WASHINGTON LETTER.

(Regular Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 13, 1900.

Russia dickered with China independently: England landing troops at Shanghai, where there had been no serious trouble; Germany naming the Commander-in-Chief of the foreign troops in China, and the government of China trying to trick the foreign ministers at Pekin, including the American Minister, into going out of Pekin to be killed by Chinese soldiers. These are a few of the important items of news which have come to Washington during the last few days, and have had to be handled by the subordinates in charge during the continued absence of Mr. McKinley and Secretary Hay. One message was sent to Minister Conger that was made public, and one that was not. The first left him free to act in his discretion, which leaves the administration free to make an official scrapoog of him if he should be so unfortunate as to make a mistake. That is also the sort of order that General Chaffee, who is in command of the handful of Americans who are with the so-called allied army, which has fought its way about one-fourth of the distance between Tien Tsin and Pekin, is acting under. They are so convenient you know. If everything goes right, they can be claimed as implying the perfect confidence felt by this government etc., while if anything goes wrong it can be charged to lack of judgment or brains on the part of the agent.

Every disinterested man who goes into any portion of the Middle West reports the existence of conditions which are calculated to increase the confidence of Democrats in the election of Bryan and Stevenson. Mr. J. H. Ralston, a well-known Washington lawyer, has just returned from a visit to Quincy, Ill., his old home. Speaking of his trip he said: "I did not go West to observe political conditions, but in the course of my journey I had numerous opportunities to learn how things were going. At Quincy I had many intimate friends, and I talked politics with a large number of them without indicating which side I was disposed to favor. The character of my information was very favorable to the Democrats. I can give you two instances which I know to be reliable. They are of men who used to practice law with me in Quincy. One of them is Capt. Michael Piggot, an Irishman of much more than local fame, who was postmaster of Quincy for eight years, and four years ago an enthusiastic supporter of Mr. McKinley and the republican ticket. This year he is squarely for Mr. Bryan. He is a man of influence in those parts and highly respected. The other man I have in mind is W. A. Richardson, the son of a former U. S. Senator, an ex-Member of the Legislature. In 1896 he was a gold democrat and wrote many articles supporting Mr. McKinley. Now he is advocating Mr. Bryan's election. There are many Germans in that vicinity, and the German vote this year will be with the democrats. The German farmers are against the administration of Mr. McKinley and will not support him again. I took some pains to secure accurate information on that point."

Naval Constructor Hobson, of Merrimac and kissing fame, is not in favor with the powers that be. He is now in the Naval Hospital at Yokohama, under treatment for his eyes. He asked to be given a command in the Marines in order that he might take part in the Chinese invasion, but Rear Admiral Remy reported against such a detail for him, and added that if Hobson was well enough to resume active duty he could find it at Hong Kong or Manila, where the services of Naval Constructors are in demand to supervise repair work. Hobson's friends say that if he isn't given the Chinese detail he should be ordered home for the rest to which he is entitled, and as he will not get the Chinese detail he will probably come home soon.

Mr. J. T. Bailey, who is a drummer with headquarters at Little Rock, Ark., is visiting Washington friends. He said of the political attitude of the drummers: "The drummers realize that their only hope is in the election of the democratic ticket. The democrats are pledged to enact legislation to control trusts, and unless something is soon done to correct the evils of trusts it will be but a very little while before the drummer will find his occupation gone. The drummers see the drift of the republican party, which is controlled by the trusts, and therefore it is to our interests to do all we can to insure the election of Bryan and Stevenson. I have failed to meet many a man who believes in changing the Republic into an Empire, as the republicans seem bent on doing. I have recently met a number of gold democrats who supported McKinley in 1896, and they told me they were for Bryan and would work day and night to secure his election, because he represents the people in this fight against imperialism. It is my opinion, based on what I know of the situation, that Mr. Bryan will sweep the country as Mr. Cleveland did in 1892."

CAMALIE CONFIDENT.

Says That, if Nominated, He Can Be Elected.
From the Hyattsville Independent.
In less than four weeks from today the Congressional campaign in the fifth district will have been opened in earnest. On September 5th, at Chesapeake Beach, the Democratic Convention will meet, and nominate a candidate for Congress to oppose Hon. Sydney E. Mudd, who has already been named by the Republicans. The name of Hon. B. Harris Camalier, of St. Mary's county, has been prominently mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination, and recently a representative of The Independent obtained an interview with Mr. Camalier, the result of which gives the first authentic information as to his intentions in the premises. Being asked if he was seeking the nomination for Congress in this district, Mr. Camalier, without any hesitation, replied: "I am certainly and surely a candidate, and have every assurance of the nomination. I would not ask my party for the nomination, if I did not believe that I could be elected. If so honored, you can say that it will not be my fault if I do not redeem the old district." Questioned upon what he based his sanguine remarks, he said: "I carried my county last fall by 486 majority for the office of State's Attorney, and if I am the standard-bearer for Congress this fall, I am fully and thoroughly convinced that my majority will be greater. Take the Democratic vote of the district last fall and add to it my majority in St. Mary's county and you will find that I can go into the fight with 103 majority in the Congressional district. I have an abiding faith in the intelligence, patriotism and honesty of the people of the District, and into their hands I am willing and anxious to be placed."

The Independent man has lately talked with many people of St. Mary's county, and finds that both white and colored are very enthusiastic over Mr. Camalier's name for Congress.

SKETCH OF ASPIRANT.
Mr. B. Harris Camalier is at present State's Attorney for St. Mary's county. At the age of 13 years he was deputy clerk of the Circuit Court for St. Mary's under his father, the late John A. Camalier, and served in that capacity for several years. He was economically inclined and saved sufficient of his earnings to permit him to enter Georgetown University, where he was educated, and afterwards, in 1884, received the degree of A. M. from that institution. He has always had a great love for his alma mater. He graduated at law in 1874, and has successfully practiced in Leonardtown, county seat of St. Mary's, ever since. He has often been heard in the Court of Appeals of Maryland, and in the case of Thomas vs. Ford, a case of great interest and one much cited throughout the State, took a prominent part and was highly complimented by Judge Alvey, then Chief Justice. Mr. Camalier has always been close to the people, and in every campaign since his manhood, was on the stump in the thickest of the fight.

his political career.
In 1861 he was elected State's Attorney in his native county leading his ticket, and in 1865 was the candidate for reelection and although running considerably ahead of his ticket, was defeated. In 1868 he was the Democratic candidate for Elector of this District, and in 1869 was again the Democratic candidate for State's Attorney and was elected by a large majority.

He has been prominently put forward for the Congressional nomination from from this district for sometime, and two years ago when Mr. Cummings was nominated at Laurel, the speech of Mr. Camalier (after the nomination) created a decidedly favorable impression, and it is stated stamped him as the next Democratic nominee.

How to Pack Eggs for Long Keeping.
The yolk of the egg spoils much quicker than the white. For this reason it is important that the yolk should be surrounded with a layer of the white. If the egg is placed on the side or large end the heavy yolk will settle to the bottom and come in contact with the shell, which admits the air. If it is placed on the small end it will always have a layer of white between it and the shell. Eggs absorb odors easily, therefore only odorless materials should be used when packing them.—Angus Ladies' Home Journal.

IN MEMORIAM.
Died, Aug. 7, 1900, at 4 o'clock, A. M. after a short illness, HARRY D., aged 8 months, the beloved son of Thos. O. and Elizabeth Mattingly.
"Suffer little children to come unto Me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."
These are comforting words of our dear Lord and Saviour, and yet how we struggle and chafe when He in His beautiful wisdom and mercy calls one of our little flock. It does seem hard that God sends us a little spirit which entwines its little self around our hearts, and we learn to love it as our very life, and then in some unguarded moment the Angel of Death comes and bears away the household flower whose perfume has made fragrant the lives of its fond parents. Grieve not, fond parents, for this little soul, and picture to yourselves this vision: A little babe entering upon the life immortal with the light of heaven shining down upon the beautiful face and angelic wings fanning the curling locks of the new born soul takes its flight towards its celestial home. The little eyes are open wide in wonder at the beautiful things, while the soul thrills with delight at the sound of sweet music, and when the stricken mother shall have reached the end of her earthly pilgrimage, soft little hands will reach down and help her over the dark river, and her first view of heaven will be the bright little face that she loved so well, made glorious in the light of a Saviour's love.
A FRIEND.

Died, in the village of Chaptico July 25, 1900, CATHARINE, only child of Aloysius C. and Rosa A. Welch, aged 1 year and 19 days.
God giveth and God taketh away.
Only a little sunbeam.
Thrown across life's way.
A little golden sunbeam.
That was not lent to stay.
A mother's heart grew bright.
A home was filled with love.
Then angels called the little one.
To live with them above.
A shadow fell across that home.
Where all had been so bright.
But baby dwells in glory.
And sees no dark, no night.
Now, broken hearted mother,
There's comfort yet for you;
Your little one awaits you.
An angel pure and true.

And time may soothe the wound
That never heals.
Some day you'll understand.
When all shall be revealed.

Office of the Locust Point Tobacco Inspection, 211 S. Charles St., Baltimore, August 13, 1900.

To Our Patrons in Southern Maryland.—Because of false impressions created by the circulation of statements implying a doubt as to the continuance of the present rates of charges with free storage of Maryland tobacco at our warehouse, we find it necessary to again call attention to our publications in the Southern Maryland papers during the past few months and to repeat the assurance therein made, which we are prepared to verify in every particular.

As some of our friends desiring to ship their tobacco to our warehouse, seem still to have misgivings in this regard, we will feel greatly obliged for information which will enable us to get the names of any responsible persons who circulate these erroneous statements. We also learn that information is being circulated to the effect that the buyers of tobacco for more for tobacco inspected at the State Warehouses than for that inspected at our warehouse. We need scarcely say that this is not true, and will feel further obliged for information which will enable us to identify persons making these mis-statements.
