Notice to Correspondents.

The Herald is anxious of representing every neighborhood in the county. It furnishes stationery free. Correspondents living here in mind to write on one side of the paper only, include name of persons [illegible]

"If at first you don't succeed, try, try again." It may not be the first time that you have failed, either. Take off your coat, roll up your sleeves and try again. If you fail the second time, there is no reason why you should not try again. Success is the result of a long series of failures. Success is the result of a long series of efforts.

The Governor-City Herald will [illegible] a paper in Nebraska that wants aid also wants to be made chairman of the relief committee. When a western man suffers he suffers for everything in sight."

Here's to the kicker, the faint hearted kicker, the kicker so helpless and blue; who always is crying and never is trying some good for his own town to do. No need to correct him nor need you expect him to get to the front like a man, for while others rustle, he'll set and hustle objections to rules to each plan.—Ex.

One of the strangest and most inexplicable characteristics of the human race is that while we each and everyone know the traits of character most admired in other men and women, we strive so little to cultivate those traits in ourselves. It is not because we are indifferent to the love and respect of our fellow-men, for it is a fact that with few exceptions we prize these things above riches. Neither can this universal failure be accounted for on the theory of "general cussedness," for comparatively few people are seriously afflicted with that malady. But is not this weakness due, in part at least, to the fact that in the scuffle for things we covet most we forget that these little details round out and complete the ideal character and make a straight path to success, and that forgetting these things we strive to achieve riches and renown at a single bound? There seems to be a universal intern anticipation that 'some day' we'll accomplish some great thing that will bring us riches and the plaudits of the world. We are hero-worshippers, and expect 'some day' to occupy a prominent seat in the hero band wagon. Instead of carefully and presistently building our ideal character, our castle, of the small things that we can acomplish day by day, we are prone to look to the future to bring us all we desire in one big lump, and thus we go on generation after generation; and in nine cases out of ten the anticipated 'big lump' reaches us on our death bed and is stuffed to overflowing with, not what we have coveted, but disappointment and regrets both for what we have done and what we have not done. If you can extract a moral here from make use of it freely—it will cost you nothing.—Meade Globe.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Paladora Brevities.

Feb. 6th, was the coldest night of the season.

C P Neill returned from his trip to Beaver on the 5th.

Mr. Isaac Hill of near Tyrone, and daughter Mary, were down visiting at Mr J. J. Thompson'.

Ross Neill started to Caple on the 7th to attend school where his brother Frank is teaching.

Mr. Bumgarner of Cherokee Co. Kansas, came in the night of the 4th in answer to a telegram that his brother William was dying. He brother was dead when he arrived. He took his remains back to Cherokee for burial. Mr. Bumgarner died with consumption. He was one of our best citizens.

Mrs William Haley of near Boyd has been sick all winter.

The river is frozen as solid as a door. A good crossing and no excuse for mail carriers not getting in on time.

Mr. G. W. Fulkerson has been in poor health for some time.

Cattle are in fine shape and everything is lovely in the neighborhood except the flowers; their black wilted foliage is anything but lovely.

Anon.

Notes from Nye.

Winter, winter, every day in the week.

The Cimarron has been frozen for three weeks.

Her many friends will be grieved to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. Anna Bruce, mother of W. T. Bruce, on Thursday Feb 7th at the home of her son in Meade Kansas. Mrs. Bruce has been a great sufferer for the past three years having been crippled by a fall. She was found dead in her chair. She came from Illinois about a year ago to make her home with her son and it was thought that she was improving, but the cold weather was too severe for her and she grew worse from the time cold weather set in. Her husband who survives her and her son and his wife were faithful in caring for her. She was a member of the M. E. church for years, and her patience in suffering, and an unfailing fund of good humor endeared her to all who knew her. The afflicted family has the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

There has been no school in No. 42 for two weeks owing to cold and a scarcity of fuel.

R. K. Perry has a mas to trap and hunt wolves, and the boys are having fun shooting rabbits these bright nights.

EXPERIMENT STATION NOTES.

A good many letters have been received by Prof. Magruder asking about "Sacaline," the new forage plant. It will be tried this spring at the Station farm. Farmers are advised to let it alone until an investigation of its merits is made.

The Oklahoma Experiment Station has begun in a small way an attempt at the storage of the rainfall of part of the farm. A pond covering an acre was made by closing a "draw," and experiments to find a cheap power to lift and distribute the water will be made in time.

The recent snow storm at the Oklahoma Experiment Station fully justifies the policy of plowing late in furrows east and west. In these furrows the snow has accumulated and will slowly melt, carrying into the soil the gathered nitrogen, while in furrows plowed north and south, in many places the ground is bare, and was so soon after the storm.

Wheat throughout Oklahoma is looking bad. A great deal of late sowings is winter killed but the heavy fall of snow on January 27 had a decided beneficial effect on it. If the wheat is killed out on your farm, Prof. Magruder, of the Oklahoma Experiment Station, suggests putting in spring barley on the wheat ground. Barley is more valuable anyhow on the market than wheat and is its equal in feeding value.

That field and garden seeds are kept at the Oklahoma Experiment Station for free distribution is a mistake. Already the Station is receiving many letters daily asking for seeds. These requests are so numerous that they can not be answered, much less complied with. The Station has no seeds for distribution and farmers of the Territory would save time and stamps by not writing for them. Station publications are free for all. Write for them if you don't get them. Address Dr. J. C. Neal, Director, Stillwater, Oklahoma.

The Interstate Irrigation Convention at El Reno on the 25 and 26 of January had a good attendance and carried out a good programme. A few of the facts brought out were very interesting. 1. That if two acres of land on every claim in Oklahoma were irrigated we would have relatively more land under irrigation than they have in California. 2. That one acre properly handled under irrigation will keep one man in all the necessities of life. 3. That enough water can be found beneath us to irrigate from one to ten acres on every farm. 4. That irrigation in a country tends to stimulate immigration rather than to decrease it as is usually supposed. 5. That with an ordinary pump and a fifty gallon barrel a plat two rods square can be profitably irrigated.

SCRATCHED 3 YEARS

Suffered, Scratched, and Bled. Doctors No Relief. Cured by Two Sets Cuticura Remedies.

I wish to express my thanks for the benefit I have derived from using CUTICURA REMEDIES. Nothing like them was ever manufactured. For three years have I suffered with a sore head. I would break out all over my head with pimples which would form a watery matter, and I would have to scratch until I would bleed. After doctoring with two doctors for three years, more or less, I finally made up my mind to try your CUTICURA REMEDIES with result entirely satisfactory to me. After using two sets of CUTICURA REMEDIES, I am entirely cured. I have recommended your remedies to several persons, and they all tell me they are No. 1. Our druggist is doing a nice business in CUTICURA REMEDIES, since my cure. I have given him the privilege of using my name as proof of their efficiency. I enclose my portrait.

A. F. GRAMM, Photographer, Mt. Horeb, Wis.

My wife has been troubled with the salt rheum for four years. During this time doctors of Wisconsin, Illinois, and the most eminent doctors of Chicago, failed to give relief. I bought the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and she used only one box of CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP, and half a bottle of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and these have cured my wife completely.
