Hoops, My Dear—and Edna Goodrich.

EDNA GOODRICH, MOROSCO-PARAMOUNT STAR.

Whatever of aloofness there may be in the barrel skirt just lends enchantment, as Edna Goodrich proves attractively, in this lovable model of black and white taffeta.

She's the 1830 miss that George Sands drew, produced by the American modiste. Lace ruffons and a heavily fringed sunshade lend a distinctively quaint touch of grandmother's day, and a picture hat, tied coquettishly under the chin, completes this dainty garden costume.

Lest the hoop skirt appear too stiff, it is many flounced, and the bodice is trimmed with three coquettish bows. A fourth with long streamers is the center of a slender ribbon band which encircles the waist.

The Markets

New York Stock Exchange.

New York, July 13.—Another bear attack directed mainly against motors and munitions caused further breakage of values in the session of today's active market. The close was weak, after short rallies in Studebaker and Alcohol.

Further tendencies were displayed by special stocks at today's opening, indicating a reaction temporarily in proof of the recent flood of liquidation. Industrial Alcohol soon gained nine points of yesterday's heavy loss and the shipping group was higher by six to almost two points. The war group as represented by Crucible Steel and American Locomotive was materially better and United States Steel was fractionally higher, with Reading, Union Pacific and Chesapeake & Ohio. Willys-Overland proved the sole notable exception, losing 2½ points despite the increased and extra dividends announced yesterday.

Initial losses were swept aside late in the hour of the first hour when aggressive selling of specialties was encountered. Marmon, Studebaker, and Chandler leaders followed the lead of Willys-Overland at declines of four to seven points. Alcohol's early gains proved to be of short duration, the stock soon falling to 95½, an overnight loss of ½ and the year's low quotation. Continental Can lost 3 points and Bethlehem Steel fell 2 on two transactions. Rails and United States Steel rallied only fractionally. Local money conditions came in for further consideration in view of the advance in the Bank of England rate. Bonds were irregular.

Selling broke out in fresh quarters later, with marked weakness in Crucible, Baldwin and American Locomotive, Beet Sugar and Tennessee Copper. Standard shares also caved under the general pressure.

London Stock Market.

London, July 13.—In the American section of the stock market Canadian Pacific was weak.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, July 13.—Reports of a broadening European demand for shipments from America gave strength today to the wheat market here. Opening prices ranged from ⅛@¼ higher, with July at $1.10@1.10⅛ and September at $1.11⅛@1.12⅛, but were followed by reactions due to profit taking. The close was unsettled, ⅛@¼ net higher, with July at $1.10⅛ and September at $1.11⅜@1.11⅝.

Corn rose with wheat. After opening ⅛c off to ⅛@⅛c up, the market began to ease off. The close was nervous at ⅛@⅛c to ¾c above yesterday's finish.

Commission houses lined up on the buying side of oats.
