Appealed To.

Atlanta, April 18.—Executive clemency has as yet been not taken by Governor Terrell in the case of Milton and Jesse Rawlings, two prisoners in the Lowndes county jail at Valdosta, who are to be hanged in Lowndes county for the murder of their father and two children, according to a statement made to the effect that the condemned men recommended them for commutation to life imprisonment was erroneous.

Now that the supreme court of the United States has denied their appeal and holds that they had a legal and constitutional trial, there is nothing left for the Rawlings boys but the prison or the gallows. The case of old man Rawlings on the ground that he is insane, it is said, relies somewhat upon the recent decision in the Haddock case. He would like to be hanged at once and have it over with.

Several letters have already been written to the governor in behalf of Milton and Jesse Rawlings, asking that their sentences be commuted to life imprisonment, but no formal request for executive clemency has yet been made. It is any of the three cases. These appeals are based largely on the ground that the men were compelled to do what they did by their father, who was the chief mover in the murder. The cases of the boys will no doubt be taken up in due time and with this end in view at an early date.

It will probably be some time before Milton and Jesse Rawlings cases is received from the supreme court of the United States, and the men cannot be resentenced to death until then. Meanwhile they will be safely housed in the Lowndes county jail.
