The coming attraction at the opera house next Monday, Jan. 20th, will be the Allen Curtis Musical Comedy Company. This organization comes well recommended after having played all the principal cities in the south, they carrying the reputation for breaking all records for business wherever they have been. Allen Curtis is conceded by both press and public to be the cleverest Hebrew comedian on the American stage today and he is surrounded with such a strong cast of musical comedy players that it is safe to say that this will be one of the best shows seen here this season. The list includes Arthur Clamage, Ed. Schooley, Bert Lindley who are well known to the patrons of musical comedy, Miss Margarette LaPonte, Prima Donna and Miss Winifred Greene, the dainty little soubrette surrounded with a chorus of 15 pretty young women, gorgeously gowned, the best picked lot of show girls seen with a musical show in years.
