WITH THE FLORIDA EDITORS

The Tallahassee Capital speaks of Col. Bob Davis as a "Gubernatorial Possibility." Over in this neck of the woods he is generally regarded as a Gubernatorial Sure Thing.

"Journalism in the United States is fast becoming one of the most lucrative as well as one of the most fascinating professions."—Ocala Banner.

We now understand fully for the first time why Editor Frank Harris refused so positively to be considered as a gubernatorial candidate. Fascinated and growing rich as a journalist!

"As yet no one has been mean enough to insinuate that crow was on the menu at Alexander's banquet. James intends to leave that crow part for the other fellow."—Palatka Times-Herald.

To enroll in the ranks of the Jennings Machine means to fight under the banner of Flagler, and one wearing this livery, after being an anti-corporation champion so long and persistently, suggests the buzzard rather than the crow.

"All roads will lead to West Palm Beach on the Glorious Fourth. The glad hand of welcome will be extended to every town and city in the State. Come and see us."—West Palm Beach Tropical Sun.

The business end of West Palm Beach, with commendable enterprise, has subscribed a neat sum of money for the occasion, and with A. P. Anthony and H. L. Brown in charge of the arrangements, a great celebration may be confidently expected.

"Ten to one that the politician who cries 'down with the press' owes his political existence to the efforts of some newspaper. Is this not a fact?"—Palatka Times-Herald.

It is more than simple fact. It is a bit of gospel truth. The crooked politician is always afraid of a free, untrammelled press, and is always eager to hedge it about with libel laws, and lets no opportunity pass unimproved to disparage its opinions and belittle its efforts toward purity in politics and progress in educating the people to think for themselves.

The Leesburg Commercial notes the fact that Railroad Commissioners Burr, Morgan, and Brown are all aspirants for the Governorship, and wants to know if the office of Railroad Commissioner is to be henceforth used as a stepping stone to higher office? We can't answer the question as to the "henceforth" uses to which that office may be put, but instead of being a "stepping stone to higher office," it appears for the present to be a sort of blarney stone from which the editor of Palatka Times-Herald throws his always fragrant but sometes rather facetious bouquets.

Speaking of Grover Cleveland, the East Coast (Titusville) Advocate says:

"As to his being a candidate for the nomination, he maintains a masterful silence, but it would probably be hard to find a nominee more capable of leading his party to victory in its present disrupted condition."

Will the esteemed Advocate please tell us to what party Mr. Cleveland belongs? We confess that we are unable to place him exactly. Although he voted for McKinley, the Republican party repudiates him, and he has himself twice repudiated the Democratic party's nominees and platform, and it seems to us that he is a rather hard man to locate, politically.

Appropriations by the Florida Legislature reach a total of $1,700,000. A trifle over $600,000 of this amount goes for education.

In the United States Senate there are 24 ex-soldiers of the Civil War, 11 on the Union side and 13 on the Confederate side. There were 42 ex-Union soldiers in the last lower house of Congress and 30 ex-Confederates. With a few exceptions the friendly relations of these old soldiers are of the most cordial character.

Editor Codrington never tires of holding this mad world in check, but he often wonders what would happen if he were to let go for one brief week. After 25 years of a notable career, he pauses long enough to warn all his enemies that his mailed fist are good for 25 years yet to come. The country is safe.

The widow of Stonewall Jackson has given her old home at Lexington, Va., to be converted into a hospital for aged Confederate veterans to whom illness and infirmity have come in their old age. It was in 1858, while he was a professor in the Virginia Military Institute, that Gen. Jackson bought this, his first and only home, which he did no live long to enjoy.

The Ohio Republican State Convention nominated Myron T. Herrick for Governor, indorsed Roosevelt for President, Hanna for Senator, and Foraker on his record. Charlie Grosvenor and Gen. Dick were apparently forgotten in the crocodilian jubilee. Herrick is a poor politician, but a rich banker, and was the bosom friend of President McKinley, whose personal debts he paid before his first nomination for the Presidency.

THE TIMES-UNION

That great and unflagging advocate of Florida's manifold industrial resources and natural advantages, the Jacksonville Times-Union, has put in an up-to-date Goss Perfecting Press, and comes to us printed in colors. This is progress.

But if the esteemed old lady wishes to increase her prosperity and expand her influence, she will have to cease her covert abuse of W. J. Bryan and her sarcastic flings at W. R. Hearst.

She may say all that pleases her about the alleged virtues, availability, etc., of Grover Cleveland, and people will merely smile at its absurdity. But to question the Democracy of Bryan and Hearst is to open her own Democracy to suspicion, to say the least.

"Private monopoly fostered by special protective legislation must ultimately destroy all legitimate competition."—William Randolph Hearst.

The municipal agonies are over in Pensacola and Jacksonville. In the latter city the best man was elected mayor, but in Pensacola the Jennings Machine won by five majority.

Frank Harris for State Superintendent of Education sounds well, and ought to meet with the hearty indorsement of the entire press of Florida. He is an honor to Florida journalism.

"The public schools should be good. The public wealth should make them so superior to any private school that no father could afford to send his child to any save a public school."—William R. Hearst.

The tomb of Abraham Lincoln is one the hallowed spots of the nation, and it ought to be kept out of politics. The spectacle of Theodore Roosevelt weeping there the other day smacks very strongly of desecration. He does not stand for a solitary principle for which Lincoln stood and for which he suffered death.

The story to the effect that John Wilkes Booth, the assassin of President Lincoln, was never captured or killed is not a new one. Thousands have never believed the man killed by Boston Corbett was Booth. The fact that Corbett could never collect the reward offered by the Government is evidence that the authorities at Washington were not satisfied with the identication of the body made at the time.

WANTED.—Several industrious persons in each State to travel for house established eleven years and with a large capital to call upon merchants and agents for successful and profitable line. Permanent engagement. A weekly cash salary of $18 and all traveling expenses and hotel bills advanced in cash each week. Experience not essential. Mention reference and enclose self addressed envelope. THE NATIONAL, 334 Dearborn St., Chicago, Illinois. nov7

Next week the Commencement exercises of the University of Florida will take place, beginning to-morrow with the Baccalaureate Sermon by Rev. Dr. S. E. Rogers, and closing Wednesday with the annual Commencement Address by Hon. Robert W. Davis.

A Splendid Remedy.

Neuralgic pains, rheumatism, lumbago and sciatic pains yield to the penetrating influence of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It penetrates to the nerves and bone, and being absorbed into the blood, its healing properties are conveyed to every part of the body and effect some wonderful cures. Mr. D. F. Moore, Agent Illinois Central Railway, Milan, Tenn., writes "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment for rheumatism, backache, etc., in my family. It is a splendid remedy. We could not do without it." 25c, 50c and $1.00 at all druggists.

(First pub. June 6, last July 25)

Worry

Almost Unnerved Me —Heart Pains.

Short of Breath, Faint and Languid.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

"It has been five years since I was cured of heart trouble by your Heart Cure and Nervine, and I am just as sound as a dollar in that organ today. For several years I had been suffering with my heart. Breathing had become short and difficult at times, short, sharp pains about the heart, sometimes accompanied with fluttering would make me feel faint and languid. The least excitement or mental worry would almost unnerve me. I felt that the trouble was growing worse all the time, and after trying many remedies prescribed by physicians without obtaining relief, I was induced to give your remedies a trial. I was relieved the second day, and after taking three or four bottles all symptoms were removed and have never showed signs of returning."—REV. GEO. W. KIRACOFE, Chincoteague, Va.

There are many symptoms of heart disease, which so closely resemble those of more common nervous disorders as to frequently mislead the attending physician. Often in cases of heart trouble the stomach, kidneys, liver or lungs become affected. Again the symptoms may be those of weakened nerves, as tired feeling, sleeplessness, timidity, the patient is easily excitable and apt to worry without cause. If you have the least suspicion that your heart is weak study your symptoms and begin the use of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, the great heart and blood tonic, without a day's delay.

All druggists sell and guarantee first bottle Dr. Miles' Remedies. Send for free book on Nervous and Heart Diseases. Address Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

Home of Swamp-Root.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

GRANDMA SHELDON DEAD

Mrs. Jane Sheldon, the oldest inhabitant of Volusia county, died last Sunday night at her home in New Smyrna, aged 89 years and 9 months.

"Grandma Sheldon," as she was called by her friends and intimates, was a most remarkable woman. With her husband, she came to the East Coast in 1828, when this country was indeed a howling wilderness, peopled only with savage Indians and Spanish pirates.

Three times in her eventful career she was burned out of a house and home—twice by Indians and once by the Federal navy officers.

She knew the celebrated Indian Chief, Billy Bowlegs, and generously fed him from her table after his capture, although he had previously robbed and burned her house and driven her, with her children, into the swamps.

During the civil war her husband, who died many years ago, was a famous Confederate blockade runner along this coast, and to be revenged on him, the officers of a Federal gunboat that shelled and captured New Smyrna burned her house.

Through all her trials, afflictions and checkered career, Mrs. Sheldon never lost her hold upon God or wavered in her trustful faith in his mercy. She died as had lived, a Christian in whom there was no guile and no fear.

She raised a large family of children, but only three of them survive her—Mrs. Victoria Lowd, Mrs. F. W. Sams, and R. S. Sheldon.

ALACHUA'S INVITATION

The Alachua Board of County Commissioners issues the following circular:

"To the Chairmen and members of the various Boards of County Commissioners and all Good Roads advocates:

Gentlemen—The Board of County Commissioners of Alachua county and the citizens of Gainesville respectfully invite you to be their guests while in attendance at the State County Commissioners and Good Roads Association meeting to be held in Gainesville June 16th and 17th. The only cost to you will be your railroad fare. Kindly send the names of all who will attend.

T. F. THOMAS, Chairman.
Gainesville, Fla., June 10, 1903.

It has been estimated that bad roads in the United States cost every person in the United States indirectly about $8.00 annually. It is not unreasonable.

Keep Well

Blood and iron have really been inseparable since the Creation, and when in perfect harmony mean perfect health and strength. Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic is calculated to preserve this harmony, supplying the blood with iron in proper form and proportion. Iron has always been used as a blood tonic, but it remained for Dr. Harter to discover and perfect a combination of iron and other tonic ingredients. A trial of half a century has proven that Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic is a perfect blood purifier. Most of the ills we are heir to come from impure or impoverished blood. The blood carries necessary supplies to every part of the body. If it fails to do so, some part of the bodily machine will lag. Lagging means sickness. Don't permit lagging. Don't wait until you are down sick. Use and keep well. It is a scientific compound (not a crude, "shake-well-before-using" mixture) of iron with other tonic ingredients—a perfect blood purifier and health builder.

The following is one of thousands of similar endorsements of Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic that we have received, proof positive that this old reliable remedy does all that is claimed for it:

Augusta, Ark., May 10, 1901.

"After having sold Dr. Harter's remedies for thirty years, I can cheerfully recommend them. I might add that I hold in especial favor Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic, and would recommend it as the very best preparation of iron I am acquainted with. To weak, worn out women, and those troubled with nervousness, poor digestion and pale, thin blood, I believe it to be a panacea."

J. B. Wilkerson, Druggist.

($5,000 guarantee that above testimonial is genuine.)

Every bottle of Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic has our "Crescent" trade-mark on the label. Don't accept a substitute—insist on Dr. Harter's.

His Last Hope Realized.

[From the Sentinel, Gebo, Mont.]

In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1899, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, together with the severe heat, which gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. For sale by all druggists.

The census of 1900 shows an increase of 30,000 in the Indian population of the United States in ten years. The total number of Indians is 270,000.

The last California orange crop is said to have brought $18,000,000. Her gold mines produced $17,000,000.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are just what you need when you have no appetite, feel dull after eating and wake up with a bad taste in your mouth. They will improve your appetite, cleanse and invigorate your stomach and give you a relish for your food. For sale by all druggists.

The Treasury Department estimates that the exports of the United States for the current year will reach the enormous sum of $1,500,000,000.

Constipated Bowels.

To have good health the body should be kept in a laxative condition, and the bowels moved at least once a day, so that all the poisonous wastes are expelled daily. Mr. G. L. Edwards, 142 N. Main St., Wichita, Kansas, writes: "I have used Herbine to regulate the liver and bowels for the past ten years, and found it a reliable remedy." 50c at all druggists.

Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

Is everywhere recognized as the one remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant to take. It is especially valuable for summer diarrhoea in children and is undoubtedly the means of saving the lives of a great many children every year. Sold by all druggists.
