THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, MAY 6, 1892.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

OUR NEXT CIRCUIT JUDGE.

Wasco County Sun.

Hon. W. L. Bradshaw, candidate for judge of the circuit court, 7th judicial district, was born in Putnam county, Missouri, on September 28, 1858; moved to Oregon with the family of his father, Col. E. C. Bradshaw, in 1865 and settled in Yamhill county, where his education began in the common schools of Lafayette. He afterwards attended the state agricultural college at Corvallis, going thence to the St. Louis law school, where he graduated in the class of 1881. Returning to Yamhill county, he was admitted to practice in the October term of supreme court in the same year, and began his legal profession in partnership with his father. In 1883 Judge Bradshaw married a daughter of Dr. H. R. Littlefield. He continued in the practice of law in Yamhill county with his father until the latter removed to Wasco county in 1886, whence his son had completed arrangements to follow him, when the father died in 1888. The judge came to Wasco county the following year and entered into practice with J. L. Story, Esq., the firm being Story & Bradshaw. May 1, 1892, he was appointed by Gov. Pennoyer, judge of the 7th judicial district, made vacant by the death of Hon. J. H. Bird. The judge has always enjoyed a large and lucrative practice, and his appointment gave universal satisfaction to his friends and his party. This confidence and trust has been amply verified, his record in the courts of this district being too well known to need any words of praise from us. The press and people throughout the district, irrespective of party affiliations, unite in doing him honor. His prompt business-like methods and the saving to the taxpayers thereby are fully appreciated by the people. Judge Bradshaw ought to be our next circuit judge, and we feel justified in believing he will be.

The GLOBE is an independent papaer without either democratic or republican or any other party strings on it. It is entirely free to criticise any and all parties, and it intends to do so as often as it thinks they need criticism. It is working not for party but for Gilliam county and the best interests of this part of the state. If it has to speak out plainly betimes of men and measures, it does so, not to gratify an ungenerous spite, but in behalf of what it believes to be the people's interests. If to be independent is to have no opinions of one's own about anything or anybody, then the GLOBE is not independent. True independence rises above party, above personal or selfish considerations and advocates a policy because it believes it to be right, and that is exactly the kind of paper the GLOBE is.

The following has a tendency to encourage the country people who imagine the town and city people are the only persons who enjoy life. Here is the way Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll paints it: "It is no advantage to live in a city, where poverty degrades and failure brings despair. The fields are lovelier than paved streets, and the great forests of oaks and elms are more poetic than steeples and chimneys. In the country is the idea of home. There you see the rising and setting sun; you become acquainted with the stars and clouds. The constellations are your friends. You hear the rain on the roof and listen to the rhythmic sighing of the winds. You are thrilled by the resurrection called spring, touched and saddened by autumn—the grace and poetry of death. Every field is a picture, a landscape; every landscape a poem; every flower a tender thought, and every forest a fairy land. In the country you preserve your identity. There you are an aggregation of atoms, but in the city you are only an atom of an aggregation."

Lone Rock Rumblings.

Pat Lynch was in town the other day and reports work on he Lone Rock & Heppner road progressing rapidly and solidly—it being mostly bedrock.

S. S. Kidd of Pendleton is located here for a few days with 11 head of the finest Shorthorn Durham bulls ever brought to the state. His prices range from $75 to $140 per head.

Tom Johnson was up here Saturday looking for his saddle horses, and succeeded in finding one of them three miles east of town, fastenened onto a barbed wire fence, but not seriously cut.

According to the official directory in the Fossil paper, every precinct in the county, except Lone Rock, has a justice of the peace. As this is the oldest precinct of all, it surely is entitled to a squire.

Miss Pink Frazer was thrown from her horse Friday evening and dangerously hurt, falling with her head against a sharp rock, cutting a gash about two inches long on her head. She was unconscious for some time, and is not yet out of danger.

Set all the bells ringing at once, for R. H. Robinson is married to Miss Anna Bennett, and Ervie Bennett to Miss Millie Neel. All this matrimony was committed at the same time, in the most approved style, at Heppner last Friday, April 29th. Everybody is rejoicing—even to Bob's brace of big hound pups.

COWBOY.

LUMBER OF ALL KINDS.

It is the aim of this company to keep a full supply of seasoned rough lumber and flooring, ceiling, rustic and surfaced lumber, always ready for its customers. Its facilities for turning out lumber are superior to any in Gilliam county, with respect to quantity, quality and variety. The best six miles of road in the county leads from this mill to Fossil—a slight down-grade from the yard to town. We sawed 750,000 feet during the season of 1891, of which about 250,000 remains in the yard, thoroughly seasoned for the spring trade of 1892. We have a building 24x60 in which is stored about 50,000 feet of fine rustic, flooring, ceiling and other dressed lumber, all which we sell at the customary prices. We are sparing no pains nor expense to furnish our customers with all kinds of seasoned lumber, at any season of the year. ☞ We will pay the highest market price for steers—either calves, yearlings or two-year-olds, on old or new accounts.
