SY SHAKERAG SAYS—

According to my notion what this world needs is not so much religion but more Christianity.

Hard coal operators is right. They're robbing us.

If a man is on the waterwagon is he better off?

It looks like all [illegible] wants is a fighting chance.

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

There [illegible] coal operators. [illegible] soft.

And [illegible] newspapers [illegible] Greek [illegible].

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

The Republican party [illegible] by the past.

It has [illegible] that Lenin was dead. We are [illegible] they bury him.

We [illegible] Pickens [illegible] President Harding was left to him [illegible] the peanut [illegible].

Drunk Bowl [illegible] reading the [illegible] papers [illegible] 'er Fur [illegible].

One of the most [illegible] features of every political [illegible] fellow who on the day after election knew all the time how it was coming out.

Liberty [illegible] town's [illegible] "Liberty—Hub of Pickens County." Easley's slogan is "You Can Easily Do Better In Easley," while the county seat is "Pickens—Gem of the Foothills." Come on, Central.

My brain is dull, my body's tired,
my soul is wrapped in sorrow;
I long to go in peace away, if only for a morrow.
To some far distant mountain peak,
far from the maddening crowds:
Commune alone—and speak—to Him
beyond the clouds.

RELIGIOUS MEETINGS

During the past few days Pickens county has enjoyed the distinction of having within its borders at the same time four of the very foremost religious workers in the world. As a result of their visit here it seems that one can discover a difference in the atmosphere itself. Certainly much good has been accomplished and more good will be accomplished as the days go by.

During the week just passed Rev. Pat Withrow, of Charleston, W. Va., conducted a tent meeting at Easley. Thousands attended the meeting and hundreds were saved and reclaimed. Mr. Withrow is an humble and modest man, but he is undoubtedly one of the really great men of this country. Eleven years ago he established a rescue mission in Charleston with $1,000 borrowed money and today he has a publicly plant worth more than half a million dollars and said to be the most complete rescue mission in the world. The good done by the mission in reclaiming and remaking lost men and women cannot be measured in terms of the world.

The [illegible] annual Bible conference at Pickens is now in session [illegible]. Conducting the [illegible] Rev. R. V. Miller [illegible] the United States [illegible] teacher of the foremost [illegible] Rev. R. A. Forrest, president of the Toccoa (Ga.) Bible Institute, [illegible] of wide reputation and [illegible] and "Uncle Charlie" [illegible] of Providence, R. I., probably the greatest object lesson teacher in the world.

"Uncle Charlie" talks to the children [illegible] afternoon at [illegible] o'clock. Dr. [illegible] at 4 o'clock with his [illegible]. Song service begins at [illegible] night and Dr. Forrest [illegible]. The singing is being [illegible] Prof. [illegible] Bolding, Pickens [illegible] never [illegible] yet [illegible]. The conference will [illegible] Sunday night.

The [illegible] and are now attending [illegible] people are hungry for the gospel of Jesus Christ.

ABOUT THE NEWSPAPER

[illegible] of what a newspaper does [illegible] the late United States Senator [illegible] of Illinois, made an [illegible] which he said:

"Every year each local paper gives from $500 to $1,000 in free lines to the city or town in which it is located, in boosting, praising and [illegible] churches, schools, societies, etc. The editor in proportion to his means does more for the town than any other man in it, and he ought to be supported, not because you like to [illegible] him and his style, but because a local paper is one of the town's best features. Today the local papers are doing more for less pay than anything on earth, and it's a fact in many cases of free notices."

CONTRIBUTED PARAGRAPHS

By Hawkshaw

After listening to the political speeches of the past campaign we have come to the conclusion that some things bore besides augers.

Lieutenant Doolittle flies across continent averaging 100 miles per hour. Seems like he should Doolittle else but flying.

Attorney General says acid test will be applied to testimony in miners massacree at Herrin, Ill. If it will be applied to that portion of the body where some of them need the toe of a boot we are of the opinion it would have greater results.

Cowpens remains in Spartanburg County. Good thing. If the Bull was moved with it what would be left of that county?

Reed is elected Missouri Senator. We hope his name has no connection with his strength as a Senator.

Prominent lady arrives to aid husbands suit. She has our sympathy if she attempts to iron all kinks.

Greeks wipe out Turkish division. Wonder if a Turkish towel and slate were used?

Man arrested for kidnapping women. Who believes that in this day of Flapperism?

If some people we know had been in graves where bootleggers buried booze we expect Hamlet's ghost would blush for shame the way they would walk and talk.

We see where a former tax collector was sentenced to four years. Wish we had been the judge. Nuf said.

If some one would donate a cake of soap to go with all the rags won in base ball this season looks like it could be made clean.

And the Bull Dog begins to howl,
And the Purple Hurricane begins to blow,
And the Game Cock begins to crow,
Who will be the Champs?
Do you know?
