

Saint Mary's Beacon.

COUNTY NEWS.

WASHINGTON & POTOMAC RAILROAD.

TIME TABLE - In Effect June 1, 1896. STATIONS-SOUTH. STATIONS-NORTH.

St. Mary's Academy. The exercises of St. Mary's Academy will be resumed Tuesday, September 8th, 9 a. m. Punctual attendance is requested.

A Change. Yates Bros, who have been doing business the Confectionery opposite the Drug Store, have disposed of their interest to Mr. Spencer Viett.

Presching. There will be preaching at Bethel, 10:30 a. m., and Benedict at 8 p. m., Sunday, August 30th, by Rev. C. W. Moore. Sunday School 9:30 a. m. Most cordial invitation extended to strangers.

Personal. Mr. Edwin B. Towson and Chas. J. Byrne, of Baltimore have arrived at "Recreation Point," the residence of Mr. C. H. Lucas, Britton's Neck, for their Summer outing, numerous packages of "Bait" being brought along for the 12th of September, which will be daily honored by those descendants of "Old Defenders" of 1812.

Free Show. There will be a show by Oregon Indian Medicine Company at the Town Hall Wednesday (tonight). All over 21, free; all under, 5 cents.

We understand this Company will spend a week in the town, giving entertainments each night. They have been spending the summer at Colonial Beach, where they gave general satisfaction. The entertainments will consist of art, music, ventriloquism, &c.

St. Inigo's Items. Miss Olga Posey and Miss Jennie Hooper, both very prepossessing young society ladies, the former of Washington, the latter of Wilmington, Del., who have been visiting Mr. James Carroll, of St. Inigo's, have gone to visit friends near Leonardtown.

Miss Posey was the recipient of the crown bestowed on the Queen of Love and Beauty won by the gallant Knight B. S. Clarke, of Point Lookout.

Rather Strange. Recently a Valley Lee man, a Morganza man and a Leonardtown man were playing a game of "seven-up." The Leonardtown man "stood" on the lone jack and played four times.

Stranger still. A gentleman of this district paid a visit to his stable loft the other day and found a watermelon patch in it. One melon was attached to a stalk of blade fodder, the bundles completely covering it. The fodder belonging to him, he thought he was entitled to what was attached to it. The melon was ripe and of good flavor, but it puzzles him how it got there.

Budd's Creek Items. Mr. Briscoe Bunting, of Calvert, spent Sunday week at his home, The Oaks.

Mrs. Sanger is the guest of Mr. John Barber.

Mr. James Cochran paid a visit of a few days to Mrs. Kirk.

Trustee meeting was held at the Pink school house on Thursday, Mr. Theodore Carpenter as teacher.

Miss Maria Key is at her home Hamburg, owing to the illness of Miss Julia Key.

Mr. James Bunting spent several days last week in Pomonkey, where he holds his school.

Charlotte Hall School Building. We have been informed that the Charlotte Hall School Building is rapidly progressing under the skillful hand of Supt. Hubbell, who represents the Manly Manufacturing Company of Dalton, Ga. It promises to be a very handsome, convenient and substantial structure. Steel pillars are inserted in the walls to sustain the weight of the parts above. The Hall will be 5 ft. wider and 2 ft. higher than in the old building. It has been decided to make the building fire-proof throughout, that saving the cost of insurance. The brick work was finished on the 26th instant, and the entire work will be completed in October. School reopens Sept. 7th and should be well attended. The counties of St. Mary's, Charles, Calvert and Prince George's should give a liberal patronage to this venerable Institution, now entering on its second century of usefulness under such bright auspices.

Chaptice Chaps. Miss Eva Penn has returned to Charles county with the regards of many friends.

Mrs. R. Budd, of Washington, and children are visiting her brother, Mr. Sam Hayden.

We are pleased to see Mrs. C. R. Barber, of Va., and Dr. J. R. T. Barber, of Harrison, Delaware, are in our midst again.

Miss Maggie Welch is visiting her sister, Mrs. Baker, of Washford.

Rev. C. W. Moore, who has been assisting Rev. Mr. Henry, of Calvert, in his meetings the past week left for Prince George's, where he will assist Rev. Mr. Griffith.

The Hall Thursday night was largely attended and everyone seems to be pleased with the play.

Mrs. Oscar Davis and Master Lamson Davis spent last Sunday in Charles.

Took The Vows.

Three novices who had completed their work of study, for admission into the Order of the Oblate Sisters of Providence made their vows of profession Sunday at the convent of the order, Chase Street and Forest Place, Baltimore. One of the novices was Sister Mary Flavia, who was Mary Thomas, of this county.

Many visitors were present from out of town, among them being friends and relatives of the young women. The Oblate Sisters are colored women who work among their own race. The order has for its chief object the care and teaching of colored orphans.

COMMUNICATED.

GREAT MILLS, Aug. 17, 1896. Messrs. Editors:—We would like to draw Mr. Road Supervisor Foxwell's attention to the road running from White Plains Farm to Jarboesville. We understand it was his duty to drive over all the roads in the county once a month. Now, Mr. Foxwell has not been over this road yet. We know this, because he cannot drive over it. Know if it is not fixed we shall apply at the next meeting of the Commissioners for them to purchase the right of way for a new road.

JOSEPH S. LEAVERTON, Const., WILLIAM BRADLEY.

Summer Visitors.

Mr. R. P. Deddick and wife, of Washington city, are stopping with Capt. Ben Foxwell.

Miss Mamie Bowen, of Calvert county, Senior of Western Maryland College, is visiting Miss Olive Bohanan.

Miss Estelle and Mr. William Hayden, of Washington city, are visiting friends in this village.

Mr. Davis Quinn and family, of Camden, N. J., are guests of Mr. Geo. C. Abell, near this village.—Enterprise.

Miss Lillie Linkins, Miss Celia Muldoon, Miss Carrie Sanders, Mrs. J. Sanders, Messrs. R. and S. Sanders, Mrs. M. J. Watson and Dr. Perry are guests of Mrs. R. W. Mattingly, Britton's Neck.

Miss Nannie Turner, of Washington city, is spending her vacation with her parents, this district.

Miss Maggie Wilkinson and Miss Mamie King, of Washington, have returned home after an enjoyable stay with friends through out the county.

Mr. Frank Hall and family and Miss Della Parkerson, all of Washington city, are visiting Mrs. Charles V. Hayden, near Leonardtown.

LOVEVILLE, MD., August, 1896.

Messrs. Editors:—Thinking you might like to hear from this section I send you a few items. The late rain revived the crops to some extent. Before it came they were suffering severely from the drought. The crop of corn will be short, perhaps one-third. There are some good crops of tobacco, much of it being housed, but the crop is short, much of it being small, first by reason of too much rain and afterwards not enough.

Well, I took a trip to Mr. Zach Johnson's splendid roller mill, Locust Run, recently, for the purpose of procuring some of his fine flour, &c. I found the mill in active operation. Mr. Johnson is charge and having as much as he could possibly attend to. All the available space in the second floor was piled up with bags of grain, principally wheat, and the third story also stored full. Mr. J. informed me that he had as much work as he could do possibly do, grinding every day until sometimes late at night, instead of three days in the week as formerly. The mill is a large one and has the capacity of turning out four and a half million bushels of flour, and has the capacity of turning out six bushels, as you might call them, and several were in operation. The work of attending to grinding, &c., is performed on the 2nd floor. Every thing seemed to work in the most perfect and expeditious manner, with latest improvements of the patent roller process. Mr. J. makes the best of flour and meal and sells the same at most reasonable rates. No one who patronizes him will feel disappointed as to quality, price and fair dealing. I have been using his flour for some time past, and it is no more than justice to say that I have never obtained better elsewhere, or at a more reasonable rate. The high appreciation in which his manufacture is held, however, is best attested by his large and increasing run of custom. The mill supplies a want long felt, and I believe I voice the sentiments of the community when I say they feel they would be put to great inconvenience without it. P.

First Sunday in the month Holy Communion.

Sunday night services (on moonlight nights) are announced from the chancel.

Possibilities of Journalism.

During the past two weeks "The Philadelphia Press" has given a striking object lesson of what the public may expect from a great national newspaper. Although opposed to the principles which candidate Bryan represents, "The Press" is the only newspaper published in Pennsylvania which has printed verbatim reports of all the candidates' speeches. The achievement was accomplished by the addition of columns and pages to its space, so that, with what all the candidates have had to say, "The Press" has given, from day to day, all the other news of the world in the complete form for which it is famous.

This policy, "The Press" announces, will be continued. The campaign has already become the most remarkable in the history of the nation. The full and fair reports of "The Philadelphia Press" will be among its chief incidents.

A Card.

Messrs. Editors:—The Baltimore Sun of Aug. 8, 1896, stated in an article entitled "Farmers and Planters would lose by Free Silver Coinage," that in 1873 a one horse steel plow cost the farmer $6.50 which was at that time the price of six bushels of wheat.

In 1873 wheat was worth $1.65 per bushel, at which rate six bushels brought $9.90; consequently after paying $6.50 for the plow there remained $3.40. At the present time a one horse steel plow is worth $2.50, and six bushels of wheat will bring only $3.00 which of course will only bring the farmer fifty cts. after paying for his plow, instead of $3.40 as in 1873.

The Sun also stated that in 1873 a potato digger cost the farmer $20, that being about the price of 104 bush of wheat. Now it is to be remembered that in 1873 wheat was worth $1.65 per bush therefore, instead of 194 bushels of wheat bringing only $320 or the cost of the digger—the 104 bush of wheat net the farmer $32.17; leaving a balance of $12.17 in his hands after the purchase of the digger.

At the present time a digger costs $7.50 and 194 bushels of wheat will net about $32.17 which will only leave $24.67 instead of $12.17, in 1873.

It is surprising in the extreme that The Sun which claimed to be the paper of the State and "Light For All" should insert in its columns, statements so erroneous, perfectly regardless of the great injustice wrought thereby to the farming class of voters throughout the country. Its Editors should blush with shame for adopting and circulating such scandalous false statements for the sole purpose of misleading and thereby doing their utmost to defeat the Democratic nominee for the presidency—Mr. Bryan, with whom the large majority of the people think and desire.

We do hope and trust that they may not succeed in that regard, as they did in betraying our State into the hands of the Republicans last November.

Hymenial.

On Wednesday evening, the 19th instant, the Methodist Episcopal church at Sand Gates was the scene of a pretty wedding. In the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives were celebrated the nuptial of Mr. Jordan Hancock of Charlotte Hall, and Miss Mattie Robinson of Sand Gates. The groom, who is a son of Mr. Josiah Hancock, of Charlotte Hall and a young business man of St. Mary's, was dressed in dark trousers with a black cutaway coat. He wore a white silk four-hand neck tie. The bride is the eldest daughter of the late James A. Robinson of Prince George's County, and Mrs. Lina Ryder, of Sand Gates. She is a demi-brunette and was very prettily and becomingly attired in a dress of pea green novelty cloth, trimmed in cream lace and Dresden ribbon. The attendants were Miss Annie Robinson, a sister of the bride, and Mr. Peter Hancock, a brother of the groom. The wedding procession formed in the vestibule of the church, and to the strains of the march, which was beautifully executed by the organist Miss Essie Jones, slowly walked down the aisle to the chancel rail where, standing under a large arch of evergreens, the bride and groom were met by the pastor, A. E. Spillman, who impressively read the marriage service. The company who witnessed the ceremony were in evening dress. Among those who attended were: Mrs. Lina Ryder, Capt. Harry Robinson, Mrs. Jno. N. Graves, Miss Esther Spalding, Mrs. Dent Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Patten Jones, Mrs. Benjamin Bond, Mrs. Stephen Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dixon, Mrs. G. W. L. Buckler, Miss Mabel Buckler, Mrs. Zach Graves, Miss Mary Graves, Miss Adie Bond, Dr. Joseph O. King, Miss Etta Forrest, Mr. Ben Hancock, Miss Mollie Hancock, Capt. John H. Buckler, Capt. and Mrs. Culler, Mr. Lewis Graves, Mr. Victor J. Buckler, Mr. Fred Harding, Mr. Stephen M. Jones, Mr. Geo. L. Buckler, Mr. Howard Graves, Mr. E. St. Clair Buckler, Mr. Geo. Abell, Mr. Harris Spedden, and Misses Carrie and Sadie Burroughs, all of St. Mary's; Miss Lucy Emrich of Baltimore; Miss Hahn of Port Deposit, Cecil county; Miss Thomas of Norfolk, Va.; Miss Eva McKee, of Washington; Mr. Ernest Graves, of Pennsylvania; Mr. Moore of Cape Charles City, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Tebbett of New York; Messrs. Geo. and Peter Barnes, of Calvert county; Mr. and Mrs. Perry Barber, of Baltimore; Miss Emma Bond, of Ohio; and Mr. Edward Starr, of Frederick.

Lowtown Local.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

The weather is several degrees cooler and a cool Autumn is predicted by our local weather prophets. Orstermen are prepared to commence business whenever the time appear. They are eager to work. Trunkers are low spirited inasmuch as the prices they receive for shipments are not remunerative. The home market is dull. With the exception of the butter and eggs very little is sold. Fine hogs are to be seen in enclosures and on the commons. Cattle are in excellent condition, and despite the dry weather, water has been plentiful. Trees in a number of orchards are loaded with apples of different varieties, and there is a bright prospect for latter peaches.

August will soon bid us good by.

We often think of Charles Dickens' beautiful description of this month. The farmer reaps the reward of his labors, and we are not surprised that the Romans dedicated August to Ceres, the goddess of Corn, and celebrated it also by different games and observances.

The canning factory and steam saw mill of Messrs. Benville and Company are in full blast. Henry Abell, Esq., has moved his mill to a more convenient location—near Willie Bayne's gate on the road leading to Point Lookout. He is versed in the art of sawing, etc.

In the complex system of the present life it is difficult for a man to act out in letter and spirit the precept which teaches uniform rectitude and integrity. We notice some trespassing of cattle upon cornfields, and the sequence is they are impounded. Damages are assessed, and that victor which teaches us that all here below is full of vanity, is violated.

Ho! Yes, it is said that the Salvation Army, or a part of same, will visit this section soon—singers like ourselves will have to take to the woods.

Politicians are very quiet, and Silverites are resting on their oars. Republicans appear satisfied with Mr. Mudd's nomination. A number of them however, deep down in their hearts, prefer Lawyer Ching, of your town. The advocates of the Prohibition ticket which they aver if the nominees could be elected, would dry up the widow's tears, and cause the orphan's heart to sing for joy—are doing all that they can to make proselytes. They ask, "who can paraphrase upon the phrase 'overlasting burnings'?"

Although the body is a necessary vehicle of the soul—spirit) through the organs of which it displays its communications, we notice that it is not free from the inroads of disease, notwithstanding the additional fact that the physiological maxim pure air for the lungs and bright sunlight for the eyes, is not forgotten.

Our Dr. Tippett has frequent calls to see the sick, and we understand that the sickness is principally of a bilious nature. Some persons are wont to say that we live 'too fast, and complaints are consequently engendered and live shortened. Trus, "intensive life cannot be extensive."

The wild man, well, not of Borneo, but originally from the Eastern Shore, requests us to state that he intends to vote for the "silver craze" candidate for Congress and the Major, of Ohio, for president. Sirs, everything is moving, and it requires men of Athletical astuteness to tell us whether the ship will answer to the helm or not.

Willie A.—son of Mr. James Pendles, died 23rd instant of malarial fever.

How true it is that moral evil has sunk us beneath our primitive rank in the scale of created excellency. Our patience is not of the angelical type—we'll not use any 'cuss' words however, and ask here your opinion in deploring our Ma.

Friendship M. E. church is closed for the present, owing to non-attendance of the very few members. An independent church is in contemplation; and the site, so we have been informed, has been located near the "Three Notch" road, just below the colored Baptist church. Changes are taking place both in church and State, and no thinking man can close his eyes to the stubborn fact. There seems to be no end to creeds, and instead of being like a new Pentecost to the wilted hopes of our degenerate religion, they add confusion, and the final outcome of the matter is, minds are palsied and the cause of God is disgraced—no beams from heaven enlightens the benighted mind.

Rain! Thanks to Him whose footstool is "the great globe itself."

Dr. T. Hooper Lynch paid this section a visit recently. The Dr. is not forgotten by his many friends of the district, and he always receives a hearty welcome from them. His elastic step and sparkling eye show that he is a devotee to the shrine of Hygiea.

Six weeks ago I suffered with a very severe cold; was almost unable to speak. My friends all advised me to consult a physician. Noticing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised in the St. Paul Volks Zeitung I procured a bottle, and after taking it a short while was entirely well. I now most heartily recommend this remedy to anyone suffering with a cold. Wm. KELL, 678 Selby Ave., St. Paul, Minn. For sale by Wm. F. Greenwell & Son, Leonardtown; Jos. S. Matthews, Valley Lee, and all country stores.
