INHALED JAGS THE LATEST

Macon, Ga., Nov. 9.—An "inhaled" drunk is the latest thing in prohibition Georgia. When nearly a thousand gallons of blind tiger whisky which had been seized in raids, were burned at the garbage incinerating plant by the police here yesterday, a large crowd of negroes gathered to leeward of the flames and sniffed the vapor with evident intense relish. Many went their way with swimming heads cheaply bought.

DO YOU LIKE BREAD?

Most people do. That is, really good, reliable bread. Bread that is white and sweet, with that luscious, nutty flavor so delightful to the taste. Bread that is thoroughly healthful, digestible and valuable for its nutritious qualities. If so, then order a loaf of Cream bread served at your table. You soon will regard it as an old and steadfast friend, when it comes from the

ARTESIA RAILROAD BY JANUARY FIRST

New Line Which Will Connect Boosting Town With Large Tributary Territory, Now Nears Completion.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald)

Artesia, N. M., Nov. 9.—Contractors Mahoney and Hurd are pushing the work on the railroad west. More than fourteen miles have been graded and half as much or more of it surfaced, ready for the ties and rails. The other part of the grading to Hope will soon be completed and it is expected to have the road in operation by the first of the year.

A loan has been effected for $200,000 to complete the road to Hope and provide rolling stock, and the latter may be in most any time when steel will be commenced being laid.

There is going to be great activity in this work now, since all preliminaries have been completed.

FORMER MAYOR OF CRUCES BURIED

Las Cruces, N. M., Nov. 8.—The remains of Martin Lohman, former mayor of Las Cruces, and a chairman of the Dona Ana county Republican committee, were brought to this city from Mineral Wells, Texas, Monday morning, and laid to rest in the local cemetery. Mr. Lohman died in Mineral Wells last week after a long and lingering illness which he had hoped to recuperate in the balmy Texas air. His remains were attended to the cemetery by a large number of loving friends, who listened in silence to the impressive funeral services.
