HUGE UNDERTAKING TO PRESENT THE ACADEMY PLAY

"Christian Triumph" Calls for Special Scenery, Elaborate Costumes and Many Rehearsals.

The general public is not fully aware of the tremendous amount of work necessary to stage a production of the size and importance of "The Christian Triumph," a grand Roman tragedy, to be given in addition to the Elks' theater on the afternoon of June 14, by the people of St. Vincent's school. While not a heavy tragedy in the sense that its characters weave on the audience, it is heavy in that it requires more than ordinary ability from the players and a great deal of power than have rehearsed were. Rehearsals for the play have been under way for more than two months. Stage rehearsals have been the rule this week and more rehearsals in the Elks will begin Saturday. The production calls for several scenery and a number of rare and elaborate costumes. All necessary properties and costumes are now on hand and everything indicates that the play will be a brilliant success.

ALL ENVELOPES TO HELP ADVERTISE THE FAIR

Secretary-Manager John B. McManus Has Novel Scheme to Tell People About Fall Exhibition.

The New Mexico State fair, to be held in Albuquerque Oct. 9 to 14, will be advertised throughout the country in a novel way this year. Secretary-Manager John B. McManus has made arrangements to gather up the stationery of practically every business house in town and print on them in the corner, in neat and attractive form, information. New Mexico State Fair, October 9-14, 1911, Albuquerque, N. M. The description will be printed on the envelopes at the expense of the fair association.

Many business houses in Albuquerque send out as many as a thousand letters a day and it can be readily seen what a large amount of advertising will be obtained as the result of the publicity scheme.

NEGRO PREACHERS DISAGREE ABOUT BAPTISM

Rev. G. H. Byas, Former Pastor of African M. E. Church Challenges Mount Olivet Baptist Pastor.

A theological discussion of considerable importance is expected to take place in the near future if the issues of Rev. G. H. Byas, former pastor of the African M. E. church of this city, are realized. Rev. Byas today issued a challenge, through Rev. J. Jackson Bellamy, pastor of the Mount Olivet Baptist church to a joint debate on the subject of "water baptism." It is understood that considerable discussion of opinions has been expressed between the members of the two congregations as to the more valid form of baptism. Rev. Byas presented the matter to a prominent member today, who is among the influential people of the colored race.

To a Herald reporter yesterday Mr. Bellamy stated that he was willing to take part with Rev. Byas in a joint debate on the subject of water baptism, the debate to be held any place and time chosen by him. I do not fear the outcome of such debate. I will expect your answer through your columns.

Respectfully,
G. H. BYAS,
Former Pastor A. M. E. church.

LIMITED CROWDED TO CAPACITY

One Hundred and Sixty-One Passengers On Pride of the Pullman Service Through Here Today.

Conforming to all the general traffic arrangements, the Santa Fe limited westbound, carrying one hundred and sixty-one passengers out of Chicago, got into Coast of Arcadia early Tuesday for the heaviest tourist load for Los Angeles, ordinarily at this time of the year, traffic to California is not heavy from the east. But the large number of people now travelling to the coast indicates that the Pride is attracting tourist crowds this year than ever before.
