CALL FOR SENATORIAL CONVENTION.

The Nomination to Be Held at Fort Pierce, August 8th, Next.

At a regular meeting of the Senatorial Democratic committee of the 13th senatorial district of Florida, held pursuant to notice, at West Palm Beach, on this 28th day of April, 1900, at which a quorum of said committee was present, the following proceedings were had:

On motion it was ordered that a senatorial convention, in and for the 13th senatorial district of Florida, be held at Fort Pierce, in Brevard county, Florida, at 2 o'clock p.m., on Wednesday, the 8th day of August, next, for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for senator of said district and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the convention.

On motion it was further ordered that the vote cast in the various precincts throughout the district for the Democratic candidate for congress in the last general election, be made the basis of representation in said convention and that each precinct be entitled to one delegate for each ten votes, or a fraction over five, so cast at the last general election, and that all new precincts be entitled to one vote, and that on said basis the various precincts in said districts be entitled to delegates as follows:

On motion it is ordered that the various precinct primaries held, or to be held, to elect delegates to the above convention, be ordered and conducted by the same precinct officers and by the same methods as the county primaries in said districts are held, and on such dates and between such hours as said precinct officers shall or shall have directed.

On motion the committee adjourned sine die. FREDK. S. MOISE, Secretary.

The ancients believed that rheumatism was the work of a demon within a man. Anyone who has had an attack of sciatic or inflammatory rheumatism will agree that the infliction is demoniac enough to warrant the belief. It has never been claimed that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast out demons, but it will cure rheumatism, and hundreds bear testimony to the truth of this statement. One application relieves the pain, and this quick relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by B. R. Wilson & Son.

Marriage at Indianola.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Sanders, Indianola, Fla., on Sunday evening, April 29th, 1900, at 8 o'clock, Mr. J. R. Harper and Miss Nannie E. Harper were married by Mr. Thos. H. Sanders, justice of the peace.

The wedding was a very quiet one, only the immediate friends of the family being present. The bride looked charming in a dress of pure white, while the groom wore a suit of light linen. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Harper, of Courtenay. The groom is a native of Georgia, but for many years has been a resident of Indian river, where he has won many friends by his gentlemanly bearing and sterling qualities.

After congratulating the happy pair music was indulged in until a late hour, when the happy couple departed amid a shower of rice for the home of the bride's parents, where they will remain a few days ere leaving for their future home at Oak Hill. Their many friends wish them a long life of happiness and prosperity.

Through Congressman Sparkman's efforts, Tampa and that section of the state will be given weather reports on Sundays and legal holidays, hereafter. For several winters past cold waves have seemed to select Sundays and holidays for their visitations, and the truck growers have been left to guess, as the weather bureaus were closed.

Jacksonville Metropolis: The Georgia Medical association recommends a state board of health for that state. They are good things to have on hand, and we are glad to observe the physicians of Georgia have finally caught on to Florida ways. One state board of health is worth two federal marine hospital services.

Flopped Over In Politics.

Editor of The Florida Star:

We were a high tariffite when it protected the working man and farmer, but now it protects the abominable trusts instead, we have flopped over and think congress should turn its attention to the abolition of the tariff on all trust commodities, which is of far more importance to the middle and poorer classes than all the tomfoolery about a bunch of barbarians in the Philippines, and our other wards, which can be attended to afterwards.

If a keen Democrat would frame and rigorously champion a bill to even scale down the monstrosity it would come near being passed, and if not would give the Republicans a record that would cause their defeat in the next election and give us a Democratic house, as the farming districts, at least, have got a stomachful of high tariff and demand a change. The old maxim "lookout for number one" first should be the duty of congress as well as individuals.

Shading Pineapples.

From London Garden.

Shading pineapples is often carried to excess. Doubtless a slight covering or thin tiffany or frigi-domo is beneficial in light, airy houses and pits, but it should only be given during the hottest hours of the day, say from 11 a. m. till 3 p. m. When the blinds are lowered immediately after breakfast and not rolled up till late in the afternoon, the plants may grow vigorously enough, but they will lack that bronzy appearance and maturity which alone qualify them for early fruiting. When not started early, but allowed to come on gradually, liberal shading is not so harmful, although in every case the thinnest material applied on the give and take principle is best for pines. Roller blinds, though more expensive, are preferable to a permanent coating of whitening, as they can be lowered and raised at will. When improperly ripened plants are started early they frequently make a second growth instead of throwing up fruit.

Mr. S. C. Gates, of Manatee county, on a half acre of celery raised by him this year, has already made a net profit of $425, and still has a small shipment out that he has not heard from. Mr. Gates states that his crop was 210 crates, averaging over $2 per crate. At this rate one acre would have been worth about $900. Last year from a part of the same piece of land the average was estimated to be about $1,600 per acre.

A negro named Quarterman Green, employed by the Florida Brewing company, at Fort Brooke, is the owner of a seven-months-old pup having five legs. The extra member is fully developed, and just out from the fore-leg at the first joint. When the dog walks, both feet strike the ground together. The negro declines to sell, as he declares it will bring him bad luck if he does.

Captain Johnson, of Kissimmee, who took Captain Reece, of the United States engineering corps, from Kissimmee through to Fort Myers on the steamer Roseada, reports that the waterway was all that could be desired, and that the captain was much pleased with the trip, and that as soon as the water permits, the survey will be made.

NO USE TRYING

I can't take plain cod-liver oil. Doctor says, try it. He might as well tell me to melt lard or butter and try to take them. It is too rich and will upset the stomach. But you can take milk or cream, so you can take

Scott's Emulsion

It is like cream; but will feed and nourish when cream will not. Babies and children will thrive and grow fat on it when their ordinary food does not nourish them.

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day when taking an ounce of Scott's Emulsion. It gets the digestive machinery in working order so that the ordinary food is properly digested and assimilated.

Many a schoolgirl is said to be lazy and shiftless when she doesn't deserve the least bit of it. She can't study, easily falls asleep, is nervous and tired all the time. And what can you expect? Her brain is being fed with impure blood and her whole system is suffering from poisoning.

Such girls are wonderfully helped and greatly changed, by taking

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Hundreds of thousands of schoolgirls have taken it during the past 50 years. Many of these girls now have homes of their own. They remember what cured them, and now they give the same medicine to their own children. You can afford to trust a Sarsaparilla that has been tested for half a century.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

If your bowels are constipated take Ayer's Pills. You can't have good health unless you have daily action of the bowels. 25 cts. a box.

FERTILIZER SUITS.

Little Brothers Bring Suit Against Thirty-five Farmers in Dade County.

Miami News.

A case of widespread interest was held before Judge Minor S. Jones, at Titusville, on Monday last. It appears that about thirty-five truckers in the vicinities of Ojus, Fulford and Fort Lauderdale have refused to pay the notes which they gave last fall for fertilizers purchased from the Little Bros. Fertilizer company, on the ground that the fertilizer contained a free acid which was injurious to plant life and that their crops suffered thereby. These notes were secured by mortgages on the lands and crops of the truckers, and there was an agreement to the effect that the Little Bros. were to become the agents to handle and dispose of the crops, until sufficient had been sold to clear off the indebtedness.

Little Bros. brought suit on the notes and mortgages, and asked for a receiver to take charge of and sell the crops of these farmers. The judge granted the petition for a receiver, but refused to take the crops out of the farmer's hands as provided in the mortgages, and made a temporary order allowing the farmers to cultivate, sell and ship their crops, the receiver to pay them cash down for their labor, and what money the receiver has left after disposing of the crops, may be bonded out of court to abide the final result of the suit.

The truckers were represented by Judge W. R. Anno, and Little Bros. by Judge H. F. Atkinson.

I consider it not only a pleasure but a duty I owe to my neighbors to tell about the wonderful cure effected in my case by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I was taken very badly with flux and procured a bottle of this remedy. A few doses of it effected a permanent cure. I take pleasure in recommending it to others suffering from that dreadful disease.—J. W. Lynch, Dorr, W. Va. This remedy is sold by B. R. Wilson & Son.
