Personal and Otherwise

Play pool at Gulley's

For good carpenter work Crisamore is the man to see. tf

Mrs. B. E. Sisco was an El Paso shopper last week

Clothing pressed and cleaned F. W. Jonhson. At Harrington's Grocery

Mrs. J. F. White did shopping in El Paso last week

Full line of cigars and tobacco at all times. Gulley's

For Sale: One good milk cow and some thoroughbred poland china pigs. J. W. Blair

See Crisamore for carpenter work. No job too small nor too large for him. tf-11

For Sale: Restaurant, stock and fixtures. Enquire R. J. Herrington, Gem Restaurant

B. E. Sisco moves into his new store building this week.

Wm. H. Miller made final proof on his homestead south of town last Saturday.

TAYLOR, head carpenter and chief joiner, office at Columbus barber shop.

Buy your lots in the Rice addition and grow with the town.

Thos. Harrison of Logansport, Ind., is visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Addis Allen.

WANTED: To buy lots in Columbus. Give prices and location. T. A. Hussey, Columbus, N. M.

If you want to sell your land list it with Heilberg and Blair. J. W. Blair represents them at Columbus.

Some class to that cement porch W. L. Moody has put in front of his new store building.

Fulton & Burk received the supplies for the well drill last Monday and are continuing the work on Crisamore's well.

Oil cooking and heating stoves at Crisamores.

Manager Moseley reports the following lots sold in the Rice addition: J. W. Goodwin, G. Frank Pugh and Frank Carney, one each.

The kind of cigars and tobacco you want. We have it. Gulley.

On account of delay in receiving the loan from the Board of Church Extension it has been found necessary to again postpone the day of dedication of the new church to some future date.

See Crisamore for well casing. A good supply always on hand.

Mrs. J. M. Holloway is expected this week from Holloway, N. M. She is coming for the purpose of making improvements on their land in the Gap.

See Crisamore for corrugated and each food iron.

If you smoke call at Gulley's.

Santa Claus will make his headquarters at The Columbus Outfitting Co's. new store.

MOSELEY'S

WE have just opened a new line of Ladies & Gents Furnishings, Shoes, Notions and Holiday Goods, and will be pleased to have you early in inspection of same.

In order to acquaint you with our new line we are offering a few Opening Specialties for the following week only.

Men's khaki pants, $1.50 value	$1.00
Men's khaki shirts, $1.25 value	90
Men's overalls, $1.25 value	90
Men's Neckties, 50c value	25
Men's dressed underwear, special value at	75
Ladies fleeced underwear, special value at	75
Ladies knit petticoats	75
Towels, good value, each	10

"STAR BRAND SHOES"--Best on Earth--for Men and Women, 25c. off on the pair, THIS WEEK.

All Goods Marked in Plain Figures.

Your Mail Order Troubles will be Over if you buy at

MOSELEY'S

Crisamore for roofing paper.

Sassafras to be sweet at Gulley's

Buy your lots in the Rice addition and grow with the town.

A. L. Boyd expects to import about 2,500 head of cattle from Mexico the 10th of this month.

Regular dinner at Gem Restaurant, 12 to 2 p. m. 35 cents.

List your land with Heilberg & Blair. They have the customers. J. W. Blair is the Columbus representative.

Looks now as if some more tinkering legislation as to the question of priority water right at the public well would not be out of order.

Buy your lots in the Rice addition, and grow with the town.

Don't forget your Christmas presents at Columbus Outfitting Company's new store.

N. J. Yarbrough made yearly proof on his desert land this week.

E. S. Lilly is putting the finishing touches to the inside of the drug store this week.

J. W. Goodwin who has been section foreman at Columbus for the past four years has moved to El Paso. Hoot Brown, who has land in the Gap country, takes his place.

Ernest Bishop and W. M. Matthews of Albuquerque made desert entries on sec. 18, twp. 28 r. 6, this week. R. McCaughan and the heirs.

Too Many Goods On Hand

ON account of not having sufficient room for the big stock of goods we have just received we are offering many articles each week below cost.

Prices of goods are on the rise, but for having purchased our stock before the advance we are going to give our customers the benefit of our judicious buying.

--For All Next Week--

TOMATOES

Three Cans for 25 cents

GUNTHERS CHOCOLATES

Regular price 50c cents a pound. Our price for next Saturday

25 cents per Pound Box

.....SAM RAVEL.....

Our Motto: "More Goods for Less Money."

COLUMBUS BLACKSMITH SHOP

Lloyd Allen Manager

Blacksmithing, Horseshoeing, Wood Work, Pump, Gasoline Engine, Windmill and General Repair Work done Promptly.

Prices Reasonable - Satisfaction Guaranteed

COME TO THE

G G G STORE

++

CHRISTMAS

Candies
Nuts
Fruits
Bread and
Pastry Foods

G G G Store

(Good Graded Goods.)

COLUMBUS CONSTRUCTION CO.

---CONTRACTORS & BUILDERS---

Estimates Furnished & Plans Drawn
Land Surveying and Leveling
All First Class Work Guaranteed Satisfactory

L. J. PEACH, Manager

Shop One Block East of Post Office