Miss Sallie Anderson arrived in the city this morning and will assist Miss McClinton in the primary department of the Suwannee High School. Miss Anderson is a Kentucky girl, and is most highly recommended by Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, and it was on his recommendation that she was offered the position in the High School. There is no doubt that she will do splendid work and give perfect satisfaction to the patrons of the school. Superintendent Wood was exceedingly fortunate in securing her services.

Walter J. Bryson came up from Hildreth yesterday afternoon on a business visit. We understand that Walter has purchased the interest of all the other stock-holders in the Sante Fe Lumber Co., and is now conducting the business alone. Walter is a hustler and there is no doubt he will make a splendid success.

Miss May Brimm, who has been in the city for several days past, the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. L. Gardner, left yesterday afternoon for her home in Atlanta. Miss Brimm is an unusually attractive young lady and made a number of warm friends during her stay in Live Oak.

A. H. Lewin left this morning for Dunnellon and other points in South Florida. Arthur is a full-fledged "knight of the grip" now and can proclaim the fine points of his special brand of cigars with as much ease and convincing argument as the man who has been on the road all his life.

Chas. H. Brown leaves this afternoon for Savannah where he goes in the interest of the cotton warehouse for the Suwannee County Cotton Association. Mr. Brown will be away for a day or two and on his return, will probably be able to put the warehouse underway at once and have it ready for some of this season's crop.

Our good friend, J. M. Brown, of the Rocky Sink section, was in the city yesterday with his brother, J. H. Brown, and they made our office a pleasant call and thoroughly inspected our plant, with which they were very much pleased. We are always glad to have our friends call on us and it is a pleasure to us to show them over our establishment.

We learn that Mr. W. H. Bell has tendered his resignation as deputy United States Revenue Collector. His resignation is due to ill health. He has just returned from Lythia Springs, Ga., where he went in the interest of his health and we are glad to learn was considerably improved by the trip and is now on the road to recovery, but he deemed it wise to resign his position with the government because of the arduous duties the position imposed.

Miss M. V. Edwards has decided that instead of giving away one doll on the 24th of December, she will give two, thereby making the hearts of two little folks happy. The conditions of the second gift will be the same as those first announced except that four thousand numbered tickets will be distributed among her cash customers. These dolls are practically alike and are beauties, costing $15.00 each. Remember, each cash purchaser of twenty-five cents worth of goods receives a ticket, which is a chance at one of these beautiful dolls.

At the meeting of the City Council last night, called for the purpose of considering the water question, Mr. Dowling, the owner of the water works withdrew his request for a raise in water rates for the time being, and on motion a committee was appointed from the Council to confer with Mr. Dowling in reference to the purchase by the city of the water works. The committee appointed consisted of Chas. H. Brown, chairman, J. L. White and F. Ion Robertson. This was deemed by the Council, the only permanent and satisfactory solution of the water problem.

On account of the home coming of South Carolinians, the Seaboard Air Line railway will sell round trip ticket to Columbia, S. C., for one fare plus 25 cents for the round trip. Tickets will be on sale October 18th and 19th. Further information can be had by consulting Mr. Bussey, city ticket agent.

McAlpin Dots.

Please allow us space in your valued paper to write a few words.

We are having fine weather now and everybody seems to be very busy picking cotton. We hope to get a good price.

We are very sorry to report that Mr. W. E. Harrell, our agent here, has been very ill for the past week. We hope to see him up soon. We miss him very much as there is no one to attend to the office.

Mr. B. D. Harrell was home Sunday and spent a few hours. He returned to his work in DuPont, Ga., Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. C. Brock and two little children left on the fourth of this month for Whigham, Ga., where they will spend a month among relatives and friends. We wish them a pleasant time and a safe return.

We had quite a nice picnic at the close of our school two weeks ago. Plenty of free lemonade was to be had and a nice dinner.

Mr. J. C. Brock, one of our enterprising merchants, is paying good prices for cotton and chickens and eggs.

Mr. W. H. Starling is now ready for ginning cotton.

The McAlpin Lumber Company seems to be doing a good business now.
