JULIAN BYRD — — — — Manager

Colonists may ride on their reduced rate tickets to Portland and Willamette valley points, but the fact remains that after they have looked over the coast, they recall the lure of the great free domain through which they passed east of the Cascades.

Whether it is the atmosphere, the spirit of the country, the vast outlook, the people, the promised opportunities or just the invisible allurement of this section, it is a fact that it attracts people.

Willamette valley people as well as strangers in the state, after once visiting eastern Oregon express an earnest desire to live here. There is something about the country which attracts and holds people. Hundreds of families having ample means with which to go to Portland to live in comfort and ease the remainder of their lives, prefer to remain in eastern Oregon.

The climate, the freedom, the spirit of the country, all combine to make this an attractive and elevating home country.

As the deserts are reclaimed this spirit will become stronger and the lure of eastern Oregon will become more irresistible.—East Oregonian.

A gentleman in Halifax, N. S. has addressed a circular letter to the press in which he denounces the evil of profanity and urges a campaign against it. It is a laudable undertaking and much support ought to be given to the suppression of the ungentlemanly habit which is a badge of vulgarity and ignorance.

There is no excuse for swearing. Some say there is and argue that by giving vent to the feelings through cursing one will soon get over angriness. Our experience is different; by keeping our mouth shut when our temper is in an uproar we get over the spell in shorter time, whereas if we 'break out' it takes a great deal longer to forget and be healed.

How ridiculously insane is the attempt of insignificant Man to insult the Omnipotent by blasphemy. Only a fool sayeth in his heart there is no God." Society and common sense recognize the existance of a supreme being and yet narrowminded individuals will thoughtlessly seek to provoke that great Being by the irreverent use of his name.

It is each citizen's duty to respect the feelings of others when they are not in conflict with law and order and we think gentlemen ought to be sufficient masters over themselves to control their tounge in the presence of ladies at least. No brave man need to curse to prove his bravery.—Monument Enterprise.

The Times-Herald has decided to make this a bargain month and offer some exceptional clubbing rates. To all who pay their subscription one year in advance during this month we will send the Twice-a-Week Republic of St. Louis, an entire year free.

This will be given new subscribers and old ones who renew during the month.

The Times-Herald, the Republic and Weekly Oregonian one year for $3.00 if paid this month.

DO IT NOW.

Every Heart-Ache

Every pain in the breast, difficult breathing, palpitation, fluttering or dizzy spell means that your heart is straining itself in its effort to keep in motion. This is dangerous.

Some sudden strain from over-exertion or excitement will completely exhaust the nerves, or rupture the walls or arteries of the heart, and it will stop.

Relieve this terrible strain at once with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. It invigorates and strengthens the heart nerves and muscles, stimulates the heart action, and relieves the pain and misery.

Take no chances; make your heart strong and vigorous with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

"I suffered terribly with heart disease. I have been treated by different physicians for my trouble without results. I went to a physician in Memphis, who claimed that I had dropsy of the heart. He put the X-ray on me, and in connection with his medicine he came near making a finish of me. Some time before this a Mr. Young, of St. Louis, was in our town. He saw my condition, and recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure to me. I gave it little attention until my return from Memphis, when I concluded to try it, and am pleased to say three bottles cured me.

CHARLES GOODRICH, Caruthersville, Mo.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.
