priest, the advance agent, is now in the city.

TERRITORIAL NEWS.

LAS VEGAS.

Trying to Organize Athletic Association—New Odd Fellows Officers.

At Quinly is suffering with a carbuncle and a bad eye.

Frank Sturges, of Albuquerque, proprietor of the European hotel at that place, is in the city and will remain until to-morrow.

Justice Clemente Angel, who has made an efficient justice in precinct No. 64, west side, will not permit the use of his name for the office again and there is talk of nominating Juan B. Lucero for justice and Calixtro Garcia for constable.

The young men of both new town and old town are working hard to establish an athletic association in Las Vegas. A petition is being taken around to be signed by all the young men desiring to join the association, and at the present time 150 names appear on the list.

A game of football has been arranged between the Las Vegas Tigers and the Albuquerque Giants, to be played some time during the last of the month. The Giants claim they can outplay any team in the territory. An interesting game is expected.

At the meeting of the asylum board in the office of the secretary, only routine business was dispatched, among which was the payment of the usual monthly salaries and a few bills for necessary incidentals. One member of the directory was absent on account of sickness.

Quincy Vance, surveyor general of New Mexico reports that the corrected notes of the survey made by F. M. Johnson, will be completed by February 1st, and sent to Washington city, at which time the patent to 49,000 acres of land will be issued to the town of Las Vegas.

Sheriff Cleofas Romero has done the proper, thoughtful thing by placing two night watchmen on the plaza, with positive injunctions to keep a sharp lookout for fires and robbers. He has made good selections in the persons of Nestor Sanchez and Cruz Segura, who have been commissioned as special deputy sheriffs and their juried attention extended over the entire west side.

The installation of officers of the I. O. O. F., occurred in their hall. The following named officers were installed: N. G., Sig. Nahm; V. G., J. H. Fox; treasurer, W. E. Crites; trustee, C. V. Hedgcock; P. S. of N. G., Wm. Schultz; I. S. of N. G., G. M. Birdsall; inside guard, F. H. Schultz; R. S. of V. G., S. B. Dearth. After the exercises a supper was served in honor of the grand master, H. T. Unsell. It was a surprise to him. A number of very appropriate toasts were given. On account of sickness, the elected secretary was unable to be installed.

SANTA FE.

More Testimony in Catron-Easley Contest—Pueblo Indians at the Capital.

Rivenburg's six ice houses are filled to the roof and he has about 6,000 tons of first-class ice stored for use during the coming summer. He was in great luck last week, as all conditions were very favorable to cutting and putting up ice.

Jake Gold Tuesday started in to serve his one year sentence in the penitentiary. He had been convicted of violating the Edmunds law at the last term of United States court and had been at liberty pending action on an application for pardon to President McKinley.

About a dozen Indians from Isleta and Jemez are in the city to testify in the case of the Territory of New Mexico, appellant, vs. the persons, real estate, land and property described in the delinquent tax list of the county of Bernalillo, appellees, appealed to the territorial supreme court. As the case is set for the 15th, the Indians are greatly put out because they must remain in the city until then.

Testimony in the Catron-Easley contest case is proceeding not at a livelier rate. On behalf of Mr. Catron Wednesday several witnesses were examined, among them Manuel Gonzales and Louis Gonzales, who have been in the penitentiary and who have not been registered by the board of registration in precinct No. 18 for the reason that no certificate of good moral character and citizenship was issued to them. Also Cruz Ortega and Agapito Ortega testified that they were not registered, but none of these men had applied in person to the board of registration for registration. Several men who were patients at St. Vincent's hospital testified that they had not been registered, but none of them appeared in person before the board of registration to ask for registration. On behalf of Mr. Easley, David Gonzales was examined. He was a member of the board of registration of precinct No. 18, and flatly denied all the allegations and charges made in Mr. Catron's contest notice.

SILVER CITY.

Sinking for Water on the Silvery Ranch—Precinct Elections.

Mrs. A. B. Laird has been confined to her room for several days with the grippe.

The White House saloon has made a change in its management. Wm. Cozzant has sold his interest in the business to Wiley Bishop. The firm name will hereafter be Bishop & Rose.

The last issue of the Arizona-New Mexico Workman, the official organ of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of the local jurisdiction, contained a very excellent likeness of J. Fletcher of this city, the grand master workman.

Johnnie Holland, a well-known resident of Central City, has taken charge of "Ernest's," the popular road house near Santa Rita. Mr. Holland is well known in that section of the county and will beyond a doubt, make the resort more popular than ever.

A. W. Irish, a well-known mining man from Graham, arrived in Silver City Friday evening, being accompanied by W. H. Antrim. On election day Mr. Irish sustained a broken leg by falling out of a wagon and the healing has been so unsatisfactory that he has gone east for medical treatment.

Precinct elections will be held throughout the county on Monday next. In Silver City there are three candidates for the position of justice of the peace—S. V. Newcham, James A. Betts and William H. Newcomb, but the only man who desires to be constable is Jose M. Montes, Jr., as he alone is the only one who has announced his candidacy.

The work of sinking for water on the Silver ranch by the Silver Valley Water company is making good progress and with very encouraging results. A depth of nearly 150 feet has been attained, and two distinct and good sized streams have been encountered, the water from which rises to the surface in considerable quantity. The first contract let by the company is for three hundred feet, and if the indications warrant success, the well will be driven to a greater depth.

DEMING.

New Postmaster—Approaching Marriages—Accident to Ranchman.

J. J. Jacobsen was in from his ranch on the Mimbres the latter part of the week. His recent accident, has left him with no more serious results than a crick in his right side, and he thinks will be all right in a short time.

Last Thursday night found John Corbett the happiest man in Deming. The cause of this feeling on Mr. Corbett's part was the receipt of a past master's jewel presented to him by his lodge as a token of their appreciation of him as Master Mason amnd man.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Lillian Hunter to S. A. Birchfield. Both are residents of Deming and are well-known here. Miss Hunter is comparatively a new arrival while Steve has been in this part of the country "always." To take place the 16th of this month.

News was received Friday that President McKinley had that day sent to the senate the name of Rodney D. Clark for postmaster at Deming to succeed the present incumbent, Mrs. J. E. Hodgdon. Mr. Clark, who resided in Silver City after coming to Grant county, removing to Deming about seven years ago, has always been a consistent republican and is in every respect qualified to fill the duties of the office. His appointment, therefore, very naturally gives the greatest satisfaction.

SALT AS SAVER OF HUMAN LIFE.

Sure Cure for Pneumonia Discovered by Chicago Physician.

As the result of a protracted series of experiments with salt solutions, the efficacy of which in prolonging life was recently announced by Prof Loeb of the University of Chicago, two prominent physicians of that city claim to have demonstrated that in cases of great loss of blood by disease or injury, normal salt solution as a restorative will save life even when 90 per cent of the blood has been lost. The experiments, which have been extended over a period of six months, have, according to the physicians, made practicable a new system of bleeding and substitution of salt solutions for persons suffering from pneumonia, typhoid, malarial fevers, peritonitis, acute and chronic Bright's disease and all heart affections resulting from the last named complaint. Much success has followed all their experiments, the physicians say, particularly those made with pneumonia and Bright's disease.

In their experiments the physicians used over 100 dogs and found it possible to withdraw 70 per cent of the circulation from an animal before it was necessary to inject a stimulant. The final test was made on a dog from which 90 per cent of blood had been drawn. A needle connecting with a salt water apparatus containing a 2 per cent solution was inserted in the jugular vein and a second needle inserted in the junction of the large veins lying close to the heart. After the blood had been drawn off the salt solution was forced in around the heart and into the vessels of the brain. The dog was able to stand inside of an hour and on the following day was able to walk.

A human patient suffering with pneumonia who was operated upon recovered in much shorter time than is the rule with those stricken with that disease. In cases of malaria the injection of the salt solution was made directly into the spleen, and in six weeks all the symptoms of the disease had disappeared. No claim was made that a cure had been effected in cases of Bright's disease, the physicians merely asserting that they had removed several of the most troublesome features of the complaint.

The Albuquerque Guards held a most interesting meeting last night. It was inspection night and almost every member of the company attended.

The Gallup attorney, K. K. Scott came in from Santa Fe last night and continued west to Gallup. He was in Santa Fe on matters before the territorial supreme court and to attend the New Mexico Bar association.

TRAIN LOAD OF SERVANT GIRLS.

Plan to Supply the Domestic Deficiency in Arizona.

Phoenix dispatch to the New York "Sun:" The servant girl problem has reached Arizona and a novel attempt will be made to solve it. In years past there was no need of servant girls in Arizona. In the earlier, rougher life in the territory, Chinese cooks compelled the servant class. Chambermaids were an unnecessary luxury, and housekeepers who made any pretence at the art of home-making were few.

Of late years Arizona has acquired civilization and has need for the housemaid. In the large cities of the territory, there are many people who make an effort to keep up establishments equal to metropolitan houses. To a certain extent Chinese are useful about the house, but there are strict limitations to their capacity. The Chinaman is clever in the kitchen, but he does not do well in the dining room or at the door. In fact there are hosts of little things which no one but a housemaid can do properly.

In consequence there is a heavy demand for house girls. It is virtually an impossibility to secure a good servant girl, even though the wages are twice as high as in the east. So great has been the demand for servants that the employment agencies have taken steps to import a large number, and to that end an agent will go to New York, Chicago and St. Louis and try to gather several hundred servants for shipment to Arizona. The women can earn from $25 to $40 a month, or about twice the wages of ordinary housemaids in the east. A special train will be chartered and the women sent to Phoenix from where they will be distributed over the territory.

Note—The servant girl problem of New Mexico, especially of this city, is also a very perplexing one, and the servant girls now here do not care to work. The employment agency of this city finds it impossible, owing to the erratic ways of the servant girls, to give them good recommendations, and the manager stated yesterday that his agency would soon endeavor to make arrangements to import a car load of good servants from either Michigan or Minnesota.

FUNERAL OF H. N. JAFFA.

First Mayor of Albuquerque Buried This Afternoon.

LARGELY ATTENDED FUNERAL.

The funeral and burial of Hon. Henry N. Jaffa, the first mayor of this city, took place this afternoon in accordance with published orders, and, although the day was one of the coldest of the present winter, was largely attended.

In a body, at 2 o'clock p. m., Mayor Marron and the city council, the Masonic fraternity and the Albuquerque Lodge, No. 326, I. O. B. B., with the members of the Albuquerque fire department in uniform, assembled at the bereaved home, No. 718 West Copper avenue, where short and appropriate services were conducted by the I. O. B. B. society, of which the deceased was secretary at the time of his death, and a past president.

Following these services the solemn procession, with its dead, wended its way to the beautiful Congregation Albert temple, where Rabbi Jacobs delivered a most eloquent address upon the dead. The temple was crowded to the doors, and the handsome casket, literally covered with wreaths and bouquets of flowers, was a silent reminder of the esteem and respect held for the dead by the people of this city.

After the services at the temple, the funeral was then solely under the auspices of the Masonic lodge, the deceased being its Worshipful Master, and at the cemetery the concluding ceremonies were pronounced by a past master of the lodge.

The pall bearers were Gov. E. S. Stover, C. F. Myers, Aaron Rosenwald, David Weinmann, Dr. J. H. Wroth and Noa Ilfeld.

Hanie Jaffa, the son who was at Chicago, and Solomon Jaffa, a brother of the deceased, of Trinidad, Col., arrived on the delayed train last night, and with the other members of the family, although Mrs. Jaffa was almost prostrated with grief, attended the funeral and accompanied the remains to the cemetery on the mesa.

Out of respect to the memory of the first mayor of Albuquerque and in accordance with a wish from the city council, the banks and stores of the city were closed during the funeral.

AMUSEMENTS.

COMING AGAIN.

The famous Jossey Stock Co. is billed for a return engagement at the Neher opera house all next week. On the opening night the company will play by request, that great play, "Under Two Flags." Ladies will be admitted free Monday night if accompanied by a person holding a fifty cent ticket. Price of admission in reach of all, 10, 20, 30 and 50 cents for the best reserved seats. The following is an extract from the El Paso Times:

The play at the opera house last night and the manner in which it was produced well deserved the good house that was present to witness it.

The play "Under Two Flags" is an English drama, the plot being laid in England at the race course and extending into the French army in Africa. The brother of the hero goes broke on the races and forges the name of an English lord. The hero is accused of the crime and bears the disgrace of the accusation rather than to expose his brother. He exiles himself to Africa where he becomes the object of the jealousy and hatred of a villainous colonel and his life is saved by "Cigarette, the friend of the dag," who loses her own to save that of the wrongly accused, self exiled English nobleman.

Each member of the cast looked well and played excellently the character represented. W. J. Jossey, as the hero, who leaves a life of ease and plenty for his brother's sake, is, though out of his sphere, ever inch a soldier and rides many miles with a spear in his side to save the day. C. F. Berger makes a grand looking English lord, who within that haughty appearing exterior, has a heart to believe in the innocence of the hero and stand by him to the last. Justin McCarthy, as Colonel Chateauroy, the villainous "Black Hawk," did not need to speak to show his disposition, it stuck out all over him.

F. H. Stansfield is clearly the brightest star of the constellation. As the Irish valet of the hero last night he brought down the house. He is a true son of Erin and loyal to the queen and the hero. Lora Davis makes a beautiful and stately Princess Corona. Berniece Howard as Cigarette, the friend of the dag, makes a charming, vivacious Algerian brunette, who held the house in admiration when she talked or sang.

Members of the cast interspersed the acts with singing of the kind that always receives more than one lusty encore. It is a treat to El Paso to have the opportunity of witnessing the production of a clean play by a company of stars and the audience last night proved that El Pasoans are appreciating the opportunity.

The Jossey stock company has some of the finest scenery ever set in the Myar. Between the third and fourth acts the monotony of the usual specialties was relieved by the introduction of some fine scenes projected on the curtain by a stereoptican. Scenes from the largest cities, the most picturesque localities and the awe inspiring navy of the United States, followed by pictures of statesmen whose faces provoke cheers, held the audience enraptured for several minutes and was an innovation that was highly appreciated by the large audience.

FUNERAL OF REV. McCLURE

Will Take Place Sunday Afternoon—Body Will Be Taken to Virginia.

The funeral of Rev. J. N. McClure will take place at the Highland Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Mark Hodgson, the presiding elder of this district, will preach the sermon, assisted by Revs. Clayton, Foulks and Huggett. The brother of the dead minister reached the city last night, and will leave Sunday night with the remains for Roschill, Virginia, where the body will receive permanent burial.

Hon. Eugene A. Fiske, one of Santa Fe's able attorneys, was on yesterday elected president of the New Mexico Territorial Bar association.

Attorneys Neill B. Field, A. B. McMillen, W. B. Childers and F. W. Clancy are still at Santa Fe attending the territorial supreme court.

CONNECTIONS SATISFACTORY.

Improvements at Lamy Depot—Surveying Parties in Field—New Mexico Division to be Improved.

Division Superintendent J. E. Hurbidley, of the Santa Fe, was in the city Saturday on official business, having come up from the south, and leaving this afternoon for Las Vegas says the New Mexican. The new time card now in effect on the Santa Fe road is the best that has ever been granted this city. There are four trains running in and out of Santa Fe, making close connections with all trains from the east, west and south, except the California limited, which latter train passes Lamy going east and west in the middle of the night, and is considered but a through train for California for travel from Chicago and Kansas City. Mr. Hurley stated that he had given orders when trains were late to make prompt connection with Santa Fe, and whenever there is time to make the round trip not to wait for delayed trains, but to bring to Santa any passengers at Lamy, returning in time to make connections with the next train. The depot at Lamy has been greatly improved. A comfortable dining room has been constructed, and a new kitchen and bakery, as several meals are now taken at Lamy. An addition has been built and there is now a short order and lunch counter, similar to the one at Albuquerque in operation there. Those improvements are much appreciated by passengers, as are also Mr. Hurley's orders to make connections with Santa Fe. A new brick platform, composed of 40,000 bricks from the penitentiary at Santa Fe, has been laid at the Lamy depot, and it is believed that a new platform composed of the same kind of brick will be laid at the depot in Santa Fe. The Santa Fe road has made a contract with the penitentiary here, and purchases from that institution all the brick used by it from La Junta south. In the new depot and hotel at Albuquerque, for which the foundations are now laid, brick from the Santa Fe penitentiary will also be used, and it will take 600,000 of them for the building.

A corps of surveyors has been in the field for some months running a line between Eaton and Las Vegas for the purpose of making a survey to reduce and straighten curves and grades between Eaton and Glorieta as much as possible, both for the purpose of increasing the speed of the service, and for the comfort of passengers. Powerful new engines have been placed on the New Mexico division, and as soon as they are in better shape and become adapted to service, delays and loss of time in running will be to a great extent obviated.

The Great Modern Newspaper.

When all that portion of the United States west of the Missouri and Kansas rivers was a trackless wilderness, nearly half a century ago, the first issue of one of the world's greatest newspapers appeared. St. Louis, then a mere overgrown town on the western frontier of civilization, has developed into a great commercial metropolis, and that great modern newsgatherer, the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, has kept pace with the progress of its city and section. It has been, from its first issue to the present time, the children's tutor, the youth's counselor the woman's companion, the farmer's instructor and friend. Its circulation extends to every state and territory of the union, to Canada and Mexico, and to every part of the world where there are readers of the English language. It ought to be in your home during the coming year. See advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

The extensive Chicago firm of brokers, Logan & Co., will establish southwestern headquarters in this city, and Messrs. Metcalf & Strauss will be the local managers. Maurice Vaughan, who has resigned as manager of the Western Union Telegraph company's office here, will accept a position with the new brokerage firm. THE GREAT STRAUSS CONCERT.

Everybody Pleased With the Grand Music Rendered.

Long looked forward to and with anticipation of the highest kind, the Strauss concert last night was keenly enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience of the music lovers of this city. It is seldom that Albuquerque can hear the best the music world produces, and presented by a collection of artist soloists under the direction of a past master of melody and harmony, too much credit cannot be given Proprietor Neher and Manager Kirchof in securing the concert troupe, and when the large guarantee required and the fact that the troupe made no other stop between California and Colorado is considered, the two gentlemen above referred to are certainly entitled to the thanks of the public for their enterprise.

The concert was a musical treat and the numbers presented up to the standard expected. Herr Strauss was unable to appear personally, but was ably represented by Musical Director Herr Ronalsky, who as a substitute was entirely satisfactory. The large number of musicians were under complete control of his baton, and evidence of their superior training by Eduard Strauss was apparent.

Among the numbers that were especially pleasing were Mendelssohn's "Song Without Words," and several of Johann Strauss' compositions that were extremely pleasing. The selection from "Carmen" was particularly well received, as it deserved. Memories of last night's delicious music will long linger with those who were present.

SANTA FE'S NEW PROJECT.

Rumored Air Line in Texas Would Cut Out Newton, Kan.

The prominence recently given the fact that the Santa Fe owns the Pecos Valley railroad has started another rumor of railroad building in Texas and New Mexico. It is learned at Fort Worth in railway circles that the Santa Fe contemplates some construction that will give that company almost an air line from Galveston to San Francisco, which will be shorter than any now existing. A railroad official calls attention to the fact that the Santa Fe already has a direct line from Galveston to San Angelo. From the latter place to Pecos, the southern terminus of the Pecos Valley, just acquired by the Santa Fe, is only 185 miles. Therefore, by building 185 miles of track, the Santa Fe can secure the most direct route between the leading Texas and the leading Pacific ports. At present the Santa Fe route from Galveston to San Francisco is by the way of Newton, Kas., and the new route suggested would shorten the distance nearly 1,000 miles.

GRANT COUNTY MURDER.

Jesus Ramos Kills Jose Delgado at Silver City.

Another murder was added to Grant county's long list early Sunday morning, the crime being committed in Silver City. In a drunken quarrel Jose Delgado was fatally stabbed by Jesus Ramos. The murderer was apprehended within a short while after the tragedy.

The reports of the unfortunate occurrence are somewhat contradictory, but all the evidence tends to show that it was a cold-blooded murder. Delgado left his home, where he lived with his mother, only a few minutes before he met his death at the request of Teodore Silva, accompanying the letter to his house, only a short distance away. It was in Silva's house that the murder occurred. It seems that very shortly after Delgado's arrival at the house that a quarrel arose, in the course of which Ramos drew a long dirk or dagger and thrust it into the lower portion of Delgado's abdomen, to the depth of five inches or more, severing an artery, from which death resulted in a very few moments.

Immediately after the killing Ramos made his escape and hid on one of the hijals on Chihuahua hill, in which he was located and arrested by Deputy Sheriff Cipriano Baca and Constable Jose Montez, Jr., within an hour or so. Ramos was still under the influence of liquor when taken into custody and denied all recollection of the affair. He came to Silver City last November from El Paso, and has been working at the Silver City Reduction works.

The aged mother of the murdered man, who followed him when called out of the house by Silva, claims that as soon as he entered the latter's house he was set upon by Ramos Silva, and a man named Rolla, and while attempting to defend himself was stabbed and killed. Silva claims that the dead man made an insulting remark concerning his (Silva's) wife and that led to the difficulty. Both Silva and Rolla were arrested and locked up as witnesses.

From all the facts, it would seem that Delgado was called out of his home with the deliberate purpose of murdering him.

The above facts in connection with the murders were elicited at the coroner's inquest, which was held Sunday morning by Justice of the Peace Newcomb, and which returned a verdict of death at the hands of Ramos.

Ramos was to have had a preliminary hearing yesterday, but on account of the burial of the deceased, which took place in the afternoon, and whose funeral several of the witnesses desired to attend, the same was postponed until this morning at 10 o'clock.—Silver City Independent.

Ill-Fated Family.

Romualdo Reibal, who is employed by the Aqua Pura company in cutting ice at the Las Vegas hot springs, has just lost another member of his ill-fated family, an eight-year-old son dropping dead. A strange fatality seems to have attended this family. Three of their children, aged respectfully twelve and ten years of age and a babe in arms, died in Las Vegas last summer, and a three-year-old daughter in the vicinity of La Liendre. This last death makes the fifth one to occur within a few months.

Days Will Lengthen.

The days will soon begin lengthening, Friday, Dec. 21st having been the shortest day of the year. At about the middle of January the "clerk of the weather" shifts the machinery so as to lengthen the days at the rate of seventy-five seconds, until we reach the summer solstice, on the 21st of June, when the day is the longest of the year.

THROWS UP HIS HANDS.

Peres Surrenders Rather Than Perish from Cold or Hunger.

Sunday night the murderer of Santa Cruz Lucero, who was shot and killed at Mesilla Park Friday night, surrendered himself to a posse of men that had been in pursuit of him since the killing of Lucero. The murderer, whose name is Eligio Peres, immediately after committing the crime fled to the thicket only a short distance from the scene of the tragedy and there remained in hiding for over two days without fire or drink, and when he gave himself up to a deputy sheriff who was one of those who constituted the posse he was nearly perished from the cold and lack of food.

As was stated in a previous issue of The Times, the murderous man was armed with a Winchester rifle and a six-shooter. The man has a bad reputation and it was expected that his capture would be a difficult task, and that he would fight until the very first. His submissive surrender took the entire party by surprise.

The deceased was a cousin of the present sheriff of the county and had a good reputation in the community. Little is known of the men who did the shooting, but it is said he has several murders to his credit.—El Paso Times.

GRUESOME FIRE.

Skeleton of a Man Discovered Near Laguna in Valencia County.

MATTER NEEDS INVESTIGATIOT.

Word reached The Citizen yesterday that the skeleton of a man, supposed to have been murdered or died from want and hunger, lies in full view near Armijo siding, about fifteen miles this side of Laguna, on the Santa Fe Pacific. It is understood that this gruesome find was made recently by some Pueblo Indians, who took the hands and arms, which had become detached from the body by some means, to Santa Rita and buried them there. A suit of clothes, evidently belonging to the skeleton, lie near the body, and there are evidences upon close investigation, that some kind of a struggle took place before the subject succumbed to death. A man was reported missing or murdered in the vicinity of the skeleton a few months ago, and the proper officers of Valencia county are appealed to give the matter immediate investigation.
