Frank W. Trafsham, the labor union position for representative in the Legislature from Duval county has withdrawn from the race and will give his support to the Democratic ticket.

The cotton warehouses for Live Oak have been secured and the city hall is practically secured. There will be the cotton addition to our growing private property and enterprises are complete.

The Tribune-Advocate have agreed to suspend the anti-pass provision in the new race law that has passed this be issued within the State. This will probably be the rule with all the roads. A free ride to the White Fair is not so bad after all.

Out in Texas the Republicans have nominated a Junior bar governor, but he'll never be able to divide the revenue sufficiently to let him in on the job. We are asked responsibility for this paragraph—Hon. Hoke had nothing to do with it.

The people of St. Augustine are aroused over the report that the Government is about to sell the reservation there, including the famous old Fort Marion which is the most picturesque historic of that city. The people will petition against the sale as it would mean the destruction of the Fort.

The surveyor on the Tallahassee Sun hit it just right in the last issue of that paper showing the cause of the present scarcity of labor in Florida. The group of newly "tracks" loafing in the shade "shooting craps" with an old white farmer in his field shooting to them to know if they don't want a job, goes right to the heart of the problem.

The adverse heavens threw cold water on Mr. Bryan's North Carolina program up at Raleigh yesterday and it rained so hard when he got there that the waiting multitude stayed indoors and he delivered his speech to an audience of only about four hundred people. But Mr. Bryan knows that North Carolina is solid for him, rain or no rain.

Tom Watson doesn't feel sufficient sent for his brains and bile through his New York Magazine and will start a weekly paper in Atlanta. Tom claims to be a Hoke Smith Democrat now, but if some of the national concessions in the next two years don't give him the prominence he thinks he's entitled to he'll reorganize himself into another party and work his stinger overtime during the whole campaign.
