JULIAN BYRD — — — — Manager

The East Oregonian is delighted to hear such favorable expressions on the state jute mill from all quarters of the state—from press, people, legislators and business interests—and it now seems as though the plant is assured.

This jute plant will perhaps serve more interests in Oregon than any other industry which could be established at the penitentiary. The stove foundry has been fairly successful, but it was operated by a trust. The convict road making crusade has been successful, but it will of necessity be confined to a narrow locality around Salem.

But the state jute mill will supply the wheat farmer, the hop farmer, the woolgrower—three of the leading and vital industries in the state. At least three fourths of the members of the legislature are directly interested in one of these three great industries, and the only opposition which would be encountered would come from the jute manufacturing trust, the big warehouses which handle the grain and wool sacks and hop cloth and from the trusts which desire to secure the labor of the convicts for some other line of industry.

The meeting of legislators and farmers to be held in Pendleton in the near future for the purpose of going to Walla Walla to investigate the Washington jute plant at the state penitentiary should be well attended. Eveay farmer and woolgrower in Umatilla county and in eastern Oregon is vitally interested in having this jute plant established at Salem. It means the saving of dollars and cents at wheat harvest and wool-shearing time. The legislators should be encouraged, should be advised with and given the assurance that the people desire relief from the jute trust which has exacted double price for grain and wool sacks this season.

This movement is for the benefit of all Oregon. It is as wide as the state. The legislature can unite upon it with equal zeal from every county.—East Oregonian.

Mary had a little lamb, its fleece was white as snow; it strayed away one summer day where lambs should never go. Then Mary sat down, and tears streamed slowly from her eyes; she never found the lamb because she did not advertise. And Mary had a brother John, who kept a village store; he sat and smoked his pipe and watched the open door. And as the people passed along and did not stop to buy, John still sat down and smoked his pipe and winked his sleepy eye. And so the brokers seized his stock, but still he lingered near, and Mary came to drop with him a sympathetic tear. "How is it, sister, can you tell why other shopmen sell all their goods so quickly and thrive year to year?" Remembering her own bad luck, the little maid replied: "These other fellows fatten John, because they advertise."

Hood River, Rogue River, Willamette Valley, Grand Ronde Harney Valley and many other places in Oregon produce the finest apples. One district need not "shoulder" the fruit of another. There is wide room for all apples in Oregon and no room for rivals. The outside market wants all the apples Oregon can produce. As one of the Santiago heroes said, there is glory enough for all.—Oregonian.

The Times-Herald, the Republic and Weekly Oregonian one year for $3.00 if paid this month.

DO IT NOW.

Every Heart-Ache

Every pain in the breast, difficult breathing, palpitation, fluttering or dizzy spell means that your heart is straining itself in its effort to keep in motion. This is dangerous.

Some sudden strain from over-exertion or excitement will completely exhaust the nerves, or rupture the walls or arteries of the heart, and it will stop.

Relieve this terrible strain at once with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. It invigorates and strengthens the heart nerves and muscles, stimulates the heart action, and relieves the pain and misery.

Take no chances; make your heart strong and vigorous with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

"I suffered terribly with heart disease. I have been treated by different physicians for my trouble without results. I went to a physician in Memphis, who claimed that I had dropsy of the heart. He put the X-ray on me, and in connection with his medicine he came near making a finish of me. Some time before this a Mr. Young, of St. Louis, was in our town. He saw my condition, and recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure to me. I gave it little attention until my return from Memphis, when I concluded to try it, and am pleased to say three bottles cured me.
CHARLES GOODRICH,
Caruthersville, Mo.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.
