THIS PAPER may be found on file at Geo. P. Rowell & Co's Newspaper Advertising Bureau (10 Spruce St.), where advertising contracts may be made for it IN NEW YORK.

The new cruisers are to be finished by the government in Mr. Roach's shipyard, and when they are done Mr. Roach is to be paid for the use of his materials. It is not promised that the complexion of the ships in this way will increase their speed. Perhaps "structural weakness" may be avoided, but it is difficult to see how.

THE cold, calculating greed shown by the people of New York on the occasion of Gen. Grant's funeral will not soon be forgotten. There appears to have been a general desire to make the most of the day, as a speculative event not likely soon to recur, and calculations of the amount spent in the metropolis by those who went there vary, the lowest estimated sum being 4,000,000, the highest $8,000,000. Of course, it was not to be expected that New York would entertain people free, but common decency might have prevented the New Yorkers from bragging about their gains.

A JUDICAL decision, fixing the legal status of a nation as thieves, has just been rendered by a court in New York. A French steamship brought over a number of gypsies, and when the authorities forbade their landing, went into court with the purpose of coercing the Castle Garden officials. The decision of the Judge sustained the Castle Garden authorities and definitely laid down the precedent that gypsies are thieves and swindlers by profession, and so can not be admitted to the country. It is probably the first case in our history where a Judge has felt compelled to declare that personal characteristics have become the characteristics of a people to such an extent as to forbid their sharing the benefits of our country.

TELEGRAPHIC

Glad to Get Rid of Her.

KANSAS CITY, Aug., 13.

A recent telegram from Santa Fe stated that Mrs. F. H. Brigham, wife of the Superintendent of the Capitol building, during the absence of her husband from the city, left her only child with a negro washwoman, and with her husband's money and jewelry eloped Wednesday with J. H. Manderville, who for three years past has been tutor to the children of Gen. I. P. Bradley, commander of Fort Marcey. The telegram stated that the couple had come to this city. To-night a reporter here found the couple, or at least Manderville and a woman registered as his wife, at a second-class hotel. Manderville denied that the woman was Mrs. Brigham, but admitted that it was a woman he had picked up on the road. He said further that he did not elope with Mrs. Brigham, but merely happened to journey with her to Kansas City, and that she had gone on East. It is generally believed, however, that the woman at the hotel was Mrs Brigham. Her husband refuses to follow her and says he will take no further interest in the matter.

The Imprisoned Postmaster

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13,

The Post Office Department is now able to explain how it was that F. R. Dutton was appointed Postmaster at Center Lincolnville, Maine, while he was serving sentence in jail for having in that very office increased his salary by falsifying his reports of the number of stamps cancelled. In April last the Postmaster resigned in favor of Dutton, who was the assistant. Immediately a petition for Dutton's appointment was signed by the citizens and forwarded here, Dutton being in charge of the office. Before the case was reached, Dutton's cupidity had got him into trouble, but his papers were still on file and in good shape, and the appointment was made, the First Assistant being ignorant of Dutton's fraud. Dutton admits that he checked up a little in his reports of stamps cancelled but maintains that it was not a crime that should injure his standing.

Made Away With

VINITA Aug., 13.

Additional facts regarding Frank Meyers, the Oswego horse thief, of whom mention was made like Saturday's Globe Democrat, have been ascertained. There is now no doubt but that he was taken from jail and murdered and his body thrown into the river, in order to establish an apparent case of suicide. It was simply an impossibility for the prisoner to have escaped without assistance, and the popular theory is that he was forcibly taken from the jail by some party or parties who were fearful lest he should betray them in some nefarious scheme. At last accounts an inquest was being held on the body of the victim, but had not then reached a verdict. The jailer who has been discharged, is placed in a serious position, and the public are with much interest awaiting his explanation of the mysterious affair. Myers, the alleged horsethief, was until recently an attache of a circus, and when discharged by them the company was said to be indebted to him in quite a sum of money. Upon request ing a settlement with his employers, they repudiated the debt and as Meyers alleged, refused to pay him a cent. As a last resort, to collect what was claimed to be due him Meyers drove off a team of mules belonging to the company, but was promptly arrested and jailed at Oswego. His trial was set for some time this month, and the general opinion is that he would have been acquitted had he not broken jail, as previously reported. The whole affair will be thoroughly investigated and some startling developments are anticipated.

Not so Bad as First Reported.

DENVER, Aug., 13.

W. F. White, General Passenger Agent of the Santa Fe Railway, telegraphs here that the report of the burning of the Montezuma Hotel, at Hot Springs last night, was greatly exaggerated. There was no loss of life, and guests of the hotel are comfortably provided for at the company's other hotel at the springs, and in cottages. The hotel was only partially destroyed, nearly all the furniture was saved.

Mr. Hamblein, who represents the Santa Fe Company here in Denver, says the work of rebuilding will commence at once. In the meantime, persons who intend making Hot Springs a visit will be provided for at the other hotel.

The Montezuma was first destroyed by fire in January, 1884, and the hotel which burned last night was only opened in April last.
