We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary copy of a business directory of Tucson and all the towns of southern Arizona. It gives a complete directory of all the other Southern Arizona towns, including occupation, places of residence, a list of public officers, secret societies and churches. All business men should have a copy of this directory.

The Prospector says that great excitement was created in Naco Friday afternoon by the discovery by a Mexican, who is digging post holes in the northern part of the town site, of what he supposed was water oozing from the surface, but on pointing it out to the parties for whom he was working, the phenomenon was pronounced petroluem. An oil well derrick was at once ordered from St. Davids.

Ed. Tuttle returned home from Ann Harbor, Mich., last Monday and will remain here until about September 1st. For two years past Mr Tuttle has been studying law at Ann Harbor and will complete his studies next year. Our old friend Bro. Telfer, was in the city from Thomas last Monday. He declares that the county seat will be moved this fall, but that it is going to Thomas That the hustlers of that burg will make an agreement with Clifton to give the east end a new county in return for their votes in moving the county seat. To say the least one is bound to admire Bro. Telfer's nerve.

NO JURY CASES.

Jail to Remain Crowded During Hot Weather.

Judge Doan has announced that no jury trials will be had until the October term of court. Why the Judge has so decided is hard to fathom. At the April term of court only two criminal cases were tried when small pox broke out among the prisoners and court was immediately adjourned until June. The appearance of small-pox was sufficient cause for an adjournment but now that all signs of the disease has disappeared we fail to see the reason for keeping a large number of prisoners cooped up in jail at a big expense to the county until fall.

It would be a great deal cheaper for the county to summon the jury and try the cases now than to feed thirty or forty prisoners until fall. Besides this we do not think it a wise move to keep a large number of prisoners huddled together in jail when they should either be hung, sent to the penitentiary or turned loose The number will increase from now until court convenes in the fall.

In Justice Court.

On Tuesday last David Angle was before Judge Hunter on a felony charge preferred by Mrs. Lassator for disposing of mortgaged property Before the trial began John McGowan, attorney for Mrs. Lassator, filed another similar complaint against Angle and the hearing of both was postponed until July 2nd.

On Wednesday Ben Echois, watermaster of the Layton Town Canal, swore out a complaint in Judge Hunter's court, charging Dick Clifford, one of the canal company's directors with stealing water The trial will come off July 5th.

Harry Clifford, watermaster of the Montezuma Canal entered complaint in Judge Hunter's court against Paul Beebe for stealing water. Paul paid a $10 fine.

Several lawyers of Safford seem to be quarreling among themselves and as a result Wiley E. Jones was in Judge Sparks' court last evening for having used very forcible, if not elegant, language concerning some other attorneys, in the presence of several persons not interested in the case.

Hit The Road.

A young man in Bisbee who has been paying attention to a young lady in the country, made his regular call at her home a few evenings ago. He was met at the door by the lady and escorted to the parlor. She then excused herself and the old man came in and said: "Young man, I have no objections to your visits here, and you may come as often as you like, but you will have to make your little bow and hit the road on this occasion as we are going to have a select party here to-night and no one is invited but two or three old women and a doctor."—Review.

ACT OF CRAZY PERSON.

Hires Horse and Buggy at Livery Stable and Skips For Parts Unknown.

HAS BEEN IN ASYLUM BEFORE.

Appearances Show That She Had No Definite Idea of Where She Was Going.

Last Saturday Lulu Cluff, of Pima, hired a horse and buggy at Madsen's livery stables to take a few hour's drive. When evening arrived and she did not return Mr Madsen became somewhat uneasy, but when she failed to return next morning, he was fully convinced that he was out a horse and buggy. Finally he learned who the lady was and proceeded to Thatcher and notified W. Moody, her brother in-law, with whom she had been stopping Returning to Safford he notified Deputy Sheriff Chas. Morris who, accompanied by John Madsen, started in pursuit of the runaway They left Safford Sunday morning and soon found that she had gone in the direction of Bowie They followed her up the San Simon about 1 miles, but as she had doubled on her track several times and had driven out in to the prairie a time or two almost the entire day was spent before they found which way she had gone. Finally the buggy track lead them back to a Mexican's house near the Solomonville depot. From here she took the Cienega road which she followed until reaching the Cienega when she left the road again and wandered aimlessly around for a mile or two, then she got onto the Grant road, which she followed several miles, but before reaching the pass she left the road again, in the middle of the night, drove over mesas, through deep washes, up canyons and around dangerous side hills, where it was almost impossible to follow her in the daytime

At 3 o'clock in the morning she reached Neese's ranch and watered her horse. Mrs. Neese wanted her to remain there until daylight, but she insisted that she must reach Grant by that time. The next time she was seen was near Bonita. There she made another excursion into the praire for about 10 miles, then took the road and drove to Hookers where she again watered the horse. She spent the balance of Sunday, Sunday night and Monday wandering aimlessly around, back and forth over the prairie and on the road, avoiding ranches and people as much as possible and reached Willcox Monday night. She drove around the town and went to a house about half a mile away where she was granted permission to stay all night and her horse was cared for

After supper she took a walk and the family waited for her until about 11 o'clock but she did return. Next morning she was found on the porch asleep.

Messrs. Morris and Madsen followed the trail faithfully and found her at the house above referred to Tuesday morning and arrived home with here early Wednesday morning.

She had traveled at least 150 mile without stopping except to water the horse twice and possibly for a few moments at one time to feed it a little. She had nothing to eat from Saturday until Monday night and she had driven over and through places that were extremely dangerous.

When arrested she said she was going to Tucson and then to Mexico as her people wanted to send her to the asylum. She was taken before Justice Sparks and he soon discovered her mental condition and turned her over to her relatives.

Miss Cluff's mind became unbalanced about two years ago and finally she was sent to the asylum from which institution she was released as cured a short time ago. She seemed to be rational enough when engaged in conversation, but her desire seems to be to go somewhere all the time. One of her delusions is that she believes several persons in Solomonville are determined to poison her.

Attention is called to J. R. Welker & Co's, big ad. It contains a list of goods selling at greatly reduced prices. Read it if you want to see some good bargains.

Magazines, novels, periodicals, blank books, pens, inks and a choice line of cheap and fancy stationery at Sparks'. tf

TOMESTONE MINES.

Immensity of New Machinery Being Installed.

Some idea of the magnitude of the Tombstone mines may be gleaned from the ponderous machinery that is now being installed says the Prospector. The first to arrive of any importance, is a steel gallows frame and hoist, manufactured especially for these mines by the American Bridge company of New York, and which i now being installed under contract by the manufacturers The gallows frame itself is 65 feet in height, capable of admitting of a three-decker cage commensurate only with the four compartment shaft which is 8x25 feet in the clear. When this hoist shall have been completed the work of installing a system of pumps will then been commenced and hurried to completion as rapidly as is consistent with thorough workmanship, which is a noticable feature of everything undertaken by the Consolidated Mines company, after which Tombstone will assume the appearance of a busy mining camp.

All of the machinery to be employed in this vast undertaking was constructed under special contract, its immensity auguring the confidence and knowledge possessed by the the management of the wealth that underlies the water level that it proposes to reach. The Prospector goes into details that all may be informed from a business standpoint, for it believes several months will yet elapse before the mines will be thoroughly equipped and in full running order, when it is thought many hundred men will be employed. The cumbersome machinery precludes the possibility of rushing matters, as may be evidenced from the fact that there are now at the railroad station two boilers weighing 45,000 pounds each, to transport which a specially designed wagon was manufactured in the east, upon which one boiler was recently loaded; yesterday when thirty-four head of horses were attached to the vehicle they succeeded in moving the great weight, wagon and all about 500 yards; consequently some time will be required in which to transport the machinery—which is arriving daily—from the railroad to the mines.

Meantime there are something over 100 men employed in and about the mine, and even with that small number, Contention hill presents a busy scene The smoke ascends skyward, the whistles blow and the "bucket brigade" goes to and fro, giving but a faint semblance of what Tombstone once was and what the camp will be within another six months or year.

PREDICTED HIS DEATH.

Railroad Man Was Killed at Naco.

R. L Wilson, aged 50 years, died last Thursday at Naco as the result of injuries received a few hours before while coupling cars at the Cananea railroad, a few miles below Naco.

The strangest part of the case is the desire of the dead man to prevent any of his relatives from learning of the accident. When the doctor began to treat his injuries, Wilson asked to be given something to relieve the pain, and after his death to be wrapped in a blanket and buried.

Though Wilson refused to tell where any of his relatives could be found, it is thought that some of them reside at Oakland, Calif. He was for a time in Bisbee, being employed on the railroad there.

When Wilson was injured he was coupling two cars near the stockyard below Naco. He fell and the wheels of one of the cars passed over his body. One leg was cut off just below the knee, and the other at the ankle. He was cut about the breast and injured internally.

After being injured Wilson seemed to care little whether or not he died. It was stated last night that he acted the same as he has while in this part of the country—utterly careless of what might happen.

Before death came the injured man suffered intense agony It is reported that he predicted the exact time of his death shortly after the accident happened.

After spending two months in a business college in Los Angeles, Warren Smith returned to his home in Thatcher last Friday.

Col. Wilson was in Safford last Saturday. He drove from here to Pima and then took the train to Globe. Mr. Wilson is out looking over the political field to ascertain the feelings of the people regarding his candidacy for delegate to congress.

PREACHERS ASSAULTED.

Fired at From Ambush in Kentucky and One man Wounded

A Paducah, Ky., dispatch of June 20, says: Nine shots were fired into a Mormon meeting in Graves county last night, and Hardy Lamb received a wound in the knee and a woman worshipper was badly powder burned. The shots were fired from ambush.

John Hamilton and Claude Calson, Mormon leaders, had their guns with them and returned the fire, but without effect.

A year ago Davis Chapel stood upon the scene of last night's trouble and the Mormons held meetings in it until their enemies burned the building. The Mormons have made twelve or fifteen converts in Marshall county in the last few months, and they say they will continue to hold meetings. More bloodshed is threatened.

Special Meeting of Common Council.

Meeting of Common Council held in the house of John Evans, June 12th, 1902.

Mayor Tuttle presiding. Councilmen present, D. W. Wickersham, Geo A. Olney and H. M. Jeter, also Marshal Ed Barry and Street Supervisor S S. Gish.

Mr. Olney, a member of the committee appointed to ascertain the cost of obtaining water for sprinkling the streets, reported he was unable to give any definite cost, but that Mr. Prina thought he could furnish water from the ice plant at $30 per month.

The clerk receiving a proposal for sprinkling the streets, from Mr. Tom Wansiee, the same was read and after Council having considered said proposal, it was rejected on the grounds of being too high

Mr John E. Golding appearing before the Council made a bid for sprinkling the streets and after some discussion, it was upon motion ordered that the Council enter into contract with J. E. Golding for sprinkling the streets of Safford at $2 per day of 10 hours.

Making of contract to be contingent on making a satisfactory arrangement for obtaining sufficient water.

A vote being taken Councilmen Olney, Wickersham and Mayor Tuttle voted aye, Councilman Jeter, nay.

The clerk was hereby ordered to draw a warrant on the Treasurer at the beginning of each month for rent on Foresters Hall or when a bill was presented for the same.

On motion meeting adjourned sine die.

JOHN EVANS, Clerk.

Monte Carlo Near Naco.

Influence is now being brought to bear on Governor Ysabel of Sonora," said a Naco visitor recently, "that if successful will result in a concession for a Monte Carlo across the border from Naco.

"The concession if granted will probably include a privilege to hold prize fights in the bull ring. This will mean that many of the big fighters will in future come to Naco to decide the question of which is the best man.

"Am not at liberty to tell who is behind the scheme, but they have plenty of money and will erect a large gambling house that will be fitted up like the palace of a King They will spend nearly $100,000 in one way and another.

"Besides the main building in which the gambling is carried on, there will be a large hotel for the accommodation to visitors who come from a distance and have the money to pay for luxury.

"The present plan is to begin operations during the latter part of the year. It will take some time to get the necessary buildings ready, and I hardly expect that the gambling halls could be got ready for visitors before March of 1903.

"Those who are after the concessions claim that they already have good reason to believe that the governor of Sonora has taken their proposition under serious consideration, and may act favorably."—Bisbee Review.

Apaches Must Eat.

The war department has transmitted to the interior department information that trouble is threatened among the Apache Indians on the San Carlos reservation in Arizona, on account of the proposed shutting off of beef and other rations after July 1 next. The action of the war department is based on reports received from Gen. Funston, commanding the department of the Colorado, who predicts that, in case that rations are discontinued the Indians will take beef and other supplies wherever they can get them, regardless of consequences.

The secretary of the interior has telegraphed to agent Carson of the San Carlos agency to make a full report on the matter and directed that the issue of rations to the Indians be not stopped on the 30th inst., as planned, but be continued until further directions are given by the interior department.
