SOCIETY

Woman's Club.

If it's true that "variety is the spice of life" then survey the members of the Woman's club enjoy a spicy existence. Close on the heels of literary discussions and domestic science demonstrations comes the program for next Friday afternoon when art, travels and music will engage the attention of the club.

The musical program under the direction of Mesdames Himoe and Harden will consist of vocal numbers by Mrs. Winchester the popular soprano, and Miss Hilda Grunsfeld, who has for the past two years been studying music in Europe, and since returning has resumed pupilship with Mrs. Himoe. The remainder of the program will be:

Leader—Mrs. Ray.

Roll—"Things that would make the art department more interesting."

Talk—"Our National Arts"—Mrs. Ray.

Paper—"Woman's Work in Decoration."—Mrs. F. K. Harden.

Reading—Selected — Miss Helen Ward.

"Famous Bridges, Ancient and Modern"—Mrs. Rodey.

Dinner at Alvarado.

A happy aftermath of the fair was the dinner at the Alvarado Sunday evening when Mrs. George Albright and Mrs. Ward Anderson entertained the ladies comprising the committee who are responsible for the success of the display in the fine arts building at the fair. Covers were laid for eight. There being two committee members unavoidably absent. Mrs. Rodey, one of the absentees is now in Santa Fe and Mrs. Luna another whose non-presence was regretted, being out of the city, also.

The table whereat the company disposed of an excellent menu was prettily dressed with pink carnations, and the appointments as customary at this place, "ne plus ultra." Those present were: Mesdames H.B. Ray, D. H. Carns, Thomas Danahy, Newcomer, A. E. Walker, Miss Hickey, Mrs. Albright, Mrs. Anderson.

Weiller Series.

Among the several social leaders who are entertaining at series of informal afternoons is Mrs. Harry Weiller. A week end card function complimentary to the Misses Jaffa of Santa Fe, Vorenburg of Wagon Mound, and Levy of Denver, was followed by another equally delightful affair Monday afternoon. The invitees on the second occasion were members of the younger married set and was also a courtesy to the out of town belles who were honorees at the first function. Card tables, autumn flowers, lively converse and lunch made the afternoon all too brief for the favored guests.

Reception for Miss Stateson.

"To meet Miss Stateson" read the invitations to the reception next Saturday afternoon when Mrs. J. Yrisarri and Miss Yrisarri will start the series of pre-nuptial parties in the circles of Albuquerque aristocracy wherein move the popular betrothed. The first week in November will be the time when Miss Alberta Stateson changes her name to that of Mrs. Jacobo Yrisarri.

Mrs. Sabin to Entertain.

The first social affair given since the spectacular "state carnival" will be the social tea tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sabin. Wholly social in nature the ladies of the parish and their friends anticipate an unusually enjoyable afternoon in exchange of pleasantries and extending their calling list by making new acquaintances.

Mrs. McDonald to Entertain.

The ladies of the Lead Avenue Methodist congregation and their friends are looking forward eagerly to the social afternoon tomorrow when Mrs. W. W. McDonald will entertain at the first of the series of social teas under the auspices of the Aid society of the church. Special music, vocal, instrumental and literary numbers will make up an informal program to be featured, however, by unconventional sociability.

Ghosts to Make Merry.

A jollification for "disembodied spirits only" will occur Friday evening in the parlors of the Congregational church. The directors of the affair are yet in the flesh and known on earth as the Christian Endeavorers, yet ere eight o'clock rolls around next Friday evening only sheeted apparitions will be seen in the place to be decked in autumn blooms, autumn leaves and grinning jack o'lanterns. Clammy-handed spooks will welcome fellow spooks. Witches and fortune tellers will read the thoughts and future of inquisitive souls. Ghostly pastimes will occupy the phantoms the last half of the evening and the early hours will be devoted to entertainment provided by guests whose earthly names are: Misses Adele Howell, Rose Harsch, Lola Neher, Olga Selke, Mrs. Hinds and Joshua Heald, and several musically inclined spirits who will vent their spirits on mandolins and guitar.

Union Missionary Meeting.

The semi-annual meeting of the allied missionary societies of the Protestant churches will be held Friday afternoon in the Gold and Broadway Church of Christ. An edifying program has been prepared in which representatives from all the societies will participate, and is given herewith:

Hymn ..... Congregation
Responsive Reading.
Prayer.
Hymn.
"The Legend Beautiful" (Longfellow) Mrs. Woodford of the Congregational church.
"The Stranger Within Our Gates"—Mrs. Kapple of the First Baptist Church.
Paper—Mrs. McKee of the South Methodist church.
"The Lord's Work Demands Haste" Mrs. Beckman of the Lead Avenue Methodist church.
"An Outlet for Patriotism"—Miss Little of the Presbyterian church.
Vocal Solo..... Miss Sturdevant.

Adjournment for enjoyment of the social hour when the ladies of the Gold and Broadway church will be hostesses to the congregation. All ladies in the city—gentlemen also—are invited to attend.

Remember the Orphans.

Even the busiest person in the city can spare an hour and ten cents to assist the worthy cause espoused by the little girls known as the "Searchers" club, who will tomorrow evening give a benefit concert in the Gold and Broadway church. The object of the entertainment is to procure funds with which to provide Christmas cheer, dolls, goodies, needed comforts for the little children in the city who are without parents or means. You who read this will not turn a deaf ear to the appeal for orphans? Remember the master's words: "That inasmuch as ye do it unto one of the least of these, my brethren ye have done it also unto me."

Royal Neighbors' Ball.

No pains have been spared to insure the success of the entertainment that is the second in the series to be given by the Royal Neighbors. Piano selections, vocal numbers and readings by a newly arrived concert reader will edify the guests in the early evening after which dancing will be the pastime till long after midnight.

D. A. R. to Meet.

Mrs. Robert Pollock will be at home to the Daughters of the American Revolution next Saturday afternoon. The occasion is the regular business and social session of the month to be featured by the relation of stories of the revolution in which each member of Lew Wallace chapter and every chapter of the D. A. R. had illustrious forbears fighting the good fight for freedom.

After Lodge Luncheon.

Half a hundred members of the Woodmen Circle enjoyed a delightful social hour at luncheon yesterday afternoon following the regular lodge meeting in Odd Follows' hall.

Miss Myers to Entertain.

The members of the Young Ladies' Sewing club will be the guests of Miss Elsie Myers tomorrow afternoon at a session to be rather more of a social than a work nature.

Mrs. Stroup to Entertain.

A thimble party will be the divertisement for a congenial group of invitees to enjoy the hospitality of Mrs. A. B. Stroup tomorrow afternoon, at her home on Twelfth street.

Mrs. Himoe's Class to Serve Supper.

"The Royal Daughters" of the Congregational Bible school, a class of young ladies taught by Mrs. Himoe will serve oyster stew, cake and coffee, proffer home made goodies, and home dressed dolls at a Royal Daughters' supper next Saturday evening. The place is 214 South Second street and convenient for all in their perambulating to and from the picture shows. These energetic young ladies merit the patronage of every shopper or theater goer on the street Saturday night.

Highland Kindergarten.

Of interest to Highland mothers is the announcement that Miss Ada Philbrick has this week opened a kindergarten at 201 South Edith street where there will be held afternoon sessions to accommodate the little pupils living on the east side of the railroad. The forenoon sessions will continue at the guild hall on South Fourth street. The Highland class room is particularly pleasant, being a roomy tent house, provided with a stove for the cool days, with screens for the warm days, and equipped with the kindergarten tables, chairs, cupboards and facilities to study the gifts as piano music for the songs and drills will also feature the east side lessons as Miss Phoebe McNamara will be the pianist at regular intervals.

Personal Paragraphs.

Miss Julia Jaffa of Santa Fe, who for the past week has been the guest of Mrs. Bernard Hfeld left yesterday morning for her home. During her brief sojourn Miss Jaffa won all hearts of the masculine variety—and left a void in local society by her departure.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rankin and little daughter of Tyrone, N. M., are visiting Mr. Rankin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Rankin of this city.

Miss Leona Levy is a Denver belle being entertained extensively in the younger set during her visit of a few weeks at the home of Mrs. S. Uhlelder.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schick, of Needles, California are in the city visiting Mr. Schicks's mother and Mrs. Schick's sister, Mrs. Nee Marth. Their itinerary includes El Paso for which place they leave tonight to visit Mrs. Schick's mother, Mrs. Craig.

Mrs. Hannah Dovle, mother of Mrs. D. J. Rankin left the first of the week to visit in California.

Miss Vorenburg of Wagon Mound, is the house guest of Mrs. Saul Harris and the center of numerous social functions in her honor.

Mrs. Alfred Grunsfeld and Miss Reina Grunsfeld will return tomorrow or Friday from an extensive shopping tour of eastern cities. During their absence the gowns and accessories to make up the trousseau for the forthcoming bridal, were selected, in the fashion markets of Chicago. After a week's rest in Denver, Mrs. Grunsfeld and daughter will be ready for the round of festivities to precede the wedding. The ceremony is to occur at the Alvarado and will be the supreme social event of the season.

Dr. E. McQueen Gray returned the first of the week from a visit to Omaha and Minneapolis, where he went to deliver lectures before national societies. At the former place he addressed the national Prison association on "Education and Crime." At Minneapolis Dr. Gray was one of two lecturers to address the national association of state university presidents. His subject was "The Suggested Reconstruction of the Curriculum in the High School." The other speaker was Dr. Van Hise president of the Wisconsin university who spoke on "The Advantages and Disadvantages of Joint and Separate Boards for the Control of Institutions of Higher Education."

FELT BAD ALL THE TIME
Shellhorn Lady Suffered a Great Deal, But Is All Right Now.
Shellhorn, Ala.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Carrie May says: "A short time ago, I commenced to have weak spells and headaches. I felt bad all the time, and soon grew so bad I couldn't stay up. I thought I would die.
At last my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and it helped me; so he got some more. After I had taken the second bottle, I was entirely well.
I wish every lady, suffering from womanly trouble, would try Cardui. It is the best medicine I know of. It did me more good than anything I ever used."
Cardui is a woman's tonic—a strengthening medicine for women, made from ingredients that act specifically on the womanly organs, and thus help to build up the womanly constitution to glowing good health.
As a remedy for woman's ills, it has a successful record of over 50 years.
Your druggist sells it. Please try it.

I will offer 100 lots only, your selection, out of the five hundred unsold in the TERRACE ADDITION, at the above liberal terms and discounts from the regular selling prices that have been in force for the past three years, and from which $30,000 worth have been sold at map prices.
This addition is close in, all between the State University and the business section. Overlooks the Rio Grande Valley for miles and is undoubtedly the coming residence section of the city.
A glance at a map of Albuquerque shows that the city's growth must be eastward and as Albuquerque will steadily grow to a large sized city---don't make any mistake about that---these lots from a purely speculative basis are a fine investment. I have a few city maps for outside purchasers, showing the TERRACE ADDITION in full.
