B. W. Byam has returned to Columbus after having spent a few weeks in the harvest fields of Oklahoma and Kansas. He reports the crop immense and the heat intense. The work on the harvest fields this year was very heavy because the grain had grown rank and the winds and rain had caused it to lodge and was necessary to cut the grain close to the ground requiring the turning of the heavy sod. The heat prevented many men working continuously.

Engagement Announced. Anna Lyle.

[illegible] Lyle, of Columbus, N. M., and Mr. [illegible] Hoover, of Deming, N. M., announce the engagement of their daughter Miss Anna Lyle to Mr. [illegible] Hoover, of Deming, N. M., the wedding to take place the latter part of September. Miss Lyle is a young lady of charming personality and has many friends who will be pleased to learn of her engagement. Mr. Hoover is a young man of excellent character and is well and favorably known in Deming. The wedding will be a very pretty affair and there will be a large number of guests present to see the happy couple plighted to each other for life. The bride-elect will be a beautiful bride and the groom will be a fortunate man.
