COUNTY NEWS.

WASHINGTON & POTOMAC RAILROAD.

TIME TABLE—In Effect Oct. 1, 1904.

Table with columns: STATIONS—SOUTH, STATIONS—NORTH, and times for various routes.

Religious. There will be preaching (Sundays) at Bethel at 10:30 a. m., Marvin at 9 p. m. and Rehobeth (Benedict) at 7 p. m. by Rev. C. W. Moore.

Religious. There will be Divine Services at All Faith Church, Sunday, May 10th, at 4:30, p. m. J. W. CHEWLEY, Rector.

Confirmation Services. The Right Rev. Henry Y. Satterlee, Bishop of the diocese of Washington, will confirm and preach at Christ Church, Choptico, on Sunday morning, May 10th, at 10:30 o'clock. The public are cordially invited.

Bishop Satterlee's Appointments. Trinity, St. Mary's City, May 7th, 10:30 a. m. St. Mary's Chapel, 4 p. m. Poplar Hill Church, May 8th, 10:30 a. m. All Saints' Church, May 9th, 10:30 a. m. Chapel, p. m. All Faith Church, May 11, 10:30 a. m. Charlotte Hall, May 11, at 4 p. m. St. Mary's Chapel, (colored) near Charlotte Hall, May 11, at 8 p. m.

Ball of Honor—St. MARY'S ACADEMY. Mabel Ford, Daisy Bohanan, Mabel Edwards, Margaret Kennedy, Lucille Cancellor, Mamie Milburn, Aggie Thompson, Carrie Jones, Pauline Freeman, Annie Hobrecht, Katie Bowers, Nellie Russell, Edna Hayden, Nettie Knight, Agnes Kennedy, Rosa Milburn, Bertha Morgan, Kitty Morgan, Maud Duke, Dora Viett, Louise Guy, Lillie Russell, May Burroughs, Lizzie Vanlywick, Marie Brewer, Mary Edwards, Marie Longmore, Eva Cheselind, Ellen Fenwick, Rose Hayden, Violet Russell, Marguerite Abell, Aggie Raley, Marie Vanlywick.

Tabular Well. Mr. C. C. Jones of Washington, is in Leonardtown and is engaged in putting in a tubular well for Mr. Francis V. King. Mr. Jones has been in the well business since 1859 and has successfully bored wells from Prince Edward's Island, Canada, to Maryland. In the well he is now working on he has struck water at a comparatively shallow depth and there is every indication of its being soft and pure. When the pump is in and the well is in working order we will, of course, be able to tell more about it, and be able to prove by demonstration the worth and advantage of tubular wells and to certify that C. C. Jones is the man to make them. Among the advantages claimed for the wells are: there is no decaying wood about them to vitiate the water; the iron tubing keeps out the surface drainage and prevents loads and other vermin from getting into the well.

Twenty-Nine Years a Magistrate. Monday last, the term of office of Jo. F. Morgan, Esquire, a Justice of the Peace for Leonardtown district, expired. Mr. Morgan was first appointed by Gov. Owen Bowie in 1867 and has been re-appointed by each succeeding Governor except Lowndes. He has been a Magistrate for twenty-eight years. No man in the State is better informed than Mr. Morgan as to the duties of Justices and few, if any, have discharged the duties of the position in a manner more deserving of public commendation. He is a good lawyer, his acquaintance with the forms and all the minutiae of the Justice's office is exceptional and the termination of his magistracy is a real loss to the district and the county at large. We hope the next Governor will be of the political faith from which Mr. M. has a right to expect favors.

Licenses to Marry. Since April 3rd, ultimo, Circuit Court Clerk James J. Greenwell has issued the following Licenses to Marry: Adam T. Wible and Daisy Dill Mardern. William C. Hill and Maggie Quade. John F. Wheatley and Nannie Libburn Biscoe. John Joseph O'Grady and Hallie Mattingly. James B. Quade and Mary S. Copey. Joseph P. Thompson and Mary O. Bowles. John W. Forrest and Ollie Ridgell. Francis Oscar Morgan and Mary Henrietta Abell. James W. Thompson and Addie M. Ellis.

White. John Henry Reed and Susie Barnes. William H. Lancaster and Mary Eliza Dyson. Robert Fauntleroy and Caroline Booz. John Ed. Chase and Annie Maria Biscoe. William Henry Brooks and Ellen Mills. William Sommerville and Alice Jones.

For every quarter in a man's pocket there are a dozen uses; and to use each one in such a way as to derive the greatest benefit is a question every one must solve for himself. We believe, however, that no better use could be made of one of these quarters than to exchange it for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, a medicine that every family should be provided with. For sale by Wm. F. Greenwell & Son, Leonardtown; Jos. S. Matthews, of Valley Lee, and all country stores.

Files of New Goods and Great Bargains at LAWRENCE'S.

Localwise and Otherwise. Mr. George W. Welch, of St. Inigo's district, has removed to Baltimore. Miss Jennie Ching is visiting her brother, Joseph H. Ching, Esqr., Leonardtown. Remember the meeting of the St. Mary's ex-Confederate Association June the 13th, 1896. Hall was a feature of last Tuesday night's flury but we have heard of no special damage therefrom. Monday last the old magistrates became functus officio and the terms of the appointment of Governor Lowndes began. Anyone wishing Tomato plants can secure as many as needed from Capt. Benjamin Foxwell. Price 10 cents a dozen. The Centreville Observer has ever been a model county paper and its recent change of form puts one of the best papers in the State into the best shape. Saturday next, May 9th, there will be a number of fine farms sold by public auction at Leonardtown. Read the advertisement and attend the sales. We return thanks to Capt. R. W. Silvester, of the Maryland Agricultural College for a copy of the Proceedings of a Farmers' Institute, held at Annapolis, January 14th, 1896. Leonardtown's corporation election resulted in the choice of the following commissioners: Joseph H. Milburn, Joseph F. Morgan, T. Frank Yates, William H. Jones, Enoch B. Abell. There was no opposition ticket. In another column the Board of School Commissioners give notice that the White Public Schools of the county will close for the scholastic year on the evening of Friday, May 15th, instant. We have received four answers to the Geographical puzzle in last week's BEACON. The first one received was from a "School Boy"; two of the others are from "School Girls," and one from J. Parran Jarboe, Chapel Point. Perhaps the best looking garden in or around Leonardtown is that of Henry and Nellie Cooper, colored. "Aunt" Nellie has the finest and crispest lettuce we have yet seen and everything else in her garden is looking exceedingly well. It is said that Capt. Benj. Foxwell, of this district has a "cinch" on the captaincy of the Oyster Police schooner Bessie Jones. If the captaincy is given to St. Mary's most of the minor places, we are told, will go to Charles countians. In another column an ex-Reb. gives an account of his experiences as a prisoner of war at Pt. Lookout. Such articles are interesting and valuable contributions to the history of our county and we hope "Inmate" will continue to write and that others will follow his example. The commissions of our newly appointed civil officers have been received at the Clerk's Office and some of them have been delivered. Under the new ruling of the Levy Court the person receiving the commission will have to pay for recording it as the county will no longer foot the bill. Bishop Henry Y. Satterlee, of the Washington Diocese, was at St. Peter's Chapel, Leonardtown, Tuesday evening last and administered the rite of confirmation. There was a large attendance and every one came away most favorably impressed by the new Bishop. He is a polished, courteous gentleman and a preacher of fervor and force.

A Picnic.

One bright morning a young (man) by the name of Mr. (Davis) took a party of children in a large wagon drawn by a (sore) horse. They were all glad to see the (fair) weather and all thought of the (picnic) they were going to have beneath the large (maple) trees which were (north) of the (race) track. After reaching there they played in (sand) hills. They played until they were all tired when they spread their (nice) luncheon on a (big) stone. The luncheon consisted of (goose), bread that came from (bakery), (sturgeon) fish, (paw paw) pies, (white) mountain cake (blanc mange) custard. They drank their (milk) and (madera) wine out of beautiful (silver) cups. Some of the girls had on (yellow) dresses (leghorn) hats and (morrone) shoes. Their jewelry was made of (gold) Lenses had (blue) dress trimmed with (white) lace. Her ring had a pearl set. Two of the boys were dressed in (black) shirts. They passed by (bitter) root and were glad to trouble the taste. They were troubled by a (snake). All had a good time and said they would have a (grand) party. The merry group with courteous bows said—(Farewell). SCHOOL BOY.

Hymenial.

In New York City, August 24th, 1905, by the Rev. Charles H. Colton, Miss Maria Briscoe was united in marriage to Edward J. Croker. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the family of the Reverend Chancellor of the Archdiocese of New York and others. Miss Briscoe is a daughter of Prof. Edw. T. Briscoe, of Charlotte Hall, and is one of the most popular and attractive young ladies of our county. Mr. Croker is receiving teller in a New York bank and is well and favorably known here. We wish the young couple a long life of happiness and prosperity.

ABELL—MORGAN.

A quiet and pretty wedding took place at St. Ignatius' Church, Baltimore, on Wednesday evening of last week, the contracting parties being Miss Nettie Abell and Mr. F. Oscar Morgan, both of our village. Rev. John A. Morgan, S. J., a cousin of the groom, officiated. Although lit the notice was given of the exact hours for the ceremony, the church was well filled by friends both from the county and Baltimore City. Our congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy wedded life. The young couple received many beautiful and costly presents. Mr. Morgan is one of our largest and most successful merchants and his many friends wish him continued prosperity. Miss Nettie has been one of the popular favorites of our village on account of her grace and pleasing manners and it is hoped that she is not like "The smile that blessed one lover's heart Has broken many more."

Lowndes Local.

Is it not true that reports gather strength as they proceed, and well, like the snowball, as it rolls along? Quick transit is what is needed hereabout, and the report to the effect that we are soon to have communication between this point and Baltimore at an early day, either by steam or electricity, is the latest report. We should be trifling with your readers good sense to state that steamboat facilities suffice for our producers, such as farmers, truckers, poultry raisers and oyster planters. Quick transit is needed here and we are the last one to attempt to disguise the fact. Every citizen of this section would welcome the mode of transit mentioned, be the propelling force steam or electricity. More rain since last local, and wheat corn, etc., are growing rapidly. An abundance of fruit is anticipated, and close observers say that the yield of apples, barring unforeseen accidents, will be phenomenal. Every citizen down here is busy at his respective work. No day passes without having done something. It should be kept amaranthine in the mind. Dr. Hooper Lynch, of Valley Lee, paid this section a professional visit recently. The doctor seems in the bloom of health. There was Mass at St. Michael's Church last Sunday. Ministers of the Gospel are doing good work. They warn us of the coming judgment, which is stealing upon us as a lion crouching to spring upon its prey. The doctrine of Paine, the infidel, will not stand the action of the most varied tests of truth as advocated by good men from the altar and pulpit. My wife is with us. What lovely flowers! Bridal wreath, Kiss me Quick, Lilies, Hyacinth—single, Hyacinth—double, etc. The earth is arrayed in the exuberance of vegetation. Look up! See! The heavens are brilliantly bespangled with stars, which declare the glory of God. Our expressions are not the creatures of a prolific fancy. They are founded in fact. Death has again visited this section. Mr. Thomas, a merchant, died a few days ago. He was a very quiet man and was beloved by all who knew him. It is certainly a consoling thought that the soul bears the stamp of immortality upon its character.

The doctor seems in the bloom of health. There was Mass at St. Michael's Church last Sunday. Ministers of the Gospel are doing good work. They warn us of the coming judgment, which is stealing upon us as a lion crouching to spring upon its prey. The doctrine of Paine, the infidel, will not stand the action of the most varied tests of truth as advocated by good men from the altar and pulpit. My wife is with us. What lovely flowers! Bridal wreath, Kiss me Quick, Lilies, Hyacinth—single, Hyacinth—double, etc. The earth is arrayed in the exuberance of vegetation. Look up! See! The heavens are brilliantly bespangled with stars, which declare the glory of God. Our expressions are not the creatures of a prolific fancy. They are founded in fact. Death has again visited this section. Mr. Thomas, a merchant, died a few days ago. He was a very quiet man and was beloved by all who knew him. It is certainly a consoling thought that the soul bears the stamp of immortality upon its character.

ABELL—MORGAN. A quiet and pretty wedding took place at St. Ignatius' Church, Baltimore, on Wednesday evening of last week, the contracting parties being Miss Nettie Abell and Mr. F. Oscar Morgan, both of our village. Rev. John A. Morgan, S. J., a cousin of the groom, officiated. Although lit the notice was given of the exact hours for the ceremony, the church was well filled by friends both from the county and Baltimore City. Our congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy wedded life. The young couple received many beautiful and costly presents. Mr. Morgan is one of our largest and most successful merchants and his many friends wish him continued prosperity. Miss Nettie has been one of the popular favorites of our village on account of her grace and pleasing manners and it is hoped that she is not like "The smile that blessed one lover's heart Has broken many more."

darting, cutting pains are terrible. You are hardly sick enough to keep in bed, yet you are unable to go to work. It is severe suffering in every place and all the time. This is Neuralgia. It is chiefly caused by malnutrition, overwork and nervous exhaustion. Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, feeds the exhausted tissues and strengthens the nerves. Opium and similar drugs may quiet pain to-day, only to have it return again, for these drugs weaken. Scott's Emulsion permanently cures because it feeds and strengthens.

COME AND SEE. NOTHING so thoroughly convinces a person of what is in existence as to see facts with your own eyes. J. O. JARBOE has the goods and at bottom prices in his new store at California, Md., and it will afford him pleasure to wait on all old friends and to form new acquaintances. His stock of goods, consisting of the leading styles in Ladies', Gents' and Children's wear—also a full line of choice GRO-CERIES—in fact, everything not often seen in a country store, has been carefully and tastefully selected by an experienced person, and his prices are the most reasonable. Don't pass by the new store at California without calling in. If you do, you will regret it.

COME AND SEE. J. O. JARBOE. Dec. 13—4t. California.
