heard saying, "God is my keeper." The Lord is my strength, this expressing the conviction that she had of her disapproval that she was about to leave this world of care and trouble.

Three weeks ago we had five. And God thought had one to spare. Our dear little Daisy daughter, how we loved her, how we can tell, but God thought had one to spare.

Eight nights and days she suffered. The agony of fever and pain, and on the ninth morning about day our darling passed away.

Oh how we miss her little footsteps, & nodding on the floor, & smiling when I come in from work.
