The Markets

New York Stock Exchange.

New York, Jan. 20.—Some substantial recoveries from low levels from yesterday's close were recovered by specialties at the outset of operations, but the rise was not well maintained. Gains of 1 to 2½ points marked the initial dealings in Mexican Petroleum. Standard stocks were unchanged or slightly lower. United States Steel yielded another small fraction of its recent minimum, a block of 1200 shares changing hands at 84⅝. General Motors was heavy, losing 7 at 489, and other specialties manifested irregular tendencies, these becoming more marked later.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—Lower freight rates from Argentina were an advantage today to the bears in wheat. The opening, which ranged from 5c to 1⅛c lower with May at $1.29 to $1.28⅞ and July at $1.22⅞ to $1.22 was followed by a slight rally.

COLFAX COUNTY WOMAN IS DRAGGED NEARLY A MILE BY RUNAWAY

Raton, N. M., Jan. 20.—Not many people have been dragged by a runaway for a distance of nearly a mile without serious injury, yet such was the fate of Mrs. Louis Shaffer of Yankee last Friday.

Mrs. Shaffer had placed Mrs. William Handley's little daughter in the buggy and was about to drive home when she dropped a rein and the horse started. The child was thrown out as the horse swerved to the right, in response to the single rein Mrs. Shaffer retained. The woman became entangled some way and was dragged some distance before the horse stopped.

Parties following the runaway expected to find Mrs. Shaffer dead from the effects of her experience but she was uninjured beyond a few minor bruises.
