Chicago Board of Trade

CHICAGO, June 14.—Reports of excessive heat in Kansas led to speculative buying and to higher prices in the wheat market today shortly after the opening. Opening prices which ranged from ⅛c decline to ⅛c advance with July $1.09⅝ to $1.10 and September $1.10⅝ to $1.11, were followed by slight declines all around and then by sudden upturn to well above yesterday's finish.
Corn and oats were firmer with wheat. After opening a shade to ⅛c higher July 49⅝c to 49½c, the corn market scored slight general gains.
Oats started ⅛c to ⅛@⅛c lower; July 34c to 34⅛c and later hardened on all deliveries.
Higher quotations on hogs gave some strength to the provision market.
Additional gains in prices were scored later when western Nebraska reporting temperatures of 104 yesterday, and crop experts stating winter wheat was at a stage susceptible to serious damage, especially from premature ripening in parts of Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma. Renewed stimulation was also given to black rust reports from North Dakota. The close was strong, 1⅛c to 2⅝c net higher, with July $1.12⅛ to $1.12¼ and September $1.12⅝ to $1.13.
Pronounced strength developed later, shorts covering freely. The close was nervous, 1⅛@1⅜c to 2⅛c net higher, with July 42⅝c to 42⅞c.
