COURT PROCEEDINGS

Criminal Court of Record in Session This Week

A NUMBER OF CASES TRIED

Judge Carter Makes the Jurors Very Timely Address — Busy Term of Court — Cases Tried.

The Criminal Court of Record convened Monday morning with Judge H. B. Carter on the bench and all court officers present.

The following were sworn in as jurors for this term of the court: R. F. Howell, J. M. Ross, T. J. Lanier, J. W. Adams, J. H. McLeod, J. M. Hall, W. W. Vann, J. E. Thomas, J. H. Long, B. C. Carver, J. W. Wells and H. A. Bennett.

After the oath was administered to the jurors, Judge Carter took advantage of the opportunity and delivered a timely address to them on the duties and responsibilities of their position. He went over the ground very minutely as to causes that might be brought about to disqualify a juror, and told them of well made plans successfully used in some instances to prejudice or disqualify good men in order to defeat justice. The address was full of good counsel and advice throughout.

Among the most important cases disposed of were the following.

State vs. Will Parker, carrying concealed weapons, plea of guilty. fined $100 and costs or three months in jail.

State vs. Ed Bibbs, larceny of a cow, continued.

State vs. Edward Elliott, assault and battery, trial by jury, found guilty.

State vs. Sam and Janie Bryant, burning woods, trial by jury, verdict of not guilty.

State vs. Goff, arson, continued upon application of defendant with affidavit that two material witnesses could not be had at this term of court.

State vs. Owen Rushton, white, assault and an attempt to commit rape, trial by jury; found guilty with recommendation for mercy of the court.

State vs. London Graham, carrying concealed weapon, jury returned verdict of guilty.

State vs. G. H. Tillman, (negro) attempt bribery, with Judge John J. Maxwell, of Jacksonville, on the bench, was called yesterday morning. Judge Carter was disqualified in this case because of being a witness. Tillman had attempted by bribery to have sentence reduced that had been passed upon a negro woman by the Criminal Court of Record. He failed, of course, in his attempt at bribery, but succeeded in getting himself in serious trouble. At the time of going to press his case is being tried.

This has been a very busy term of court, but the work has been dispatched as fast as possible, and it is likely the docket will be closed today, prisoners sentenced, and court will adjourn.
