members. Since the gavels last fell in the two houses, many momentous questions have arisen. Overshadowing all others are those caused by the European war, but they do not compose the entire program. In addition to the questions of national defense and revenue, which fell naturally under the general head of preparedness, the merchant marine and rural credits legislation promise to command much attention. Many investigations, centering mainly about war problems are to be inaugurated, and an interesting fight will ensue in the senate over the cloture rule.

The first business before the house today was the election of a speaker. South Trimble, the clerk, called the body of the order. Members then proceeded to the election of the speaker. The Democratic majority made the re-election of Champ Clark, of Missouri, a foregone conclusion. Representative Mann of Illinois, the Republican candidate for speaker, was the choice of the Republicans for their leader on the floor.

Two hundred and twenty-nine Democrats, 197 Republicans, six Progressives, one socialist, one independent, and one vacancy compose the new house. The dozen or more Republicans of the "old guard" who went down in defeat three years ago only to be returned to the lower house over Democratic opponents last fall, formed an interesting group. Joseph G. Cannon, former speaker of the house, and now well on toward 80 years of age, stood out prominently. If he finishes his present term he will have served forty years in congress, eight years as speaker. Other Republicans who remained at home during the last congress to reappear today were Nicholas Longworth of Ohio, William B. McKinley, W. A. Rodenberg, William W. Wilson, George E. Foss, John A. Sterling and Charles E. Fuller of Illinois, Ebenezer Hill of Connecticut, Cyrus A. Sulloway of New Hampshire, and Benjamin F. Focht of Pennsylvania. Meyer London, the first socialist elected to congress from New York, attracted much attention.

Senate proceedings always are quieter than those in the house. As striking as the return of old faces to the house was the absence of familiar countenances in the senate.

Senators Root of New York, Burton of Ohio, Bristow of Kansas, Crawford of South Dakota, Perkins of California, and Stephenson of Wisconsin were missing from the Republican side. Democratic ranks missed Thornton of Louisiana, White of Alabama, and Camden of Kentucky. The first business was swearing in the new senators. Most of them already are well known in political circles.

Among the Republicans came James W. Wadsworth of New York, successor to Root, who attracted attention as the youthful speaker of the New York assembly; Charles Curtis of Kansas, who succeeds Bristow, and Warren G. Harding of Ohio who succeeds Burton.

Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama, former majority leader of the house, led the new Democrats. Other Democrats who took the oath were James D. Phelan of California, J. C. W. Beckham of Kentucky, Robert F. Broussard of Louisiana, Edwin S. Johnson of South Dakota and Paul O. Husting of Wisconsin. The senate now stands Democrats fifty-six and republicans forty.

Tomorrow shortly after noon the house and senate will sit in joint session in the hall of the house to hear President Wilson deliver his annual address.

MAY TAKE ACTION AND THEN, AGAIN, THEY MAY NOT

Impenetrable Silence Maintained in Official Quarters Regarding Fire Department and Tonight's Meeting.

Interest in the city council meeting tonight in the public mind centers about the question of the reported move to begin reorganization of the fire department by dismissing Chief Klein and reducing Driver W. J. Reed. Reed was the man at the wheel of the highlands truck when it ran into a fence and killed the Dorris child.

There was a conference Saturday night between Mayor Boatright and Chairman Hammond and Alderman Grunsfeld of the fire committee, to which Chief Klein was called. Nothing for publication was given after it. The same rigid silence regarding the subject that met inquirers Saturday was maintained today in official quarters, and as far as authorized statements go there is absolutely nothing to say. Whoever goes to the council meeting tonight in the hope of hearing any sort of report, recommendation or reference to the fire department situation will take a decided risk of disappointment. Nobody could be found today who would say that any sort of action would be taken tonight, and there seems to be an even chance that the meeting will pass without report or recommendation.

REMODEL LAS VEGAS Y. M. C. A. TO GIVE YOUTHS CLUB ROOMS

East Las Vegas, N. M., Dec. 6.—Work on the remodeling of the Y. M. C. A. building here, commenced Saturday, was well under way today. The remodeling is intended to give the members more space for social purposes than the building formerly allowed.

The main feature will be to give the younger members, boys and youths, a club room where they will have access to a library and other attractions.

SURE SOUTHWEST WILL GET DEMO CONVENTION

Dallas Man Says Metropolis Certain to Land Big Prize for Which $100,000 Check Is Posted.

W. O. Winfrey of Dallas, Texas, here on business, said today that Dallas is certain to get the Democratic national convention in 1916. He is a brother of R. J. (Dick) Winfrey, police and fire commissioner of Dallas, and one of the committee of hustlers who got a $100,000 certified check to send to Washington as Dallas' earnest of what she was prepared to do to get and properly entertain the convention. From what Mr. Winfrey said one was unable to escape the conviction that only a miracle will keep the convention from the Texas metropolis. If the convention goes anywhere else there will be a lot of astounded people in Dallas.

Mr. Winfrey is a representative of the Eureka Fire Hose Manufacturing company. He called on all the city officials. He told Chief Klein of the fire department that he thought there was an excellent chance to sell the old chemical and hose wagon for which the city has been seeking a purchaser to Clovis. He will recommend the cart to the Clovis officials.

A HOLIDAY WINDOW STRICTLY FOR MEN AT SIMON STERN'S

It isn't often that a merchant goes to the trouble of preparing a Christmas window exclusively for the pleasure of mere men. Holiday windows are tastefully arranged and often artistically decorated for women and for children, but the average man is generally supposed not to care much about this kind of attention.

Dave T. Rittenhouse, decorator for Simon Stern, Inc., the popular Central avenue clothing house, has a different idea about it, however, and has put forth an unusually successful effort in one of the most attractive window displays ever made in Albuquerque. With a typical Christmas chimney as a key, Mr. Rittenhouse has arranged a beautiful showing of men's very dressy garments from evening wear and top hat to the most modish of this season's designs in business suits, gloves, and the trimmings of the well dressed man.

It is a window that will prove of great interest to women who are working out their Christmas purchases for men. The window contains several hundred square feet of the liveliest kind of gift suggestions.

"CASCARETS" BEST IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS, SICK, CONSTIPATED

Best for liver and bowels, bad breath, bad colds, sour stomach.

Get a 10-cent box.

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system, is reabsorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, unsigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet, breath right, complexion rosy and your liver and bowels regular for months.

MEMORIAL HONORS PAID FOURTEEN BY THE ELKS

Beautiful Service at High School Auditorium Is Featured by Splendid Address and Musical Numbers.

Beautiful memorial services in honor of the departed members of the lodge, numbering fourteen for the last year, were held yesterday afternoon at the High School auditorium by the local lodge of Elks. The services comprised the usual ritualistic exercises, a roll call of the departed and some especially fine music.

The ritualistic services were conducted by the officers and members of the lodge. The address of the day, a particularly good one and one whose eloquence touched every heart, was delivered by A. B. Renehan, a prominent member of the Santa Fe lodge.

Solos by Hugo C. Meyer, Miss Grace Stortz, whose violin playing was a feature, and Mrs. H. B. Hening, with quartet numbers by the Mendelssohn quartet and selections by the Elks' orchestra, made up the musical program.

Instead of the familiar flower ceremony being enacted with the calling of the roll, little Miss Marcella Matson snuffed out a candle as the name of each departed brother was read.

Three Risings Of Rebels Put Down in China

Authorities Apparently Have Situation Well in Hand; Cruiser Chao-ho Abandoned and Set on Fire.

ATTACK UPON ARSENAL IS REPULSED EASILY

No Damage Done by Shots Which Fall in Foreign Section; Policeman Killed by Throwing of Bombs.

[By Evening Herald Leased Wire]

Shanghai, Dec. 6.—Three outbreaks by small bands of rebels within the last twenty-four hours have been put down by the authorities who now apparently have the situation well in hand.

The cruiser Chao-Ho, seized yesterday afternoon by forty men who boarded her from a launch, was abandoned by the rebels early today after she had been shelled and set on fire. It was reported at first that the crew of the Chao-Ho had mutinied, but it developed today that the bombardment by the cruiser of other warships and the arsenal was carried on under compulsion from the rebels who surprised and overpowered the crew. Three men on the cruiser were killed and five wounded.

An attack from land on the arsenal at midnight was repulsed quickly after some rifle firing.

The third outbreak occurred at 4 o'clock this morning. A party of thirty or forty rebels attacked the Chapei sub-police station, throwing bombs which killed one policeman and injured three. The outlaws were dispersed by troops.

Although a number of shots fell in the foreign settlement no damage of importance was done there.

TRADE CONFERENCE CALLS TOGETHER ALL CLASSES

Men from Principal Centers of Finance and Commerce in World Gather for Three Days Session in New York.

[By Evening Herald Leased Wire]

New York, Dec. 6.—The International trade conference which opened here today called together representatives of commercial and financial bodies in this country, agents of the United States and foreign governments and delegates from the principal chambers of commerce of the world. The conference will continue for three days. It is under the auspices of the National Association of Manufacturers, in co-operation with the financial and transportation interests of this country. The steps necessary to overcome difficulties now beasting the commerce of all nations will be considered.

Alexander W. Behr, vice president of the Russian-American Chamber of Commerce at Moscow, in an address told the conference how Russia, dependent commercially and industrially on Germany before the war, looked henceforth to the United States for capital.

To this end, he said, he had come to this country to establish a Russian-American Chamber of Commerce through which, in co-operation with the Chamber of Commerce in Moscow, he hoped to build up between the two countries a "direct commercial, industrial and financial alliance based upon friendship and profit rather than upon politics and greed.

The existence of the United States as a nation, in the event of war, would probably depend upon the ability of the railroad systems to transport large bodies of troops and quantities of supplies with speed and precision, according to statements made by George Dallas Dixon, vice president in charge of traffic of the Pennsylvania railroad.

Mr. Dixon said that railroad systems, especially those operating in the interior, constitute a military resource, a vital element in preparedness.

"National preparedness is being given much thought," he said. "One of its most important phases has been overlooked by the majority. I refer to transportation."

The speaker contended that the American people could not make a wiser investment in military preparedness than by allowing the privately owned railroads sufficient income at all times. He made a plea for fair play for the railroads and for material co-operation by the general public in financial and other ways.

SANTA CLAUS MAY BE UNKIND TO OFFICIALS

Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 6.—In all probability state officials will not receive any apprehensible sums for expenditure on Christmas presents until Christmas has been a thing of the past three weeks or more. The delays in completion of the tax rolls have caused the practical absorption of the funds from which salaries are paid, and while the state treasurer has probably $500,000 on hand none of it is available for salary purposes.

The Men's club of St. John's Protestant Episcopal church will meet tomorrow night at the office of W. W. McClellan, 121 North Third street, at 8 o'clock. It will be the regular business and social session, but of special interest because constitution and by-laws will be submitted.

TORRES' EASTERN TRIP TO BEGIN SHORTLY

Soon After Middle of the Month Manager Newman Will Start Jack and Iron Man Yoakum on Title Drive

Jack Torres, the Mexican Mist, together with Stanley Yoakum, the Iron Man, the two greatest western fighters in the ring today, will leave for their first ostic invasion of the east shortly after the middle of December. Louis Newman, Denver promoter and manager, will take Torres and Yoakum throughout the Mississippi basin cities, down south, through the big burgs in the territory of the great lakes and up and down the Atlantic seaboard. Newman will send his fighters against the foremost boxers of America, aiming to land Torres on the welterweight throne and line up Yoakum for a championship bout for the lightweight title.

Torres is declared by oldtimers of the Rocky mountain region to be the greatest fighter who has come out of the land of the sage brush and prairie dogs since Young Corbett went out to win the lightweight championship of the world. Still in his teens, this wonderful Mexican lad has already beaten two welterweights who claimed the titles in the United States and Canada, respectively. He decisively defeated Johnny Kid Alberts, claimant of the welter crown in this country, and Frank Barrieau, the Canadian titleholder of the 145 pounders.

Torres Against Wells.

They call Torres the Mexican Mist on account of his remarkable cleverness, his ability to make his opponents look foolish by his wraithlike movements in the ring. He is a terrific slasher, bewildering in his lightning attacks. His opponents seem lost in the ring with the Mist, they cannot find him. But they most certainly feel him. Joe Levy, former manager of Joe Rivers, tried to get Torres, but the young welterweight proved loyal and swears that he will stick with Louis Newman, the friend who brought him from obscurity to a prominent place among American boxers.

Newman has matched Torres with Battling Wells in Trinidad December 17. Directly afterwards he will take the Mexican to Kansas City, there to complete final arrangements for fights in the middle western and southern states. Newman has already just about closed matches with St. Paul promoters for a fight with Mike O'Dowd, the sensation of that territory, in recent months and Art Maxwell, the hero of Memphis just at present by virtue of his five straight victories, four of which have been by the knockout route. Denver promoters have almost closed a match between Ted Lewis, the English shock to the Canadian and American light and welterweight divisions, and Torres for a championship battle during the stockmen's convention in the Colorado capitol in February. The Torres-Lewis bout may take place somewhere in the east, however, and in the event that it is held in Denver the Mist will make the run there only for that one bout as he has an attractive line of offers in the east.

Yoakum Against Burns.

Yoakum is matched for a fifteen-round go in St. Joseph, Mo., with Oakland Frankie Burns on December 14. Following that battle he will journey to Memphis for a bout with Benny Palmer, the Mexican lightweight. After this match he will go north to meet a number of the faster 133 pounders in the game. Later he will appear in New Orleans, it seems can be agreed upon, in a bout with Joe Mandot, Johnny Dundee or any other of the leading lightweights that the New Orleans promoters may match him with.

Yoakum has been beaten by only one fighter in the game—Charlie White. He lost to White in one of the fiercest fights in ring history in Denver a year ago last Independence day. It took White nineteen rounds to turn the trick and at that Yoakum was said to be in no physical condition to enter the ring previous to the battle as he was really sick enough to go to a hospital instead of fit to meet the hardest hitting lightweight perhaps fighting today. He later fought White to a standstill in ten rounds, holding him, according to some papers, to a draw. White said afterwards that he would rather fight Lightweight Champion Freddie Welsh forty-five rounds than to face Yoakum for twenty.

Chavez May Travel, Too.

Yoakum is open to meet any human being within the lightweight limit. Newman is after a second match with White and declares that Yoakum will eventually win the title.

Benny Chavez, the sensational Mexican featherweight, will also accompany the Newman stable in all probability. Chavez will make another try at J. Kuhane's crown in the tour.

BOB YORK ARRESTED ON AN UGLY CHARGE

Word has been received here of the arrest of Bob York, who appeared in a local squared circle several times, for white slaving. The arrest took place in Pueblo, just after York had battled Eddie Johnson to a draw in a twenty-round mill. York's right name is Robert Duey.

The principal witness against him is said to be one Henrietta Brown who, it is said, claims he took her with him through three states.

Friends of York discredit the story. The complaining witness was held by the officers to insure her presence at a hearing later.

TREE CELEBRATION WILL BE FESTIVAL FOR CHILDREN

No Charity Work Connected With Municipal Observance of Yuletide This Year; To Be at Robinson Park.

This year's community Christmas celebration will be a children's festival. It has been decided to divorce the municipal tree from any connection with charity. The relief work is being carried on by the Civic Betterment league, and it is felt that the municipal observance need not include any charity work. The tree and the exercises will be entirely sectarian, the expression of a community Yuletide spirit.

It is hoped to have candy to give the children at the tree, because it is rather too hard for a small boy or small girl to understand any kind of a Christmas party without candy and the committee doesn't want to do in the face of childhood traditions by attempting a children's festival without sweets. But there will be no talk of charity about the candy. The candy will be given just exactly as Mrs. Jones gives little Jack Smith candy when Jack comes to a party at her house. It is hoped that everybody's little boy or girl will be at the tree, even if daddy can afford to and has already bought pounds and pounds of the very nicest candy.

The tree will be at Robinson park. The forest service has promised to get a big one out of the woods, and the electric light company has promised to string it beautifully with lamps. Carols will be sung and it is hoped to have the people in the houses about the park decorate and light them up for the occasion, so that all about the setting will be a joyous one and the right kind of a Christmas festival. The celebration will be on Christmas eve.

Money for the candy must come from voluntary subscriptions. Absolutely no soliciting will be done. If your name is Scrooge it won't do to wait for some one to come along and be astonished at your generosity and change of habits. You'll have to send your money to the committee or put it in one of the boxes the committee will place for those who want to drop in contributions. There will be a box in the Herald office and another in the Morning Journal office.

The tree movement was organized at a meeting Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Robert E. Hiers is president of the committee, Mrs. L. S. Peters secretary and Mrs. Roy Stamm treasurer. Mrs. R. L. D. McAllister is press reporter, charged with seeing that full publicity is given the celebration.

CAR IN DITCH MUTE WITNESS OF WRECK

Report of an automobile wreck on the North Fourth street road beyond the city limits was brought to town this afternoon by Henry Yanow. Mr. Yanow saw the wrecked car in a ditch as he drove by. There was no one near it, and he learned nothing of the details of the wreck or the ownership of the car.
