

Saint Mary's Beacon
COUNTY NEWS.

Grand Democratic Mass-Meeting
IN LEONARDTOWN
ON THURSDAY, Oct. 27th, 1898,
AT 3 O'CLOCK, P. M.

The Hon. JOHN S. CUMMINGS, the Democratic nominee for Congress, with other distinguished speakers, will address the meeting.

We believe that old St. Mary's will be true to herself in the coming election and we cordially invite the people throughout the county to attend the meeting and hear the issues of the campaign discussed.

By order,
Democratic State Central Committee.

Localwise and Otherwise.

Cummings is coming
And will here next Thursday
Come to Leonardtown next Thursday and hear Cummings.

The Registers of Voters sat Tuesday last to revise the lists. The registration is now closed for the year.

The acquisition of Porto Rico by the United States was formerly completed Tuesday, October 18, 1898.

Tuesday's easterly storm blew down an aspen tree in front of the Edelen Store property, Leonardtown.

J. Clinton Bean, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of our county, is very ill at his home, near Valley Lee.

Thursday last, John B. Abell, Commission Merchant, Washington, sold for M. Jos. A. Dillow, Leonardtown, a calf for $11.02.

Samuel Jones, of the Sixth District, has obtained a position on the Patuxent River Oyster Police boat, John Sedgwick, commander.

Some weeks ago a young child of Mr. Willie Tension, of St. Clements Bay, was run over by a cart loaded with corn and seriously injured.

If a young lady wants a pair of beautiful made-to-order Oxford ties in black or tan, she will find them at F. O. Morgan's store, Leonardtown.

The regular correspondence of "Az-zana," our old and much esteemed stand-by, failed to reach us this week. We hope that our friend is not sick.

Prices are down at Lawrence's. Best granulated sugar, per pound, 5 cents; Levering's Coffee, 10 cents. See his advertisement of "Discounts in Cash."

We were pleased to see our good old ex-Confederate friend, Capt. R. E. Langley, Wednesday last. Capt. Langley is in good health and cheerful as ever.

Mrs. Joseph E. Harley, of Frederick county, Md., and Miss Teresa Duval, of Berkeley county, West Virginia, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Joseph S. Matthews, at Valley Lee.

A fine new dwelling is in course of erection on the "Good Hope" property on the Three Notch road. Sixth district, for Dr. Joseph O. King. Mr. Leo W. B. Graves is the contractor.

Wednesday last, State's Attorney Daniel C. Hammett left per Steamer Potomac, for a business trip to Washington and Baltimore. Mr. Hammett will likely be away about a week.

Miss Julia C. Stone, of Coburn, has removed to Southern Pines, N. C. While regretting her departure from St. Mary's we wish her every success and happiness in her new home.

The Reverend Pastor requests us to announce that owing to a mistake made in appointments, there will be no preaching at Mt. Zion or Leonardtown until Sunday, October 30th, 1898.

Mr. W. L. Cullen and wife, of Washington, D. C., are guests of Moore's Hotel. Mr. Cullen is a Washington photographer and makes good pictures. He has a tent erected on the hotel green.

Alfred a young son of Mr. James A. Ferguson of Hollywood section, was killed Thursday last week by being thrown from a horse. We are told that the child's neck was broken by the fall.

Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and Missouri were visited, October 17th, instant, by a severe snowstorm and blizzard, the earliest winter storm for twenty-five years. Much damage was done and suffering caused.

Mr. J. Frank Hill has been drawn on the District Grand Jury and will, in consequence, be compelled to remain in Washington for the next three months. The per diem of Washington jurors, we are told, is $2.

We regret to hear of the death of Hugh, eldest son of F. Wilson and Jennie J. Graves, of Sandgates. Hugh was a bright and lovable child aged about 6 years. The bereaved parents have our sincere sympathy.

It is reported that Lieut. E. D. Bostick, U. S. N., retired, has bought the Sutton farm in Patuxent district and will reside there. Lieut. Bostick has often visited our county and is well and favorably known here.

Last week the mill of Mr. Chapman Burroughs located on the Trent Hall road, 5th district, was burned. It is thought that the engine can be repaired. The loss of machinery, lumber, &c., is thought to be about $1000.

We have received from James C. Wise of Beavure, a sample of corn of this year's crop, the prettiest we have ever seen. The ear is not over large, but the grains are beautifully developed and the cob is completely filled.

Trains on the Chesapeake Beach road will likely be running from Washington to Marlboro within the next two weeks. Trains, we fear, will not be running from Washington to Point Lookout within the next hundred years.

There will be an entertainment at the Factory Hall, Wednesday next, October 26, for the benefit of Holy Face Church. Ice cream and all the delicacies of the season will be served. There will also be dancing. Attend and enjoy yourself.

We regret to learn that Mr. Joseph H. Jones, of Charlotte Hall district, is to remove to Baltimore. Mr. Jones is one of our most respected citizens and his removal will be a loss not only to his neighborhood but to the county at large.

F. O. Morgan, Leonardtown, is selling everything in the way of summer goods—clothing a specialty—at a little less than first cost. Mr. Morgan is an up-to-date merchant and is doing this to make room for a large stock of new Fall goods—orders for which he has already placed.

Leonardtown is still improving. Capt. Lawrence has moved the building occupied by J. L. Connelly as a shoeshop so as to front on Fenwick Street; F. O. Morgan is having a large warehouse erected on the extension of his store lot recently purchased of A. A. Lawrence; Charles W. Foxwell is having a kitchen built on his lot, and lumber is being hauled for A. F. Fenwick's dwelling.

Mechanicsville is enjoying a building boom which is resulting in greatly improving that already pretty village. The residence of Mr. Dent Robinson was first erected, followed in quick succession by dwellings for Mr. Wilson Adams and Mr. Thomas A. Reeder. Mr. Burroughs residence is nearing completion and the dwelling of Mr. John B. Ballenger has been commenced. With one exception, we believe the work has been done by Messrs. Hunter & Burroughs, and it has been well done. There have also been many other minor improvements around the village.

Uncle Ned's Letter.
"Home Sweet Home." No where in the wide world young readers do we enjoy freedom and ease so much as at our own home and beside be it ever so humble. Around it incomprehensible light is thrown. The home is a kingdom within itself whose domain none dare invade—where the master reigns supreme lord and sovereign beneath his own vine and fig tree. An Eden transformed. The legacy of a lost paradise.

Where first we enter upon the stage to play our part in the great drama of life, reared and nursed and shaped for future destiny to toil for the millions or to guide the ship of State—spreading brotherhood, light and civilization in every age and clime. The seat of self-government, the best of all forms, where one is his own judge and jury and from whose decision there is no appeal. Where the voice of Chanticleer bids defiance of his neighbor and the faithful friend and canine stands the ever watchful sentinel—where unbroken ties of husband and father, wife and mother harmoniously blend and the offspring kneels to lip the mother's prayer. The throne around which angelic group in the silent midnight hour—where the voice of innocence plaintive cries and heaven is moved to pity—where the mockingbird sings its sweetest song and the sweet scented rose unfurls its petals and sips the morning dew. Beautiful indeed must have been the thoughts of the immortal Payne when he wrote of the "home." Doubtless was his soul wrap in some fond recollection of childhood years when he gave to the world his beautiful song of "Home Sweet Home."

This, young readers, is but a faint picture of the one spot so dear to every heart. Love the home, cherish it, make it bright and happy always—and in riper years, when you shall sway the scepter, tarnish not its sacred realms with the foul breath of intemperance and its kindred vices.

In far off lands, in the camp, the saddle or amid the din of war, when a country's altar is washed with the blood of its heroes, when the wounded bleed and die, in the last moments does the mind wander back to the endearment of home, sweet home. Death's grapple even is not strong enough to sever the chord of memory that binds the heart to home and friends. The most noted one of his race was once moved to tears when in the far off city of Paris by a rehearsal of the "old plantation songs." "It is to me the sweetest music in all the world" was his exclamation. It was of home in the days of bondage but he touched the tender chord and in all his glory he could not check the heartfelt emotions that thrilled his soul. Could we, little readers, but live in the thoughts of childhood perhaps we might nearer approach the "little child" that only inherits the kingdom of the overlying "Home Sweet Home."

Yours, U. N.

Stable Burned.
Sunday night last the stable of Mr. Henry Wible, of St. Inigo's, was burned. A valuable colt, cow and calf and about two tons of hay were destroyed. It is supposed that the fire was started by someone sleeping in the stable. Mr. Wible is a brother of Mr. William M. Wible, of this town.

STORYTELLERS.

Yanked Far by Citizens of Espato.
Once upon a time Zach and Phil went to the woods to cut poles, carrying an old hound with them. While they worked the dog went to sleep on an old fallen tree. The noise they made in cutting disturbed a squirrel, which jumped on the tree where the dog was sleeping and ran down his throat. The squirrel made the dog sick and he threw him up, when he ran up a nearby tree and was shot by Zach.

Willie went out chestnut hunting, taking Czar, a setter dog, with him. They jumped a squirrel, which ran up a chestnut tree. "Will considered the best thing he could do was to go to the house, which was only a short distance, and get a gun. Just as he turned to go, the squirrel jumped directly in Czar's mouth, and Will carried it home, congratulating himself that he had saved a load of ammunition.

Len says his folks were disturbed the other night by an owl getting into the chicken house. The next morning when he made an examination he found a hen in the chicken house torn nearly to pieces and a partridge in the kitchen with its head partly eaten but not quite dead.

On Tuesday, a gentleman living in the Seventh district, whose friends call him Buck, had a sheep killed by a dog. He cut the animal up and sprinkled it with strychnine. Buck says the buzzards ate the sheep up and seemed to thrive on it. Wednesday he lost a goose. This he kept until night, when he cut it open and put in a good dose of poison. That night the dog ate that goose up, hardly leaving a feather. He tracked him several hundred yards, but could not find him. Friday he was awakened early in the morning by an old negro calling, "For Gawd's sake, boss, come out here, de hull farm is kivered with geeses!" He went out, and found that the dog had killed every goose he had—12. That night the same dog finished the only hen Alfred had. Buck says he will "set" a little of Leonardtown whiskey the next time instead of poison.

Three Doctors in Consultation.
From Benjamin Franklin.
"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place, what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e., Theory) says the best is to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthful condition. For sale by William F. Greenwell & Son, Leonardtown, and all country stores.

Costly Child's Quarrel.
Carrie Tippett, 1009 Harford Avenue, struck Carrie Lehmann, 163 Harford Avenue, several times with a cowhide, so the former told Judge Stockbridge, because Carrie Lehmann called her a St. Mary's county dog. They are both little girls. It cost Mr. and Mrs. Tippett $13.86 yesterday, as Judge Stockbridge imposed a fine of one dollar and costs upon Mrs. Tippett, who used some little force in separating the two children.—American.

Millinery.
Miss Ida Abell, one of Leonardtown's most popular milliners, has just received from Baltimore a second supply of Spring and Summer millinery such as Ladies' and Children's hats and trimming, Hamburg, Gimp and everything in the line of dress trimming. Also a beautiful assortment of Ladies' dress goods, Lawns, Percales, &c. In addition to this she also has a large assortment of Lace Window Curtains, ranging in price from 50 cents up. R. & G. Corsets a specialty.

Preaching.
There will be preaching at Marvin at 11 A. M., and at Bethel 7:30 P. M. Sunday, Oct. 23rd, by Rev. Chas. W. Moore. Everybody is welcome.

Hon. JOHN S. CUMMINGS will speak in Leonardtown on Thursday, October 27, 1898.

Advice to Consumptives

There are three great remedies that every person with weak lungs, or with consumption itself, should understand. These remedies will cure about every case in its first stages; and many of those more advanced. It is only the most advanced that are hopeless. Even these are wonderfully relieved and life itself greatly prolonged.

What are these remedies? Fresh air, proper food and Scott's Emulsion of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. Be afraid of draughts but not of fresh air. E. it nutritious food and drink plenty of milk. Do not forget that Scott's Emulsion is the oldest, the most thoroughly tested and the highest endorsed of all medicines for weak throats, weak lungs and consumption in all its stages.

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF PURE COD LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

Special to the Ladies.

F. O. Morgan, of Leonardtown, has just received another lot of Ladies and Misses made-to-order Oxford ties in black and tan. They are beautiful and very cheap considering quality.
