M'KINLEY-ROOSEVELT

NOT A SINGLE VOTE AGAINST THE CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT OR VICE PRESIDENT.

The Republican National Convention held at Philadelphia last week unanimously renominated William McKinley for President at ten minutes to one o'clock on Thursday, June, 21. Senator Foraker of Ohio took the platform and in a fifteen minute speech placed the name of William McKinley before the convention as a candidate for president. During Senator Foraker's speech there was incessant cheering and hurrahing and when he closed the crowd grew wild with excitement. In vain Chairman Lodge rapped with the gavel but the demonstrations could not be lulled. The cheering and hurrahs lasted exactly fifteen minutes. There were 930 votes cast and out of that number William McKinley got 930.

Chairman Lodge next announced that the chair recognized Gov. Roosevelt of New York. At the sound of that magic name cheers and shouts rent the air. Col. Lafe Young offered a speech in which he told of the hero of San Juan and placed his name before the convention as a candidate for Vice President. After tremendous cheering a vote was taken and the chairman announced that Gov. Roosevelt had received 925 votes one delegate not voting. This delegate was Gov. Roosevelt.

After other minor business was transacted the Republican National Convention on 1900 adjourned at 2:40 o'clock.

Rough Rider's Reunion.

The trip to Oklahoma is one that nearly every one in the country has promised themselves for some future date. The time when this trip should be taken is July first to fourth when the famous Rough Rider regiment of which Theodore Roosevelt, the nominee for the Vice Presidency, was the colonel and moving spirit. This famous band of heroes will hold their second annual reunion at Oklahoma City, the metropolis of the greatest territory in the Union, July the first to fourth, and some of the attractions that they have secured for the four days that they will be in session will be worth a trip across the continent to witness. Principal will be the opening of the republican campaign by an address that Col. Roosevelt will deliver July third. The famous reproduction of the Battle of San Juan by Pain's Fire Works Company. The cow boy tournament in which prizes are given for the roping of wild cattle and the riding of bronchos, and there are hundreds of other attractions that will be of more than ordinary interest. Visit the reunion and at the same time pay a visit to Oklahoma and see the greatest agricultural community in the world.

FULTON.

Providence has dealt kindly with us in the past week, having sent us copious showers of rain that is so essential to us in the development of growing crops.

Everybody feels so well that they have already inaugerated our annual celebration festivities. The Hackberry races on Wednesday 20th drew many of our sedate townspeople from the dull humdrum of agricultural pursuits to the exhilerating excitement of the turf. We understand that the Booth nag took the purse, amounting to some $300 00 or $400.00. After the race the light fantastic was tripped by the young-
