WILL A. NASH.....EDITOR.

OFFICIAL PAPER
Cochise County.

THE chances are two to one now since the election, administration under democratic rule having accomplished its object, silver will continue to decline.

Tar and feathers, and a good sharp rail are pretty good methods for ridding a town of notorious land grabbers.

Don't submit to robbery, ye people of Tombstone who have bought your property in good faith and built your homes thereon, but fight the shark to the bitter end.

"Fools rush in where Angels fear to tread." The above is very applicable to the Epitaph's editorial in defense of Ground Grabber Berry in this morning's issue of that sheet.

Friday Dunbar says that he would like to see the land question in this city settled, but yet he does not say one word in favor of the householders of whom he is asking daily for bread.

Old boy Andy Ritter is a dandy. The people are proud of him, and with one voice proclaim him to be the best treasurer the county has ever had. How do you like it Johnny Dunbar.

Members of the P P A remember the time and place of the coming meeting and bring your neighbor, whose cause is yours with you and establish means whereby land grabbing in this city will be forever put down.

Dunbar says that he is the sole owner of the Epitaph. If this is a fact, the people of Tombstone would like to have him publish a copy of this year's assessment roll showing wherein he is assessed as the owner of the Epitaph or the material that it is now printed upon.

"The wicked flee when no man pursueth." This is aptly illustrated in this morning's Epitaph, in which J. O. Dunbar, Berry's man Friday says that the Nash boys are trying to incite the honest and bona fide settlers of this town to riot in order to protect their homes from the grasp of G. Gunnison Berry. Why make this apology unless his master is guilty?

Everybody in Tombstone is cognizant of the fact that Ground Grabber Berry is the owner of the Epitaph and we defy John Dunbar to exhibit and publish a bill of sale of the same or even a lease of the same to him in his own name, his assertion that no "living man except him owns or controls it," to the contrary notwithstanding.

WHAT is the sense of the papers saying that Geronimo and his band are doomed to a lingering death in Florida. They are to be kept in Florida, it is true, under restraint, but that is no reason that it should be announced as a "lingering death." Florida is a resort that thousands of the best people in the country go to for health. The climate is grand in winter, and in summer it can't be much worse than some of the valleys of the desert whre Geronimo's band had got in its work. The Indians can consider themselves lucky to be boarded and lodged in Florida, instead of having their necks cracked. They will live as long as anybody wants them to.

Messrs. Seamans & Son yesterday received a large invoice of holiday goods, which they will place upon exhibition in a few days, and even now a visit to their store, causes one to imagine that he is in the veritable "enchanted castle" so profuse is the display of diamonds, rubies, topaz and other pecious stones, besides jewelry of the latest make and of every description. These goods have been bought cheap for cash and the citizens of Tombstone will get the benefit by being able to purchase presents at San Francisco prices.

Families can save 30 cents on the dollar by getting their meats at the Fulton Market. 12 3 tf

Something You Need—Shorthand.

"Why?"

"Because it will aid you more than anything else in acquiring knowledge. Because it will help you to a good business."

"How can it be learned?"

By the aid of a book studied at home and lessons by mail from an accomplished teacher.

"At what expense?"

The trifling sum of $6.00, including book.

"Why so cheap when colleges advertise the same course of instruction for $250?"

Because a new text book is used that reduces the labor of learning pronounced by the inference to price by the system being made simpler and more teachable and more practical, besides being the most popular method, having the indorsement of our Congressional and professional reporters everywhere, together with over 1000 graduates of our Course of Phonographic Colleges. Boys and men on the farm, in work shops and elsewhere, get it at home, in leisure and at school. I have learned the art in from three to six months' study during spare moments and been helped to positions in offices by Mr. Scott-Browne, where they have earned from $12 to $20 a week. The reduction of internal revenue and the taking off of revenue stamps from Proprietary Medicines, no doubt has largely benefitted the consumers, as well as relieving the burden of home manufacturers. Especially is the case with Green's August Flower and Boschee's German Syrup, as the reduction of thirty-six cents per dozen, has been added to increase the size of the bottles, containing these remedies, thereby giving one-fifth more medicine in the 75-cent size. The August Flower for Dyspepsia and Liver complaint, and the German Syrup for Cough and Lung troubles, have, perhaps, the largest sale of any medicines in the world. The advantage of increased size of the bottles will be greatly appreciated by the sick and afflicted, in every town and village in civilized countries. Sample bottles for ten cents remain the same size. nov8-1y
