ELMER S. PARKER KILLED BY SAFE AT STATION

Heavy Strong Box Falls on Express Messenger, Crushing Him So Badly That He Succumbs; Operation Vain.

Crushed by a heavy safe, Elmer S. Parker, a Wells-Fargo express messenger, was fatally injured at the railroad station late last night. He died at St. Joseph's hospital this morning.

Parker was assisting in loading a big safe in a Wells-Fargo car at 10 o'clock last night. In some manner the truck slipped and the safe fell on the messenger. His hips were crushed and he was internally hurt.

He was carried into the baggage room and Dr. J. A. Reidy was summoned. It was seen from the first that his condition was serious and Dr. Reidy lost no time, after swift administration of first-aid, in having the injured man taken to the hospital. There an operation was performed in hope of saving his life, but in vain. He did not rally and at 4:30 o'clock this morning he succumbed.

Parker lived here six years. His residence was at 505 South High street. He was with the Wells-Fargo company three years.

He is survived by his wife and three brothers. One of the latter, J. N. Parker, lives here; the other two, E. T. and A. T. Parker, live in Cincinnati the family's home town.

The body is at C. T. French's undertaking establishment. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

JUDGES TALK OVER NEED OF UNIFORM PRACTICE

No Definite Recommendations Outlined, It Is Said, But Discussion Clarifies the Situation; Dinner Tonight.

The meeting of judges to talk over recommendations to the legislature for the formation of rules of practice, set all yesterday, was held this morning at the office of former Judge E. A. Mann in the Stern building. There were present Judges M. C. Mechem, Colin Neblett, E. L. Medler, David J. Leahy, F. A. Richardson, John T. McClure and H. F. Raynolds.

It was an informal session and nothing, it was said after the meeting, was definitely outlined. The jurists discussed the confusion in practice growing out of the lack of laws and the exchange of ideas rectified the situation. No resolutions were passed, but it is expected that the fruit of the conference will be the establishment of uniformity in procedure. Under the present circumstances lawyers in different parts of the state follow the means to which they have been accustomed before coming to New Mexico, and the result has been that procedure varies in different localities in the state.

It was said that no other session was planned at this time, although the jurists will be more or less together during the rest of their stay in town and naturally talk will talk over the business that brought them here. Judge Leahy heard a case in the court house this afternoon.

Tonight the local Bar association will give a dinner to the judges at the Hotel Alvarado.

WINTER SUPPLIES FOR THE POOR ARE NEEDED

Don't Wait Until Christmas Is Here Before Sending Donations to the Municipal Tree Committee.

Immediate receipts of warm clothing (not) and supplies are wanted by the committee in charge of the municipal Christmas celebration. The cold weather has brought out with stinging emphasis the fact that there are numbers of families in the city lacking winter clothes, food and other supplies, and that the suffering, especially among the little ones, is keen in a number of cases.

It is just as cold now as it will be at Christmas, possibly colder, and the sooner the charitable get their donations of clothing, food and fuel into the hands of the committee the better. The residence of Miss Lee, 402 Copper avenue, is the depot for receipt of donations.

The committee will send for your donations if you cannot get them to the depot yourself.

Preparations for the spectacular part of the celebration, the big tree on the lot at Fifth street and Central avenue, are progressing satisfactorily. It is certain to become one of the most picturesque events ever held in Albuquerque. The children will assemble at the tree between 4 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon the day before Christmas and receive candy and goodies.

WANTED—A recorder and printer. Purcell Studio, 219 West Central.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

With the final call for basketball candidates for the coming season the coach of the high school squad is hard at work on the preliminary points of the game preparatory to pounding the men into championship contenders. There is an abundance of material and it looks now to the spectators in the balcony of the gymnasium as though there would be much competition. However, since no member of the squad is an experienced "basket tosser" it will be a big question as to who will make the A. H. S. team.

The Criterion society will begin preparation for their next program tonight. It will be given on Wednesday, December 23d.

The A. A. will give the football team a banquet next Friday evening.
