

VIRGINIA company. DULE. 11th, 1894, the TOMAC. Street wharf, Balti- Friday at 6 p. Morgan. Call and make a people's prices. H.A.S. and prices lower. Nothing. BURGON. KING. MARES. BLOW. COUNTY TOMAS, LOTTIE IALL. ER. LL. M. D. M. to S. P. M.

Saint Mary's Beacon.

COUNTY NEWS.

WASHINGTON & POTOMAC RAILROAD.

TIME TABLE—In Effect Oct. 1, 1894.

STATIONS—SOUTH.		STATIONS—NORTH.
No. 1.	No. 2.	No. 1.	No. 2.
Wash. P. W.	1:20	Mechyville	2:00
B. & O. Ave.	1:30	New Market	2:10
Beltsville	1:40	Leesville	2:20
Brandywine	1:50	Hughesville	2:30
W. & A. B. Av.	2:00	Leesville	2:40
Beltsville	2:10	Woodsville	2:50
Brandywine	2:20	Leesville	3:00
W. & A. B. Av.	2:30	Leesville	3:10
Beltsville	2:40	Leesville	3:20
Brandywine	2:50	Leesville	3:30
W. & A. B. Av.	3:00	Leesville	3:40
Beltsville	3:10	Leesville	3:50
Brandywine	3:20	Leesville	4:00
W. & A. B. Av.	3:30	Leesville	4:10
Beltsville	3:40	Leesville	4:20
Brandywine	3:50	Leesville	4:30
W. & A. B. Av.	4:00	Leesville	4:40
Beltsville	4:10	Leesville	4:50
Brandywine	4:20	Leesville	5:00
W. & A. B. Av.	4:30	Leesville	5:10
Beltsville	4:40	Leesville	5:20
Brandywine	4:50	Leesville	5:30
W. & A. B. Av.	5:00	Leesville	5:40
Beltsville	5:10	Leesville	5:50
Brandywine	5:20	Leesville	6:00
W. & A. B. Av.	5:30	Leesville	6:10
Beltsville	5:40	Leesville	6:20
Brandywine	5:50	Leesville	6:30
W. & A. B. Av.	6:00	Leesville	6:40
Beltsville	6:10	Leesville	6:50
Brandywine	6:20	Leesville	7:00
W. & A. B. Av.	6:30	Leesville	7:10
Beltsville	6:40	Leesville	7:20
Brandywine	6:50	Leesville	7:30
W. & A. B. Av.	7:00	Leesville	7:40
Beltsville	7:10	Leesville	7:50
Brandywine	7:20	Leesville	8:00
W. & A. B. Av.	7:30	Leesville	8:10
Beltsville	7:40	Leesville	8:20
Brandywine	7:50	Leesville	8:30
W. & A. B. Av.	8:00	Leesville	8:40
Beltsville	8:10	Leesville	8:50
Brandywine	8:20	Leesville	9:00
W. & A. B. Av.	8:30	Leesville	9:10
Beltsville	8:40	Leesville	9:20
Brandywine	8:50	Leesville	9:30
W. & A. B. Av.	9:00	Leesville	9:40
Beltsville	9:10	Leesville	9:50
Brandywine	9:20	Leesville	10:00
W. & A. B. Av.	9:30	Leesville	10:10
Beltsville	9:40	Leesville	10:20
Brandywine	9:50	Leesville	10:30
W. & A. B. Av.	10:00	Leesville	10:40
Beltsville	10:10	Leesville	10:50
Brandywine	10:20	Leesville	11:00
W. & A. B. Av.	10:30	Leesville	11:10
Beltsville	10:40	Leesville	11:20
Brandywine	10:50	Leesville	11:30
W. & A. B. Av.	11:00	Leesville	11:40
Beltsville	11:10	Leesville	11:50
Brandywine	11:20	Leesville	12:00

Lower Freight Rates on the Road.

After this date the Rates of Freight on Tobacco will be from Mechanicsville, New Market, Leesville, Okeech, $1.25 per hoghead. On Fertilizer in lots of one (1) ton and over, up to 15 tons $2.20 per ton, from Baltimore to any point on the Road. On Car Load, Lots of 10 tons or over to Okeech, Leesville, $1.95 per ton. On Grain to Baltimore from any point on the Road at the rate of 100 tons per cent (100) one hundred pounds.

H. K. KUBEL, GENERAL MANAGER.

Religious.

CHRIST CHURCH, Choptank—Sunday Services.

10 A. M.—Sunday School.

11 A. M.—Service and Sermon.

All Saints' Parish.

H. FIELDS SAUMENI, Minister in Charge.

Sunday Services, beginning October at All Saints' Church.

10:30 a. m. Sunday School.

11 a. m. Morning Prayer and Sermon.

7:30 p. m. Evening Prayer and Sermon.

At L. and C. Hall, 4 p. m., Service and Sermon. All welcome.

St. Andrew's Parish.

Morning prayer, and sermon every Sunday, except the third Sunday in the month, at 10:30 a. m. Holy Communion every first Sunday in the month at 10:30 a. m.

St. Peter's Chapel, Leonardtown. Morning prayer, sermon and celebration every first Sunday in the month at 10 a. m. Evening and sermon every Sunday, except the first and third Sunday, at 4 p. m. Sunday School at 2 p. m.

St. James' Chapel, Western Branch. Evening and sermon every first and third Sunday in the month at 3 p. m. Sunday School at 2 p. m.

Potomac Beach—Sunday School at 3 o'clock, p. m.

Donor Society Meeting every first Wednesday in the month at places to be duly announced.

Z. VALL SPINOZA, Rector.

Localities.

Lowtown Localities.

The sudden changes of the weather cause much comment. We survey our surroundings, and what do we see? Look! How beautiful! Beautiful, what? Why? The ground is covered with snow—so much snow, yet so beautiful—so Swiss-land-like. True, we see no mountains whose tops are covered with eternal snow, but our surroundings, just now, forcibly remind us of what we have read about the fair of country men—old. Up, up these mountains. St. Bernard where live Augustinian monks. Well, what about them? Why, we are old that they devote themselves to the study of travel, etc. This is all.

Say, would you like to take a short ride? Thank you, sir, but—dear—excuse us. We never did indulge in the luxury of riding, our time is too full—our—oh, we must have our meals at the—oh, excuse us—come, you are aware—understand? Don't you get a plank. Our sympathy for the poor brutes—horses.

The doctors have it that sickness is on the decrease. Thanks, and we will add as our pen dashes along that probably the atmosphere here the earth was "coursed" by frost, it still retains a sufficient portion of its primitive salubrity to keep our friends—doctors—easy.

That traveling is unpleasant toagers in wheel vehicles is too obvious to require proof. Oxen are not shod, and we notice that a few horses are in the same condition. How, this is too bad—indeed, in fact there is a village—hamed?—known by the name of Tall Pine, in St. John's district. Well, not very far from this place—up the Three Notched road—lives a practical blacksmith—Henry Wible, Esq., is the man. He understands the anatomy of horses feet—he doesn't drive nails into "quick" places, neither does he trim the feet too closely, causing the animal to limp. Go to him, and our word for a guarantee he will shoe your horse in a proper—intelligent—manner—just $1.00—will testify to our honesty. Try him.

Burros possibly may have been in a happy frame—state of mind when he wrote of the Daisy, will modest crimson tipped flowers. There is a doubt in our mind that he was, but one thing is certain, we are just in the opposite state—condition. The flowers, the pretty, sweet smelling flowers, were at the very best, we cannot take the place of Flora's beauties. The frost king has done his work, and we are old and dry—perhaps in the near future Flora will give us a Bazing star (Liatris scariosa) to look at. Then our suitors will deplore—well, he says, to Welcome, doubly—welcome, sweet, innocent flowers—God's beautiful gift to a man.

Time swiftly passes away—moments, minutes, and hours pass and are lost in the vast abyss with which they are connected. Help! help! For God's sake help me, for I am drowning! But Quick! There, thanks, John Chow, a colored boy, has extended a helping hand, and John Brooks, colored, of Miner's wharf, will help off the wharf there, 2nd instant is saved.

There was Miss at St. Nicholas Church last Sunday, and despite the unfavorable condition of her sails, proceeds were respectable. Rev. P. Ryan was invited in his words, "Sin is a disease needing to be cut out. We cannot see the beauty of the gospel, we cannot understand the work of the spirit of Christ, we do not even know what we should pray for or what to do. Sin has so great a hold upon the heart that without the teaching of the Church, we would quickly degenerate into barbarians. Light is what our souls need, and if the teachings of the Church be obeyed—strictly obeyed—God, for Christ's sake, will enlighten the understanding, purify the heart, and impart faith—true teaching—which will fix its eye on Him, and keep us steadfast. To err is human, to forgive divine." We hope, that you and your readers may co-operate with Horse and Pie in that sentiment—be as divine as possible, for we are very, very human, and, too, news is scarce.

Auction Sales at the Horse Exchange.

About 250 persons were present at the sale held at the Horse Exchange on North street, Tuesday. Forty seven head of stock were sold and the prices ranged from $15 to $80. Good blocky horses, brought from $25 to $45, draught horses from $20 to $30 and street car horses from $15 to $25.

Among the out-of-town buyers were: W. S. Cook of Manchester, Va.; Braxton Carroll and J. A. Frampton, both of Trappe, Md.; James H. Phelps, of Deal's Island, Md., and Parker Stoff of Accomac Court House, Va. The horses sold consisted of one car load from Ohio, one car load from Illinois and one car load from Philadelphia. After the public sale right head were sold at private sale to a dealer from Stafford, Del., at prices ranging from $35 to $45.

On Thursday prices ruled from $15 to $20. Among the out-of-town buyers and purchasers were: W. O. Randolph, of Magnolia, a copy sorrel; Malcolm Ford of Prynneville, a pair of bays; Lester Wilcox, of Boggs's Wharf, three small blacks, and E. S. Campour, of Denton, two draught horses.

The horses sold were consigned by Wm. Fink of Mechanicsburg, Pa., and Grouwell & Co. of West Virginia. Several animals belonging to Baltimoreans were also sold. After the public auction Mr. H. R. Bowling, of Benedict, Md., purchased a pair of mules at private sale.

(Correspondence of the Beacon.)

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I am at present in residence, owing to the cold north wind that would be chilling but down upon us, making every thing appear dull, yet it is appreciated in many ways. For us harvesters, through the cold wave, have gathered their rice and have a good supply laid up in store.

Well, there is a wedding now on, and, and one of the most beautiful of the season occurred on Thursday, the twenty fourth instant, at the residence of Mr. J. W. Hill, near Bado's Creek. The contracting parties were Miss Margaret Burch, a niece of Mr. Hill, with whom she resided, and Mr. Marellus Dean, of Mechanicsville. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a handsome costume of white with blue and gold, and the groom wore a suit of gray with a blue and gold waistcoat. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Choptank, who, in a few brief words, pronounced them man and wife.

Localities and Otherwise.

Thursday, of next week, will be St. Valentine's Day.

Sleighting has been very good and many have enjoyed it.

Read the communication of Mr. F. M. Neale elsewhere published.

Miss Agnes Dillaway, of Washington, is visiting friends in St. Mary's.

The County Commissioners will meet Tuesday next, the 12th inst.

The St. Mary's ground hog did not see his shadow Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. John Leach and daughter, of Britton's Neck, are visiting friends and relatives in Washington.

Mr. Daniel Combs, son of Hon. R. C. Combs, of Leonardtown, has been obliged to leave school because of ill health.

Notice the advertisement of Moore's 27th Annual Duck Supper and be sure you remember the date and do not forget to attend.

Mr. David L. Dawson, of this town, and Miss Mary Dawson, of the firm of Armstrong & Caster, Baltimore, are visiting relatives in Virginia.

The Richardson property situated on St. John's Creek, St. Inigo's district, was sold at Sheriff's sale Tuesday last for $2,680. It was bid in by Messrs. R. C. Combs, James F. Abell and I. G. V. McKay.

Mr. Charles S. Grason, of St. Mary's county, son of the late Judge Richard Grason, visited relatives in Town last week. He was formerly a member of the Baltimore county bar, but is now farming.—Sun.

John Washington, colored, was tried before Justice Camaller last Monday for an assault upon Walter Hayden, also colored. Washington was adjudged guilty and fined $1 and costs. Camaller for State Holmes for prisoner.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Nellie Williams, daughter of Mrs. Annie R. Robertson, to Mr. Richard Thompson Balen. Mr. Balen is the son of Dr. J. A. Balen. The ceremony is to be at St. Peter's P. E. Church, Baltimore, February 13, 1895.

Lowtown Localities.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

The sudden changes of the weather cause much comment. We survey our surroundings, and what do we see? Look! How beautiful! Beautiful, what? Why? The ground is covered with snow—so much snow, yet so beautiful—so Swiss-land-like. True, we see no mountains whose tops are covered with eternal snow, but our surroundings, just now, forcibly remind us of what we have read about the fair of country men—old. Up, up these mountains. St. Bernard where live Augustinian monks. Well, what about them? Why, we are old that they devote themselves to the study of travel, etc. This is all.

Say, would you like to take a short ride? Thank you, sir, but—dear—excuse us. We never did indulge in the luxury of riding, our time is too full—our—oh, we must have our meals at the—oh, excuse us—come, you are aware—understand? Don't you get a plank. Our sympathy for the poor brutes—horses.

The doctors have it that sickness is on the decrease. Thanks, and we will add as our pen dashes along that probably the atmosphere here the earth was "coursed" by frost, it still retains a sufficient portion of its primitive salubrity to keep our friends—doctors—easy.

That traveling is unpleasant toagers in wheel vehicles is too obvious to require proof. Oxen are not shod, and we notice that a few horses are in the same condition. How, this is too bad—indeed, in fact there is a village—hamed?—known by the name of Tall Pine, in St. John's district. Well, not very far from this place—up the Three Notched road—lives a practical blacksmith—Henry Wible, Esq., is the man. He understands the anatomy of horses feet—he doesn't drive nails into "quick" places, neither does he trim the feet too closely, causing the animal to limp. Go to him, and our word for a guarantee he will shoe your horse in a proper—intelligent—manner—just $1.00—will testify to our honesty. Try him.

Burros possibly may have been in a happy frame—state of mind when he wrote of the Daisy, will modest crimson tipped flowers. There is a doubt in our mind that he was, but one thing is certain, we are just in the opposite state—condition. The flowers, the pretty, sweet smelling flowers, were at the very best, we cannot take the place of Flora's beauties. The frost king has done his work, and we are old and dry—perhaps in the near future Flora will give us a Bazing star (Liatris scariosa) to look at. Then our suitors will deplore—well, he says, to Welcome, doubly—welcome, sweet, innocent flowers—God's beautiful gift to a man.

Time swiftly passes away—moments, minutes, and hours pass and are lost in the vast abyss with which they are connected. Help! help! For God's sake help me, for I am drowning! But Quick! There, thanks, John Chow, a colored boy, has extended a helping hand, and John Brooks, colored, of Miner's wharf, will help off the wharf there, 2nd instant is saved.

There was Miss at St. Nicholas Church last Sunday, and despite the unfavorable condition of her sails, proceeds were respectable. Rev. P. Ryan was invited in his words, "Sin is a disease needing to be cut out. We cannot see the beauty of the gospel, we cannot understand the work of the spirit of Christ, we do not even know what we should pray for or what to do. Sin has so great a hold upon the heart that without the teaching of the Church, we would quickly degenerate into barbarians. Light is what our souls need, and if the teachings of the Church be obeyed—strictly obeyed—God, for Christ's sake, will enlighten the understanding, purify the heart, and impart faith—true teaching—which will fix its eye on Him, and keep us steadfast. To err is human, to forgive divine." We hope, that you and your readers may co-operate with Horse and Pie in that sentiment—be as divine as possible, for we are very, very human, and, too, news is scarce.

Tribute to a Respect.

At the monthly meeting of the Parish Aid Society, held on Jan. 17, 1895, the announcement was made of the death of our aged and worthy friend and member, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Maddox.

The Society, desirous of placing on record its esteem of this venerable servant of Christ and His Church, appointed a Committee to draft a letter expressive of our appreciation of the Christian life of the departed, and our sympathy for those who, by her death, are bereaved.

Regarding our deceased sister, we believe she has attained to that blessedness declared in the words of the inspired Apostle:

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord: Even so, saith the Spirit; for they rest from their labors."

To the afflicted we would say, in the words of our Blessed Lord:

"He is not dead, but sleepeth." "They dear, may God give us all grace to attain such respect of character in Christ Jesus, that we may at last fall asleep peacefully in Him, and through the grave and gate of death, pass to our joyful Resurrection."</