Eighth Grade Examination.—I will hold eighth grade examination, in the principal's room, Burns public school building, Sept., 27 and 28 Any one desiring to take the fall examination is requested to be present.
M. E. RIGBY,
School Superintendent.

Here is one on the Alberta country. In talking to some emigrants, yesterday, who were headed in that direction, we learned that their friends wrote them that potatoes were taken from the vines as large as hen eggs within three weeks after they were planted. This is not a fish story, but a potato story, though it sounds fishy. "We're from Missouri."

First National Bank of Burns
UNITED STATES DEPOSITARY

R. R Surveyor Miller and his force are now located in town for the winter. They will do preliminary work in this section until spring. Mr. Miller will have his office at the Thornton Williams building.

Adam George will take no more orders for trees of any kind for fall delivery after Oct. 5. Those who desire trees are requested to drop a card to Mr. George at Burns, care of the Times-Herald. Orders for one tree will be as cheerfully looked after as 100 so long as the purchaser will look after it and make an effort to build up the country.

Frank Dibble was in town the first of the week.

You have to almost stand in line to get your papers at the Land office these days.

If you want to sell your ranch or farm see Archie McGowan the land man at once.

The same old story. There's not enough houses to rent again this school year.

Dr. W. C. Brown, Dentist. Office in the new stone building north of the Post Office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shirk left for Klamath Falls Saturday on a combined business and pleasure trip.—Lakeview Examiner.

City Attorney Dalton Biggs is home from Harney county, where he has been the past two weeks on legal business.—Ontario Argus.

From reports this section is now harvesting the most bounteous crop yet, both hay and grain. Some saying they cut more hay this season than sometimes in two heretofore

The Girls Band takes this means of extended their thanks and appreciation to the good people of Burns who contributed toward the fund to buy the new instruments just received.

Mrs. John B. Daly has returned from the coast where she spent the summer. Her sister, Miss Robertson accompanied her and will be her guest for some time.—Boise Capital News.

Thos. Bain of Harney has gone with his two sons to Weston where the boys will attend school this winter. A representative of The Times-Herald met them at Austin on their way out.

The many friends of Mrs. Thos Jones will be sorry to learn that the lady has been quite ill at her home in Boise suffering from typhoid fever. She is improving, however, and will soon regain her usual health.

The fast horses are arriving and the interest shown would indicate a good display of speed for the fair. Now, we want the farmer and stock grower to be up and doing. Bring in something of every thing you have and bring all your children.

An aged man by the name of Wilklow was kicked in the groin by a mule at the Island Ranch Wednesday evening and was brought to town immediately for medical aid, but died Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. The remains were interred Friday in the Burns cemetery.

The bond of W. H Shirk and S. O. Cressler in the Whittemore estate for $1,140,000.00 has been approved by Judge Raker, in Modoc Co. Cal., and the Executors will now take charge of the estate. This is about 5 times the largest bond ever given in that county.—Lakeview Examiner.

Word has been received here that Effie Muller, of near Drewsey, was quite severely hurt while assisting her father in the hay field. August Muller came in today with his daughter, Miss Emma, and informs The Times-Herald that Effie Muller died yesterday morning from the effects of the hurt she received. Deceased was the daughter of Wesley Muller.

The merchants of Harney county have perfected an organization, to be known as the Merchants Protective Association, and will co-operate with other similar organizations in Eastern Oregon to protect themselves against the wholesale houses selling cheaper in one locality than in another. Also against peddlers and agents for department stores It seems that the wholesalers in Portland think the merchants of Eastern Oregon "are easy" and they jumble prices considerably.

The Times Herald is under many obligations to the Blue Mt. Rapid Transit Co. for courtesies extended its representative upon a recent trip over the line to Austin. Mr. Metschan certainly conducts the best stage line into the interior, and his boys are accommodating. We shall certaincy reccomend this route to all travelers.

The Parting of the Ways

Summer lingers on and Fall waiting in the distance bids her begone! And in the store the new fall styles will soon be frowning upon the summer stuffs as if they were occupying their places too long. We too feel heartily in accord with the new goods idea and have priced every article of summer merchandise so low that it is fairly in disgrace. However, you'll find among them many attractive exhibits and the values are so great that we are sure you'll help them to leave a place where they are no longer welcome.

If its a bargain you are seeking be sure and call, and in your mail orders--they will receive our best attention.
