Local and Otherwise.

The Commissioners' Court will meet Tuesday next, the 27th, instant.

Messrs. Roach Abell and Jeff. Combs, of Washington, are on a visit to their parents in our town.

Miss Ethel Cook and Mr. Frederick Cook, of Washington, are visiting at Mr. Wm. H. Jones, Leonardtown.

The Commissioners' Court, Tuesday last, ordered that work on public roads be suspended until further notice.

Mr. Joseph F. Neal, of Leonardtown, has sold his fancy built boat to Captain Frank Russell, of the 7th district.

Our county has been visited by partial rains but in many sections the drought continues and crops are slowly but surely being destroyed.

Miss Erva Foxwell, daughter of Captain Thomas Foxwell, of this district, won the Free Scholarship to the Western Maryland College at the recent competitive examination.

Saturday night last, Edward Oliver, of the 7th district, was painfully cut by Thomas Hill. The cutting occurred at River Springs and is said to have been the outcome of a quarrel over a debt.

The Commissioners' Court was in session Tuesday and among other business voted an appropriation of $350 for building a school house at White Oak Swamp, 6th district. Mr. R. King Clarke was before the board urging the necessity for the new building.

WASHINGTON, August 19, 1895. The Silver conference was held on Tuesday, and the thermometer stood above par, and if some of the speeches were fervid and the proceedings tempestuous it is not to be wondered at.

The conference was held at the Metropolitan hotel. Senator Harris called it to order and Senator Jones of Arkansas was elected presiding officer.

The attendance was not large, the majority of the delegates being from Illinois under the leadership of Buck Hendricks, while Senator Daniel led the Virginians. Owing to a severe accident Senator Stewart, of Nevada could not be present.

The proceedings were in the nature of a secret session of the Senate, and a Senate door keeper presided at the door, keeping out all reporters and those who had not credentials. The meeting was composed of Democratic advocates of the free coinage of silver, but who propose the work for that end shall be carried on within party lines, and they expect to control the National Convention of 1896, and dictate terms to the sound money men of the party. Among the delegates to the conference were three U. S. Senators and several representatives in Congress.

Casey Young, of Tennessee was Secretary and chief promoter of the meeting in this city. In a speech at the close of the meeting he said that prominent people in thirty-eight States had expressed the heartiest sympathy with the purpose of the conference. Possible candidates of the party whose chances would be decided by the Convention of 1896 were discussed, and the strongest names mentioned were those of Senator Gorman and Col. Morrison.

Senator Gorman is taking rest at Saratoga but will return to Laurel in September.

The President has failed to appoint a successor to the Register of Wills whose resignation was demanded some weeks ago. The applicants for the position have been waiting for two years, and while waiting the pleasure of the President have eyed each other askance and done all they could to strengthen their own cause.

Ex-Senator Ransom who was nominated for and confirmed Minister to Mexico, now finds it all a mistake. That he has been acting a part to which he has no claim and the amount of salary heretofore paid him must be refunded. How the Senators and President could have made the mistake and how he became a victim of it is beyond comprehension as every school boy knows that no Senator or representative can be appointed to and confirmed in a position before his term of service in Congress has expired. Nor can a member or Senator be appointed to a position the salary of which has been increased by the Congress of which he is a member. Yet this is just what was done in Senator Ransom's case. His term expired on the 4th of March and he was confirmed as Minister to Mexico in February, and the fifty-third Congress increased the salary of the Minister to Mexico and some other countries. If Senator Ransom's appointment and confirmation, are unconstitutional it will fare hard with Judge McKenna, of California, who was appointed in 1892 while he was a member of Congress, and there may be a vacancy in both cases.

It is rumored that the Court of Austria has asked the recall of Minister Judd, but why a Jew has something to do with the matter. Jews are never received at the Austrian Court, and during Mr. Cleveland's first administration it refused to receive an ambassador from the United States Mr. Kelley, of Va., because Mrs. Kelley was a Jewess, and the first secretary of the Legation Col. Lee, of Maryland, who is now a resident of St. Mary's, acted as the representative of the United States at Vienna.

Secretary Carlisle is taking his vacation on the Great Lakes, but will soon return to his desk in the Treasury. Secretary Herbert is taking an object lesson as to the needs of a Navy, and is with Admiral Bence on the New York, and learning in a few days more about a ship and her officers and men than he could in a life time in the Navy Department.

Secretary Lamont is at his desk in the War Department and looking after the needs of our little army and the nation's wards, the poor Indians. The threatened Indian outbreak existed in the excited minds of some settlers at Indian Hole. The Bannocks went back to their reservation and will starve for they have nothing to eat.

Postmaster General Wilson is at his office dividing his time between work, cutting 70 pound watermelons, and denying any knowledge of the President's intention of appointing him to the Supreme Bench.

While the members of both of the old parties are having little domestic differences in Maryland and Pennsylvania, the District Republicans are trying to get rid of "Boss" Perry Carson, who will not consent to be set aside for younger men or boys as he calls them.

Perry's opponents held meetings to organize for next year's fray and to select delegates from the District to the National Convention. Col. Carson and Andy Gleason the contractors here had this job for years, and the Col. proposes to keep it. So when his rivals hire a hall and call a meeting the Col., unasked, unwished for and unannounced arrives and in a few pointed remarks seizes upon the occasion to glorify himself and to capture the delegates. He is a great favorite with his race and rules the whole with politicians with no light hand. It is Me and Andy Gleason.

The sporting world is deeply interested in the coming yacht race. Valkyrie III arrived yesterday to compete with the Defender for the cup. They are both new boats and this will be their maiden race.

The President's list of vacancies to be filled increases daily. Solicitor Dabney of the State Department will resign in September to accept the Prof. of Common and Statute laws in the University of Va.

The President is still at Gray Gables, and reported Secretary Morton is the one Marylanders should pay some attention to. He is booming Virginia. Has bought a farm at Manassas and will settle there when he leaves the Cabinet. He declares it the garden spot of the world and will bring settlers from the West. On Wednesday he lectured before the Farmers' Institute at Manassas, and will have lectures given there by the scientific men of the Department of Agriculture on farms and farming. Now the Secretary has never seen St. Mary's with its pretty river farms and inland manors, or he would not be so enthusiastic about Virginia. None of the Cabinet have seen St. Mary's. None of his Cabinet arrived unheralded and unseeing at Leonardtown.

Secretary Morton is a homey practical man, and would I am sure be glad to encourage the farmers of St. Mary's by his presence and advice. Why not invite him down this fall? That he is practical was shown on the 15th instant, when he ordered those employees of his Department who were in favor of silver to be paid in it. It was an object lesson not relished for four or five pounds of silver is an inconvenient amount of metal to have about one unless it is in a grip sack or shot bag. The Secretary has had issued a supplement to his reports on foreign markets which shows that notwithstanding the depression of business in 1894 the United States exported $89,848,000 against $94,065,194 in 1893. Three-fourths of this amount came from farms and the British possessions took $28,000,000 of the whole amount.

Labor Day parade promises to be one of the largest ever made by the industrial organizations of the city. The different crafts will be uniformed and the Marshal and his aids will be mounted.

Suicides, murders and accidental deaths have been so numerous this summer that they cease to cause surprise.

There seems to be a mania for jumping from the Navy yard bridge and while one poor homeless, friendless child put an end to her misery here, the others have been rescued. A particularly sad death was that of the sixteen year old son of Officer Cotter of the bathing beach. The poor lad was killed by a train near 4 mile run and his remains carried to Alexandria. Young Cotton was a scholar of Georgetown College and stood high in his classes. Eight deaths from drowning has been the record of Georgetown thus far.

The W. & G. T. Railway Co., have consolidated by purchase of several of the suburban roads into their system and soon one can ride from the Navy yard to Tennytown or Cherry Chase for not quite five cents. The road will be extended East along Penna. Ave. to the new bridge, and then connect with the Anacostia trolley system soon to be inaugurated, thus making Lookout Inn accessible. The Inn is beautifully situated on the hills across the Eastern Branch and is a fashionable terminus of a drive. From its cool verandas a beautiful view is had of the city and surrounding country.

Cool verandas have been in demand the past week and Col. Archie Bliss has been well patronized. Not that Col. Bliss keeps the Inn. He created it, and he is the central figure in the rapid development of that portion of the District East of the Capitol.

The city market is stocked to repletion with the fruits of the earth, and prices are low. Only the finest peaches, apples and pears sell well; even damsons are really cheap. Watermelons are plenty and getting cheaper daily. Poultry is high and scarce.

Dry goods were never so cheap, and summer suits of cotton duck and denim can be had for $1.98 and $1.50. Shirt waists that sold for $1.00 are now 49 and 50 cents. Summer shoes are also greatly reduced. White carpets are selling for half price. Tapestry Brussels marked 50 to 70 cents and Ingrains as low as 37c. etc. per yard. Flannels and all woolsen goods are remarkably cheap.
