

Saint Mary's Beacon.

LEONARDTOWN, MD.

THURSDAY Morning May 9.

Hon. Lador Rayner's oration at Music Hall, Baltimore, April 30th, ultimo, was eloquent, bold and forceful. What he said was well said, but it would have been better for him had some of it been unsaid. We think the speech, though it may add to his reputation as an orator, will subtract not a little from his chances of securing the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. Gov. Brown and others whom Mr. Rayner belittles, will bestir themselves against him and he will feel the effect of their opposition. Mr. Rayner, in our opinion, was a much stronger candidate before his speech than he will be after it. Certainly, his speech has developed an opposition to him in St. Mary's that did not previously exist.

(Correspondence of the Beacon.)

WASHINGTON, May 6, 1895.
The British flag has been hauled down and the troops withdrawn from Corinto, San Salvador, the smallest of the Central American States, having pledged her credit that fifteen days after the withdrawal of the English $75,000 shall be paid to the "Old Lady of Threadneedle" street, London.

The Administration has been subject to much abuse for not interfering in Nicaragua, and Senator Morgan in an interview published in the Star and "flushed" over the country indulged in very bitter criticisms of Mr. Bayard and over his speech before the State Department. That "age" has not cooled the Douglas blood" is evident, for Senator Morgan is ready to fight before the English flag shall be taken over the people of the country would fight with him. That the little States of South and Central America expect to be protected by their big sister of the North is certain, and they set like little boys who "sass" their teacher and then run to their big brother for safety.

The President is still at Woodley and has had his portrait painted by an artist from Detroit for Don Dickinson, but has taken time to write a letter to Gov. Stone, of Mississippi, that is going to give those office-holders who criticize the Administration some uneasiness. Of course the financial question was discussed, and when or where is it not? All over the West and South conventions are being held and resolutions passed urging free coinage or bimetalism.

Cook county, Ill., the stronghold of the Illinois Democracy, in convention passed the following resolution by a vote of 726 to 26:
"Resolved, by the Democracy of Cook county, that we demand the immediate restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1, as it existed prior to 1873, without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation, such gold and silver coin to be full legal tender for all debts, public and private."

For a long time this ratio of 16 to 1 was as Greek to me, but upon inquiry I found that the original of the silver dollar, or "dollar of our daddies," was the Spanish milled dollar, or "colon" for more than one hundred years before the Declaration of Independence. When in 1792 a mint and system of coinage was established the law ordained that coins of gold, silver and copper should be struck. Gold eagles containing 247 grains of pure gold; half eagles and quarter eagles $10, 5 and $2.50 pieces; silver dollars, each to be of value of the Spanish milled dollar, and that the proportionate weight of the silver coins to gold ones should be as 15 to 1. These silver dollars as fast as coined, however, were sent to the West Indies by speculators who bought the much worn Spanish took them to the mint for recoinage and made a handsome profit. To stop this traffic in the national currency Jefferson in 1806 ordered the coinage of silver dollars stopped, and the order remained in force until 1836.

Sec'y Carlisle will soon leave for Tennessee and Kentucky, where he will deliver three speeches on the financial question. Sec'y Hoke Smith has just returned from a trip much better off than when he went, for he brought back a check for thirty thousand dollars, his fee in a railroad suit.

Justice Jackson has arrived and the Income Tax case will be argued before a full bench.

The President has not yet named the Deputy Comptroller of the Treasury in place of Mansur. Among the persons spoken of is John M. Dent, of Maryland. Civil Service Commissioner Roosevelt has resigned to accept, with Col. Fred Grant, the place of Police Commissioner of New York. Much regret is felt at Mr. Roosevelt's departure, as he is an out and out civil service man, and has the courage of his convictions. Mr. Lyman, the Republican Commissioner, has been asked to resign, so the board will be reorganized.

The appointment of the Treasury, Major Katz, of Pa., has been transferred to the post at Philadelphia, but his successor has not been named. Brig. Gen'l Casey, who has charge of the Public Buildings and grounds, having reached the age of sixty-four, must be retired and a younger man take his place.

The clear warm weather of the past few days has given an impulse to all outdoor sports. Golf is much effected. It is a new game which, in the words of an Oxford Professor, "consist in putting little balls into little holes with an instrument very ill adapted for the purpose."

The local Golf club here is made up of the smart set and has a pretty club house and quite a good size link course at Roslyn in Virginia.

Society has gone mad on wheels and young men and old men and women ride bicycles. Parties are made up for outings in the country with Woodley Lane Land or some of the many handsome suburban houses the rendezvous.

The younger women wear bloomers and people who ten years ago stopped to stare at Lawyeress Belva Lockwood propelling her velocipede never notice the silent steed or its rider as they flash by.

Base ball, foot ball and tennis each have their votaries, but the base ball fiend is ever present and the way he risks life and limb to catch a car enroute to the grounds is positively nerve wracking.

The Principal of the Agricultural College on Saturday entertained the Vansville Farmer's Club and the Patuxent Planter's Club and at the suggestion of Col. Powell it was determined to try and unite the five lower counties in forming an Immigration Bureau.

Better times which mean better prices have been long hoped and prayed for and if better prices is a criterion, the better times will soon be here for since the first of March wheat has risen ten cents, corn eight cents a bushel, pork $2 a barrel, cotton a cent and a-half a pound and petroleum fifty cents a barrel. While the things we buy from abroad have not advanced, coffee is lower, sugar about the same, while the price of cattle of all kinds has not declined. Spring lambs being quoted at from 7 to 9 cents a pound, calves 3 to 6 cents a pound, cows $25 to $45 each. Poultry sympathies with meat. Spring chickens being quoted at 25 to 40 cents. Vegetables are becoming plenty, strawberries are 25 cents a box. Butter and eggs lower than last week.

Secretary Graham is quite ill—over work.

Japan has given up her claim to Port Arthur and the peninsula of Lees Lung, Russia, Germany and France objected to the session any Chinese territory.

Many of the members of Congress still linger here and every day the hotel registers show the names of prominent men from all parts of the country.

Much interest is felt here among all men classes from Southern Maryland in the selection of the county seat for Charles county. The advocates of La Plata and of Chapel Point both present strong arguments, one has the railroad and a very flat uninteresting landscape. The other is a site around which clings much historic interest and which for natural beauty of scenery is not surpassed. The advocates for the Point should take the voters of Charles up in the tower of St. Thomas' Church on the hill and show them the many advantages of the place. As far as the eye can reach the blue Potomac winds it way seaward dotted with vessels of all classes and sizes. The county lies at his feet and while hills slope gently to the Chapel lay, broad fields stretch inward—teeming with all that makes life worth living. I have never yet met any one who had visited the Point that did not express a wish to return, and "Chapel Point excursions" are well patronized.

It is a great shame that such a public spirited man as C. C. Lancaster the owner of Chapel Point, should be disfranchised. While he has a fine law practise here, there is no doubt of his love for his native county and the thought that has dominated him for years has been the best way to develop her resources. The Southern Maryland Development Company owes its origin to him. Rock Point cannery was established at his suggestion, and when the question of how the plant could be utilized at the end of the oyster season, his practical wife said: Can fruit and vegetables—plant tomatoes—and thus a new impulse was given to Southern Maryland which should be the garden of Washington and Baltimore.

On the part of the citizens to work all together for the public good. His Eminence the Cardinal says "God has done all for lower Maryland. Those beautiful rivers teem with fish and whose fields and woods are covered with flowers." That longtalked of railroad once finished even within a short distance of salt water would do much, but if finished to Point Lookout what a blessing it would not only to the residents of the county, but to the citizens of both Washington and Baltimore. I never see a train start out for Bay Ridge I do not wish one could go to Point Lookout. What crowds would board it and in what a little while St. Mary's would have the most popular sea (or bay) side resort in the State. Even now with the many disadvantages it is popular as a camping out place for people from this city which has no convenient salt water resort. Bay Ridge is for Baltimoreans only as we have found to our cost, for everything stops when the boat and trains for Baltimore leave. Point Lookout would fill a long felt and growing want of thousands here, and now that the financial clouds are a little brighter and bid fair to disappear altogether, in the sweet by and by, let us hope the road may be completed, and Point Lookout brought within a couple of hours of the National Capitol and the scream of the "steam eagles" arouse St. Mary's to a sense of her own importance.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

From the Baltimore Sun.

The executive committee and the committee of eleven of the democratic State central committee were called to meet in Baltimore May 9.

It is announced that Associate Justice Jackson will soon arrive in Washington, and that he will hear the pleas in the reargument of the income-tax case.

A tornado destroyed a large number of buildings and caused the death of several persons yesterday at Sioux Centre, Iowa, forty-five miles north of Sioux City.

W. G. Gischel and R. H. Phelps, commissioners of Anne Arundel county, were acquitted of the charge of making bills for the county for buggy hire and care fare.

President Cleveland, in a letter to the Governor of Mississippi, warns the democratic party that any departure from the old sound money standard is certain to be followed by defeat and an easy march of the republicans to power.

Marshall E. Price, who was Thursday found guilty of murder in the first degree for killing Miss Sallie Dean, of Harmony, Caroline county, on March 26 last, was yesterday sentenced at Denton by Judges Stump and Wickes to be hanged.

Monday, May 6, 1895.

Re-argument of the income-tax case began in the U. S. Supreme Court.

Hon. Thomas G. Hayes, candidate for Governor, addressed the Deer Creek Farmers' Club, in Harford county.

Mr. Thomas H. Gaither has been appointed judge of the Orphans' Court of Howard county, vice John McShane, deceased.

Rev. J. Gibson Gantt preached a sermon at Holy Comforter P. E. Church Sunday last against the proposed division of the Maryland Diocese.

The Sun thinks that a reaction has set in against free coinage of silver throughout the South and in many sections of the West where the silver sentiment has heretofore been regarded as dominant. It is stated that the recent letter of President Cleveland to Governor Stone, Mississippi, bearing upon the silver question has had a beneficial effect upon the financial question.

IN MEMORIAM.

In the 8th district, Mrs. LULU BURGESS DEAN, beloved wife of Joshua Dean, departed this life on the 22nd day of April, 1895, in the 52nd year of her age.

The subject of this feeble tribute had passed only a few of the miles-roots of time, but in this short distance she had contributed much to the pleasure of her many friends and had shed many rays of sun-light around her own fireside. Mrs. Dean had been a great sufferer for many weary weeks preceding her demise, but during that time she bore her afflictions with Christianlike fortitude. But while she never despaired of recovery she was equally resigned to the will of God, on whom she relied, either for recovery or a crown in Heaven. It was very hard to leave her two dear little boys and her devoted husband, but she gave them over unto the care and keeping of her Heavenly Father, believing that "He doeth all things for the best."

Through weary weeks of suffering the cross she was glad to bear; The doctrine of Christ adorning; The thorns or the palm to wear. Her patient trust in the Master No earthly pain could dim; To His will she bowed in meekness, Now she is crowned with Him.

By a Friend.
At his residence in the 8th district, May 3, 1895, JOSEPH GODDARD, aged about 47 years. May he rest in peace!

May 3, 1895, JULIA A., beloved wife of Patrick W. Russell, aged 34 years. May she rest in peace!

Fell asleep on the 3rd Sunday after Easter, SADIE VIRGINIA HARRISON, in her 11th year, daughter of Columbus and Sarah L. Harrison.

Laid to rest at Christ Church, Chaptico, May 6th.

Christ, when this sad life is done, Join us to Thy little one; And in Thine own tender love, Bring us to the fold above.
