BIG FOUR DIVIDEND RATE CUT STOCKS TAKE SLUMP

Wall Street Feels Effect of Poor Railroad Reports. Steel Stock Takes to the Tobogan.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]

New York, March 25.—Stocks sagged slowly today after making slight gains at the outset. The turn in the market was influenced by the spread of liquidation in the industrial shares. The professional traders were bearish and sold stocks confidently. Pressure was applied steadily to the Steel stocks because of unfavorable reports of conditions in the steel trade.

Poor railroad reports for February and a reduction in the dividends on Pittsburgh, Chicago, Cincinnati and St. Louis had an adverse influence on railroad stocks. Pittsburgh C. C. and St. Louis lost 2, and Pennsylvania, which controls that road, fell more than a point. Corn products issues met with support after their early slump And the preferred recovered 3½.

Bonds were heavy.

The slump in Pittsburgh, C. C. and St. Louis reached 13 points and the eastern trunk line shares and coalers were unloaded freely after noon. The liquidation of speculative accounts and broad professional selling carried down the whole list sharply.

Prices stopped falling when Pittsburgh, C. C. & St. Louis rallied 5 points. Recoveries otherwise were small.

The market closed heavy. Prices wavered and fell back again, following the dismal comments of trade papers of conditions in the steel industry.

The more important stocks closed as follows:

Amalgamated, 76⅝.
Sugar, 103.
Atchison, 97½.
Reading, 165⅝.
Southern Pacific, 95⅛.
Union Pacific, 159.
Steel, 64.
Steel preferred, [illegible]

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISION MARKET

Chicago, March 25.—Wheat eased off today, influenced by cables being indifferent and by more favorable weather northwest. Opening prices varied from the same as last night to 1-8@1-4c lower and a slight further dip ensued, but then the market reacted. The close was steady at the same as last night to 3-8c off.

In corn, the majority of traders seemed disposed to press the selling side. The market opened 1-8c to 1-4@3-8c off and rallied only in a half hearted way. The close was steady at a net decline of 3-8c to ½c.

Oats sagged with other grain. Trade was scattering.

First sales of provisions were unchanged to 2½c lower, and an additional decline followed.

Wheat—May, 88 1-4c; July, 88 7-8c.
Corn—May, 69 1-8c; July, 69 3-8c.
Oats—May, 39 3-4c; July, 40c.
Pork—May, $21.40; July, $21.47.
Lard—May, $10.75; July, $10.92.
Ribs—May, $11.40; July, $11.55.

CUSTOMARY SHORTAGE IN THE KANSAS CITY CATTLE MARKET

[Special Correspondence to the Herald]

Kansas City, March 24. — Cattle receipts here last week showed the customary shortage of 5,000 head from the corresponding week of last year, but the market failed to act in accordance with this shortage, closing with a small net loss. Fat grades made up a fair share of the supply and outside of some show of strength Wednesday, killers acted in line with their statements that beef channels are clogged. Importations of Argentine beef are considerable, and word came Friday that the equivalent of 15,000 cattle was being loaded for New York, to arrive there three weeks hence. This and other shipments promise to effect April markets adversely. Argentine beef that sold in Chicago last week corresponds to the beef from native steers that sell at $8.00 to $8.40. Prospects are, therefore, better for steers that sell above $8.50. Receipts today were 8,000 head, a considerable reduction from recent Mondays, and sales were largely steady, cows higher in most cases. Native steers have not exceeded $8.80 in the last week, Oklahoma steers, $8.70; Colorado steers, $8.60. Bulk of the natives sell at $7.75 to $8.65. Colorados today brought $7.50 to $8.35. Quarantine receipts today only 19 cars, consisting mostly of meal fed steers at $7.00 to $7.40. Nothing is here to compare with the Oklahoma $8.30 quarantine steers here a week ago. Stockers and feeders sold lower at the close of the week and trade lacks dash. Sales are largely at $7 to $8, with some cattle on either side of that range, and the greatest call is for stock grades. Hogs are fluctuating on a slightly higher plane than a few weeks ago, several loads selling at $8.80 Friday, which is the high figure for this year. The market today is 5 cents lower than Friday, top $8.75; bulk, $8.50 to $8.70. Light hogs are selling better than a short time ago, and occasionally reach the top figure. Hogs apparently have more latent strength at this time than either cattle or sheep. The sheep market remains strong, but lambs exhibit occasional weakness. Receipts have been running very light, but there is a fair supply today, 12,000 head; market steady on both sheep and lambs. Heavy and middleweight lambs sold at the top figure today, $7.70; medium lambs, $7.35 to $7.65; five cars feeding lambs, $6.50; wethers worth $6.25; yearlings $7.00; ewes, $6.

Refuses to Revoke Parole.

Des Moines, Ia., March 25. — Governor George W. Clark today refused to revoke the parole of "Bill" Richards the former deputy United States marshal, who is in jail here, charged with having been one of the three masked men who attempted to hold up and rob Mrs. H. F. Lafore Monday night.

WAR DEPARTMENT TO STOP GAME HOGS ON RESERVATIONS

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]

Santa Fe, N. M., March 25—State Game Warden Baca today received a letter from Congressman Ferguson addressed to the congressman by Secretary of War Garrison advising that the war department will take active measures to stop the killing of game out of season on military and Indian reservations in New Mexico.

Numerous complaints have been made to the game warden of the slaughter of game on the reservations in this state by Indians and settlers, the killing on the Mescalero reservation in Otero county having been especially complained of. One ranchman has written that at the present rate the 500 black-tail deer, which had been so carefullly protected on the Mescalero reservation would be wiped out within a year, and urged active measures to stop the slaughter by Indians and game hogs.
