JAMES HURLEY IS REMEMBERED

Picture of Late General Manager of Santa Fe Railroad Is Presented to Las Vegas Commercial Club.

Las Vegas, N. M., April 3.—Hanging upon the wall in the lobby of the Commercial club, where it will remain for years to come, the pride of every citizen of Las Vegas, is the portrait of a man who loved this community and who always called it "home," though the latter years of his life were spent in other cities. The man's name is James E. Hurley, late general manager of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway, whose sudden death occurred several months ago.

The picture was presented by Mrs. Hurley to the citizens of Las Vegas, Mr. Hurley having been a member of the Commercial club for years, the handsome quarters of that organization were deemed the proper place in which the picture should be kept. The portrait was presented to the club through Harry W. Kelly, a warm personal friend of Mr. Hurley.

The formal presentation of the picture occurred last evening at a smoker which was attended by members of the club.

President W. J. Lucas, in a short presentation speech, spoke feelingly of Mr. Hurley and the admirable traits of character possessed by him. Mr. Lucas told of the love Mr. Hurley had for Las Vegas and how his happiest moments were when he was permitted to "come back home." Harry W. Kelly also spoke highly of Mr. Hurley and other members of the club told anecdotes and reminiscences concerning the strong-hearted railroader.

By a vote of the club it was decided to send to Mrs. Hurley a letter expressing the thanks of the club and of the citizens of Las Vegas for the handsome portrait of Mr. Hurley. A committee composed of Harry W. Kelly, George A. Fleming and Herbert W. Clark was appointed for this purpose.

SAM SMALL WILL LIVE IN ARIZONA

Noted Evangelist Intends to Start Paper in Phoenix and May Take Prominent Part in Politics.

Williams, Ariz., April 3.—Rev. Sam Small, one of the most famous evangelists in America, and a brilliant orator, was a visitor in Williams last week in company with Rev. J. M. Ocheltree of this place. Rev. Mr. Small is entitled to place D. D. and L. L. D. after his name. Dr. Small stated, in the course of conversation, that he intended starting a paper in Phoenix, the material for which has already been ordered. The new journalistic venture will be called The Sun, will be Democratic in politics, and the first issue will make its appearance about May 1. Dr. Small has traveled extensively and says he has found no section of the country that has such a promising future or that offers better opportunities for investment than does Arizona.
