ALONG THE RAILS.

Paragraphs of Interest About Railway and Shops.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

J. W. Francis the storekeeper at the Winslow round house has resumed his duties again after a serious illness.

Engine 702, of the Needles shops, has gone to San Bernardino to be converted into an oil burner. She was taken as far as Barstow by Engineer A. J. Wood.

Master Mechanic Parks of the Winslow division says he can use to good advantage about ten more locomotives if the company would furnish them to him.

Miss May Penny of Gallup has been visiting with Mrs. J. W. Painter of Winslow for several days. Miss Penny is the daughter of Conductor Penny, of the second division.

Torrivio Coryyan, a Pueblo Indian employed by the railroad company at Williams, was so unfortunate as to have his foot crushed Thursday. Dr. Tyrrder dressed the injury.

Mrs. Rhodes and little daughter, family of Engineer C. E. Rhodes, have returned to Needles from Pasadena where they have spent the past few months with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Ludford, wife of Engineer Harry Ludford, left Needles for Bisbee, A. T., where she will spend the winter with her two sisters, and may possibly remain there permanently.

L. E. Erlewine, formerly night operator at the Williams depot, before the lamentable strike, has again resumed his duties at the old stand. The company won out but it realizes that the old men are the best.

Steel is being received for the Picacho railroad, to be built between the California King gold mines near Kingman and the Colorado river. It is said that the Picacho district is livening up, and this new road will greatly facilitate mining enterprises thereabout.

James R. Flinn, brother of Mayor Flinn, arrived in Winslow from Pittsburg, Penn., and has accepted a position with the railway company there as a painter. The mayor had not seen him for fifteen years and the first question he asked him was if he was a democrat.

Allen Hunt is the new agent at Winslow. He is well known, having filled the position of chief clerk to Superintendent Hibbard for several years, and needs no introduction to the people of that town. Harry Gregory is acting as Mr. Hibbard's chief clerk at present.

Several new steel bridges are being put in between Kingman and Mellen, and several hundred men are engaged in the work of building abutments and grading out for the stone work. When these bridges are completed the Santa Fe Pacific will have a smooth piece of track to run over.

The St. Johns Snips says: The length of the proposed new railroad from Durango as shown by the recent survey is 444 miles. The grade is much less than was expected or even hoped for. The building of the road means the opening up of a vast amount of valuable new country to settlement, and this is an omen that it will be built.

The Williams News says: George Swanthouse, who has been identified with the Santa Fe Pacific for many years, and who has been located at Seligman since it has been a division point, has, we are glad to announce, reached the rung on the ladder which few attain—passenger conductor; and there are none who fit the position so well or with more grace. His many friends congratulate him.

Three cars were derailed at Kingman last Wednesday morning at the coal chutes, by the spreading of the rails. The wreck train was sent from up the road, but was recalled to Franconia to aid in clearing up the wreck of the flyers. They were the first on the scene. In the run to Yucca a car in the train caught fire and was dropped off at Signal siding and allowed to burn up. No damage was done by it.

INDIAN SCHOOL NOTES.

Football Team Training for the Great Game on Thanksgiving.

The smiling face of our genial doctor is again in our midst. He has just completed his work of vaccination in Laguna and surrounding pueblos, and is home for a few days before going to Zuni on a similar errand.

A Thanksgiving program is being prepared by the pupils of the school and something interesting may be expected.

The children are looking forward anxiously to Thanksgiving, when they will be surfeited with turkey and other good things furnished by Uncle Sam.

The basket ball girls are elated by their victory over the girls from the University and they are looking for other fields to conquer. They want to know if the High School girls are not ready for a game. "How is it, girls?" We wish to say in passing that the University girls played a good, clean and very interesting game and that they have improved very much since their first game with our girls.

Our foot ball boys are very enthusiastic over the coming game for Thanksgiving forenoon. The boys have been practicing for only a short time, but they have blood in their eye and are going in to win. They know that their pale faced brothers are much heavier men and that some of them are professional players, but they are undaunted by these things and they say that when they meet their pale faced brothers on the gridiron, if they do not get their scalps that they will at least take some of the conceit out of them.

Kelsey and Mayen run like deer and if they ever get a start of their opponents they will soon leave them in the back ground. We know that the Guards will maintain their dignity by putting up a good clean game and we bespeak an interesting time for all who turn out to witness this national sport on the fair grounds on Thanksgiving forenoon. Turn out and enjoy the sport and get a good appetite for your Thanksgiving turkey.

OCCASIONAL.

Starkey Playing Good Ball.

Fred Starkey, the base ball player who played with the Albuquerque Browns last year, pitched a game for the Californias against the Columbias in Los Angeles last Sunday. He pitched a great game, only one hit being made off of him, and won the game by a score of 7 to 6. Starkey plays third base for the Columbias, but owing to an accident to the pitcher of the Californias, he took his place, pitching against his own team.

Cattle Thieves Convicted.

The examination of James R. Head and William Williams, charged by the Arizona Rangers with killing a steer belonging to the Cummings Cattle company, was held in Judge Williams' court yesterday afternoon. Realizing the strong proof of the Rangers, they did not put up any defense. Each one was fined $500 or given the privilege of staying that many days in the county jail.

According to the territorial laws as revised by the last legislature the crime of killing cattle, obliterating, removing or destroying the brand thereon, is made a misdemeanor, except where the value of the animal exceeds $50. The inability to convict in the district court, where the penalty was made a felony, was the cause of this.

The prisoners will be given a few days' respite in which to raise the required amount before being consigned to the Tombstone jail.—Bisbee Review.

Bald?

Then you starved your hair. What did you do that for? When you saw that your hair was falling out, why didn't you use Ayer's Hair Vigor? It feeds the hair, gives it vigor, stops it from falling, makes it grow, and always restores color.

"I was almost bald before I began using Ayer's Hair Vigor. In a short time my hair all came in again, and now it is thick and heavy."

How to Stop a Newspaper.

The following from an exchange, gets to the point in a few words that it is worthy of reprinting for general information of the public:

"This paper is like merchandise, it is for sale. If you desire your part of it stopped come and say so. We don't look upon a man with undying hate if he wants to stop his paper and does it like a gentleman; and we don't beg him to continue it either. It is a strange matter of business—you take your money and you take your paper. If you pay up all back subscription and order your paper discontinued it will be stopped as cheerfully as it began. When you hear a man blowing about his not having been able to stop his paper, you can bet your suspender buckle that he owes back subscription. And when you hear him bragging of how he crippled the paper by taking his name off the list, you can bet whiskey to drown him that he is a fool. Don't give yourselves away to friends. A few dollars on arrearages will do more toward stopping a paper than all the talking you are capable of, and the editor will be glad to get you off the list if he ever gets even with you."

When Your Joints Are Stiff

Always have it with you, and use it freely. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

STUDY FOR INDIANS.

The Indian Bureau Sanctions Miss Estelle Reel's Plan.

The Indian bureau has just issued a course of study for Indian schools, prepared by Miss Estelle Reel, of Wyoming, superintendent of Indian schools. Miss Reel's aim is to make the training such as to develop the intellect and character of pupils and also to make the student able to do something practical and useful. Instruction in arithmetic is so arranged that while the students are learning the fundamental rules, they are at the same time being taught their practical application to useful occupations. In carpentry, laying out, measuring and building floors in houses and constructive work, they have the actual demonstration of the principles of the arithmetic class; in blacksmithing they take measurements in the making of articles and compute the cost of material; in engineering they make estimates on calculations of cost, etc. The knowledge acquired in the literary branches is brought into play in the industrial work. Writing, spelling, reading and grammar are in constant use; geography is taught by learning where the markets are located and of the places from which materials come, and in history through learning of their development.

The Reel course of study is endorsed by the Indian bureau and the president of the National Educational association.

FROM SILVER CITY.

Sheriff Goodell as Returned—Large Cattle Deal—Mining News.

Special Correspondence.

Silver City, N. M., Nov. 26.—Sheriff A. S. Goodell returned yesterday from quite an extended pleasure trip to the large cities in the east. Mrs. Goodell, who accompanied him, remained in Boston, where she will spend a short time gefore returning home.

The Elk lodge of this city will hold their annual memorial services in their lodge rooms next Sunday afternoon. The memorial address will be delivered by Lawyer R. M. Turner. The public is invited to attend.

A large cattle deal was closed in this city yesterday, when J. C. Cureton made a contract to deliver a train load of cattle to Joseph Weil, of Sanger, Colo. The stock will be loaded from this point on December 10. Several other stockmen of Grant county will contribute to the large shipment. The cattle brought an exceptionally good price.

The local company of militia had a practice company drill at the Athletic park last Sunday afternoon, and quite a number were out to witness the drill and the boys did themselves proud.

The Mountain Key Mining company operating the Mountain Key mine at Pinos Altos, has been working three shifts and has an enormous steam pump at work pumping the water out. The company is retimbering the shaft and otherwise putting it in good shape for extensive operations. It is expected that this mine will prove one of the large producers in that district in a short time. Mr. O. B. Hardy, who has the work in charge, is at the present time in Arizona on a short trip to some mining properties he has there and as soon as he returns the work will be commenced with a vim.

The Thanksgiving ball to be given by the local Rebekah lodge on Thanksgiving evening in Newcomb hall promises to be one of the largest affairs of the season.

United States Marshal Foraker was a passenger on yesterday's incoming train to look after some matters at ranch a short distance from Silver City.

Will Observe.

The postoffice will observe Thanksgiving by closing, except as to the regular Sunday hours.

The stores of the city and the two big banks, likewise the shops and the railway offices, will observe half holiday, thus giving the employes an opportunity to eat a good dinner of turkey and attend the football game. It is quite likely the banks will conclude to keep closed the entire day.

Month After Month

a cold clings to you. The cough seems to tear holes in the delicate tissues of the throat and lungs. You lose weight and you wonder if you are threatened with a disease you scarcely dare to name. Are you aware that even a stubborn and long-neglected cold is cured with Allen's Lung Balsam? Do not spend more of your life in coughing and worrying.

Police Captain Convicted.

Captain Diamond was sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000 or be imprisoned one year in the Albany county penitentiary. The fine was paid.

MR. BLAINE AGAIN.

This Time He Bob's Up in Oklahoma With (?) Cox's Cattle.

Mr. Blaine, the cattleman from Texas, is still on the turf, and he is just as smooth and successful as ever. The latest of the gentleman comes from Oklahoma. This time the tune cost a gentleman of that hustling territory about $1,300. Mr. Blaine "hit that country" shortly after his departure, and he is still singing his "Have you seen Bill" song successfully.

Located in that country are a large number of wealthy cattlemen, who are warm friends of W. W. Cox. When Blaine made his appearance he was acting as the representative of "Bill" Cox, of New Mexico, who had sent him out there with a bunch of cattle, but unfortunately he had run a little short of cash. He just needed about $1,300 to handle the cattle and expected to make the deal in a day or two. Wouldn't some one help him out? Why certainly, and the rapidity with which some of those fellows moved would remind a man of the stampedes of the early days. He got the cash and very quickly thereafter a railroad ticket. A knowledge of his whereabouts is valuable, for a pretty good reward is offered for his arrest. If you see him, why tell Bill—but don't loan him money on Bill's account.—Dona Ana County Republican.

GOLDEN LETTER.

Special Correspondence.

Golden, Nov. 25.—Miss A. Guiterman, the able teacher in whose charge the county school is, has forty pupils in attendance, and all are happy and well pleased with the teacher.

Mr. Victor Sanches, a young man from Bernalillo, employed by the Santa Fe Gold Copper company, and Miss Ines Chaves of the same place, the accomplished daughter of Mr. Pablo Chaves, were on Saturday united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. Paull Gilberton of Guadalupe church officiating. After the ceremony, all invited guests were tendered a fine reception at the house of Mr. Pablo Chaves, from where they went to Golden, where a hall had been in readiness for dancing, which was kept up all evening and night. After the dance everybody having been well filled and well plased with the feast retired home, wishing the happy couple a happy honeymoon and many years of happy life.

James M. Lucas, who owns several mining claims in the Ortiz grant and a mill to treat the ores, has been for several days fixing the roads and getting the mill ready for operations. Mr. Lucas is one of the men that several years ago, through an injunction issued in the first judicial district, had to stop working his mines, the company of the Ortiz grant contending that the mines were on the Ortiz grant and that he had no right to work the same. A suit was started and tried in Santa Fe before Hon. J. R. McAffee, associate judge of the first judicial district. The jury who tried the case gave a verdict for Mr. Lucas. Since then the company's lawyers and the lawyers on the other side have been talking compromise, which was only reached two weeks ago. By the compromise, Mr. Lucas gets his mill and claims, the company releasing all claims against the same. Mr. Lucas will commence running his mill and working the mines as before. It is hoped that all claimants on the grant will reach the same agreement and let everybody do as Mr. Lucas—work the mines instead of letting them lay idle.

GONE TO NEW MEXICO.

C. P. Doty Will Make His Home at Albuquerque and Engage in Business.

C. Personette Doty, of this city, left this afternoon for Albuquerque, New Mexico, where he will make his future home. Mr. Doty has formed the New Mexican Commission company, of which he is the president. H. Bradford Knapp is vice president and W. E. Preble of New York, a summer resident of Allenhurst, is treasurer. The new company will act as agent for ranches in New Mexico and Colorado, and will deal in raw wool, live stock and real estate.

Mr. Doty is a wide awake young business man and if push and ability will count in that country, the new company ought to succeed. Mr. Doty calls first to Jacksonville, Fla. He will visit the Charleston exposition, arriving in New Mexico about Christmas.—Asbury Park, N. J., Journal.

RAILROADERS INJURED.

Hugh M. Hogan Seriously Scalded and Switchman Jones Sustains a Broken Leg.

Engineer H. M. Hogan was seriously scalded this morning at 4:15 o'clock at the little station of Horace, ninety miles west of Albuquerque, and was brought to the hospital in this city on No. 2, which arrived here about 11 a. m. Freight train No. 34, drawn by engines 424 and 365, had taken the siding at the above named station, for a passenger train to pass, and afterward started out on the main line. The brakeman was standing on the forty odd cars. The engineers, who were in this city, soon learned of the accident, and when the injured engineer arrived here they tenderly removed him to the hospital, where every attention was given by Dr. Raymond Russ and his corps of assistants. When the engineer reached the caboose the trainmen cared for him as best they could, and succeded in aiding him greatly until he reached this city. The surgeon pronounced his injuries as serious, and was unable to make any statement regarding his recovery. Mr. Hogan's wife and daughter, who reside on South Edith street, were notified of the unfortunate accident early this morning, and this afternoon they were by his side at the hospital.

A. E. JONES INJURED.

In Gallup, at 2 o'clock this morning, Switchman A. E. Jones received a broken leg while stepping from the foot board on the engine. As nearly as can be learned, he stepped on some obstruction, which turned and threw his right leg in such a position that it was broken above the ankle by the passing switch engine. The railroad surgeon was summoned, who rendered the necessary services, after which the injured man was placed on No. 2 and brought to the hospital in this city.

STARTED OUT SUCCESSFULLY.

St. Joseph Hospital Bazaar Opened Up Last Night.

The St. Joseph Hospital bazaar opened last night, in the vacant room in the Armijo building on West Railroad avenue, under the most favorable circumstances, and it is the prediction of those present that the bazaar will prove to be one of the biggest successes ever given in this city, if the attendance and patronage received last night is kept up for the remainder of the week.

The booths all did a fine business, and the total receipts foot up several hundred dollars.

The musical program was much enjoyed, and all who participated acquitted themselves in fine style.

Mesdames Hubbs, Borders and other officers moved around among the crowd, and showed evidence that they were well pleased.

The supper, which commenced at about 5:30 o'clock p. m., was well patronized, and the receipts netted quite a nice sum. Mrs. S. W. White was ably assisted by ladies who are thoroughly acquainted with culinary purposes.

The booths in detail are mentioned as follows:

DOLL BOOTH.

The first booth to attract attention is the booth where all the pretty dolls, donated and purchased, can be found. This booth is under the supervision of Mrs. J. A. Carroll, who is assisted by Mesdames Yrisarri, Freeman, Todd and Misses Lola, Anita and Aurelia Armijo, Adele Hubbell and C. Gibson. This booth was liberally patronized last night and the receipts amounted to $109.40. It is learned that the secretary, Mrs. A. Borders, is assisting at this booth.

FANCY AND ART BOOTH.

The booth adjoining the doll booth on the right side of the hall is known as the "Fancy and Art Booth," and here is where Mrs. A. N. Kearn and Mrs. John Tascher preside. These two popular ladies were found to be assisted last night by Mesdames C. C. Hall, L. R. Thompson, B. Ilfeld and E. Edgar. This booth is exceptionally pretty in pink and white decorations, and proved a money maker last night.

FISH POND.

The fish pond, where the fisherman takes his luck and gets caught, was a winner in every conceivable manner last night. Mrs. Al. Coleman is in charge, with the following assistants: Mrs. Winchecks, Mrs. Richard Davis, Misses Rachael Scottie, Jennie Walsh, Mamie Stoup and Essie Heron.

RUMMAGE BOOTH.

The rummage booth is being looked after by Mrs. J. S. Easterday, assisted by Mrs. Tingley and Misses Anaya and Wecher. This booth is decorated with bunting and the national colors, and was liberally patronized last night.

SMOKING BOOTH.

At the smoking booth The Citizen representative found the superintendent, Mrs. J. E. Miller, explaining the merits and demerits of this and that cigar, whether strong or mild, and usually succeeded in making a sale. Mrs. Miller is assisted by Mrs. E. Corson and Mrs. Paul D. Link and Misses Hattie Kuhns and Mary Telfor. This booth is decorated with Navajo blankets and rugs.

CANDY BOOTH.

The candy booth was a financial success last night, due to the hustling qualities of Mrs. E. L. Medler and the following assistants: Mesdames Ivan Grunsfeld and Fred Lewis. The flower booth is connected with the candy booth and Misses Stella Lewinson, Lena Fox and Jeanette Walton had charge of the flowers.

ICE CREAM AND CAKE.

Next the candy and flower booth is where a person, with fastidious tastes, can get ice cream, chocolate, cake, etc. Miss H. B. Moore is in charge and she is being ably assisted by Misses Olive Moore, Grace Hahn, Bessie Brooks, Minnie Mallon, Stella Boatright, Ethel Gatlin, Maris Wincheck and Miss Bogh, and Mesdames J. H. Wroth, H. B. Fergusson and O. N. Marron.

Then, after a circle around the room, The Citizen representative stopped at another prettily arranged booth and inquired its name. Remarked Mrs. A. J. Maloy: "This is the domestic booth, and everything nice, even the handsome meerschaum, can be found here." Mrs. Maloy is being assisted by Mesdames A. H. Knapp and W. V. Wolvin and Miss Gatlin. "The funds from this booth," remarked one of the assistants, "go toward furnishing the charity ward of the hospital."

MISCELLANEOUS.

Mrs. Nothomb presided at the fortune telling booth and read the lines in a person's hands like a veteran. The owner of "Action" says she told him certain things that happened in his life back in New York, thirty years ago, and he recommends her as the best fortune teller of the age.

The wheel of fortune paddle was quite in evidence last night, and Col. Jimmy Boyce was lucky in capturing the first prize in the first whirl of the wheel. Mrs. Alfred Grunsfeld had charge of the wheel last night.

In the vote last night for the most popular lady in the city for the handsome solid silver toilet set, the record showed as follows: Mrs. A. Grunsfeld, 92; Mrs. J. W. Crumpacker, 10; Mrs. L. R. Thompson, 5; Mrs. B. Ilfeld, 3; Mrs. C. C. Hall, 10; Miss Anita Palladino, 10.

For the prize doll, the vote standing time last night was as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; Anita Hubbell, 1.

The dance last night in the Grant hall, adjoining, was much enjoyed and proved a profitable side issue.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.

A very pleasant affair was the "tea" given Monday afternoon by Mrs David Stewart in honor of her mother's 80th birthday. With the exception of a few the guests who came to congratulate Mrs. Hall upon her advanced age were old people, some of them near the four score mark and one just beyond that age. To judge by the animated conversation and laughter one would have thought them yet in the vigor of youth. Of Mrs Hall's children there were present. Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Downs and Rev. J. G. Hall. Thomas Hall being unavoidably absent, and one daughter, Mrs. Rev. G. C. Wilding, who lives in Elizabeth, New Jersey.

Last night, Max Ehrlich, the attorney, drove into the city and announced the death of Hon. Emiliano L. The deceased was one of the well known republican politicians of the Rio Grande valley, and when stricken with death was yet a young man, being in his 35th year. He was engaged in the sheep raising business in this county, besides being the owner of a small ranch at Las Candelaria, and his death will be mourned by a large circle of relatives and friends.

Short services will be held at the family residence at Las Candelaria at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, followed by services at the old town cathedral at 9:30. Burial will take place at Santa Barbara cemetery under the auspices of Undertaker Strong.

The new local agent will be C. C. Aiken, who is at present chief clerk for the manager of the express company at Kansas City.

On Wednesday, in accordance with a custom inaugurated some years ago by J. J. Valentine, president of the express company, all the married employes of the company received a fine turkey for Thanksgiving, and the Albuquerque employes, of course, were not forgotten. They enjoyed turkey yesterday, with cranberries and celery on the side, at the expense of the Wells-Fargo Express company, and C. H. Young, the popular division superintendent at Denver, whose jurisdiction extends down this way, is pleased to learn that everybody had a fine time and ate heartily.
