Appointment of Teachers by Board of Public Instruction.

Live Oak, Fla., June 21, 1909.

The School Board met in a call meeting for the purpose of assigning teachers to the schools. Present C. H. Brinson, W. H. Ogden and W. L. McInnis.

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

Ordered that whenever a school gave satisfactory evidence that they are over run and will furnish their own conveniences for such, the board will furnish an assistant for the time needed. Clayland gave such evidence and same was granted.

Ordered that public service be entirely cut out of Newburn school house until the end of the term of school.

Ordered that Miss Walla Howland be appointed the assistant in Clayland school.

Ordered that $5.00 be given to the Macedonia school for the purpose of building closets.

The following named teachers were assigned to schools:

A Prohibition Service.

Rev. Collins, Supt. Anti-Saloon League of Florida, will speak at the Advent Christian church next Sunday night. We trust the people of Live Oak will come out and hear this able defender of the homes and our rising manhood. Everybody cordially invited. Let us show our appreciation of our prohibition leaders of the State by hearing Rev. Collins of Jacksonville next Sunday night, June 27th.

A negro thief came near being lynched in Key West last week, but was rescued from the mob by a policeman, after receiving a severe beating.

Picnic at Ellaville.

Editor Democrat: Please announce in your paper that there will be a picnic here on Friday, July 2nd. Everybody is invited to come and bring something good to eat. That will be the day to meet your friends and loved ones from three counties—Madison, Hamilton and Suwannee. Be sure to meet them on that day.

ELLAVILLE CITIZEN.

Smallpox

in Indiana prevents my going north at this time, so I'll preach at the Southern Business College Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, as usual. Come right along.

F. A. COX.

Sheriff Rickerson received a telegram yesterday advising him of a "shooting scrape" at the new phosphate mines near Branford, and requesting him to come to Branford. At the time of going to press it is impossible to learn any of the particulars of the trouble.
