Persons indebted for the BEACON are requested to settle up. Don't wait for us to dun you. You know what you owe. We can't furnish papers free. Pay up please!

Localwise and Otherwise.

H. B. de Waal, of Leonardtown, has been on a business trip to Baltimore.

State's Attorney B. H. Camaller left Tuesday last for a business trip to the city.

The exports of lumber from Baltimore exceed those from New York or Philadelphia.

Miss Lucille Camaller, of Leonardtown, is visiting friends and relatives in Washington.

Monday last, Francis Gay, of Stone's Wharf, lost a horse from the prevailing horse disease.

Presence of mind is all right, but the Christmas present is the thing to have convenient just now.

Miss Madge Greenwell and brother, William F. Greenwell, of Leonardtown, are on a visit to the city.

Miss Mattie Harrison, of Charlotte Hall, is visiting the family of Mr. T. Lee Mattingly at "Buena Vista."

Lieut. Edward Bostick and Francis Dent and wife have taken rooms at Wise's Hotel for the winter.

We are now enjoying an instalment of bright wintry weather. The storms will no doubt come by and by.

Now is the time to see to it that you have a good woodpile on hand. When the winter comes you will need it.

As a matter of course there will now be some lively debates on the subject of the rebuilding of the Court House.

Rev. William Brayshaw will give service at St. Peter's Chapel on Sunday, December 16th instant, at 8:30 p. m.

The mill site at St. Clement's Bay was sold at public auction Tuesday last. R. H. Garner was the purchaser for $250.

The Baltimore papers report the appointment of Edgar Collison as a deputy commander of the Oyster Police Force.

Dr. L. E. Payne, dentist, will be at his office at Mechanicsville on Wednesday the 19th, instant, to attend to professional calls.

John V. Camaller, of Washington, paid a flying visit to his old home this week. His many friends were delighted to see him.

The Evening News, of the 8th instant, reports that B. F. Springer has been appointed postmaster at Dryden, vice J. W. Dent, removed.

John Wheatley, of St. George's Island, died Thursday last and was buried Friday. He was a good man, kind hearted and generous, and beloved by all who knew him.

A state exchange says: Poker is the favorite game among the high-toned fish of this camp. It often catches the plain, common, everyday sucker as well.—Denver Post.

The B. F. Smith Company will soon begin getting material on hand for work on the Court House. Mr. Smith informed us that he expected to begin repairs in April next.

February 22nd and 23rd, 1901, are the dates fixed for the State Farmer's Institute for St. Mary's county. We hope that it will be well attended and will prove of profit to our farmers.

James Clark, colored, was Tuesday last, released from jail on habeas corpus by Associate Judge Crane, because Justice Henry C. Adams had exceeded his jurisdiction in trying and sentencing the prisoner for larceny.

Sergeant J. R. Saunders, of the Baltimore City Police Force, has been visiting his relatives in the Great Mills section of the county. During his two days stay at his old home, Sergeant Saunders killed 93 rabbits, 38 partridges, 18 squirrels and 28 robins.

We are indebted to Joseph F. Morgan, Esq., for the notes from which we prepared the synopsis of the Knott robbery. The report is necessarily much abbreviated in order to fit to our space. Mr. Morgan's notes covered about 80 pages of closely written manuscript.

Some of our subscribers respond to every appeal for the settlement of their BEACON indebtedness. Other some forget to respond. We hope this latter class will gladden our hearts about Christmas. The amounts due will be most acceptable Christmas gifts.

So far as reported R. King Clarke, of Patuxent, has killed the largest "jock" in the county. Mr. Clarke's pig tipped the beam at 494 pounds. Phil Pilkerton's and Billy Wible's big ones are not in it with Mr. Clarke's hog. The peculiarity of a 297 pound hog killed by J. B. Adams, of Dryden, was that it had five toes on its right fore foot.

Wednesday, of last week, Mary, oldest child of James and Mary Slingsuff Burch, of Oakley, fell backwards into a tub of water prepared for scalding hogs and was badly scalded on her back and shoulders, the water closing over her arms. The child's face was also slightly injured by the splashed water. Dr. Dent is attending the little sufferer and hopes are entertained for her recovery.

B. F. Smith, the architect who prepared the plans for our new Court House, is a practical worker, having started from the bottom and gone to the top round of his profession. He has recently finished a Court House for Westmoreland, and has now on hand buildings for Northumberland and Spotsylvania counties, Virginia. Mr. Smith has built eight Court Houses and other public buildings throughout the South. He is a resident of Washington City.

Leontown Locals.

W. E. W. Winter is here—frost, ice, cold winds, etc.

Work, work is the watch word of all classes. The primal home of men was in Asia. They have traveled in various directions, finding everywhere a supply for their necessities, but nowhere have they found permission to indulge absolute idleness.

We never tire to say something in each local about schools. It gives us pleasure to state that teachers are imbued with an earnest and patient spirit, a spirit similar to Margaret Wilson of Scotland who sang a beautiful psalm till the tide came up to the state where she was chained and drowned the song upon her lips.

Wild geese are occasionally seen and many ducks, it is said, are to be seen on the Potomac and St. Mary's rivers. Within our memory, say, thirty years ago, canvasback, redheads mallards, etc., were plentiful. To-day the former are seldom seen. We know when diamond-back terrapins, marketable size, hereabout would be a prize for some of our acquaintances who sigh for "ye olden times," eye, times when the animal named was as numerous as gophers in North Carolina. This section of St. Mary's has yielded the palm of pre-eminence, gastronomically, and we fear that in the near future, few delicacies will be caught in near by waters. Man is an omnivorous creature, partaking of the nature both of the carnivorous and herbivorous animal, and he, therefore, needs a mixed diet. Land and water are searched to satisfy his appetite. This is the cause of the scarcity, particularly of game, hereabout.

We survey our surroundings and how sad we feel. No hanging-on over surviving raffle of half-green things which the Autumn has suffered to live, and to make mother earth feel new and fresh once more.

Poor frightened foxes! Listen! Messrs. Lilburn, Abell, Pembroke and others are enjoying the chase. Their dogs tongue well, and they are good trailers and runners withal. Infrequently a "brush" is displayed similar to feathers on a militia officer's cap. Nothing excels success, even in the chase. It is the quintessence of a well-reasoned hope.

Some traveling is being done. Drummers make their appearance periodically and we dare say that they are welcome visitors to merchants and proprietors of transient boarding houses.

Some wooing and we presume that hope does not entirely desert candidates for matrimony. They, perhaps, are too clear-sighted to ignore the gravity of their situation, and too sensible to build too strongly upon "maybe so's."

We have data to ground the assertion that some farmers have lost all of their hogs, despite heroic treatment with carbolic acid, quinine, calomel, etc. Our sympathy.

Mrs. William Yeatman has returned from Washington after spending several weeks very pleasantly with her daughters Mrs. Tull and Mrs. Edwards.

A colored boy by the name of Biscoe shot a son of Alce Williams, colored, in the thigh while at a festival a few nights ago. Biscoe was held to bail for $300. Justice Stanislaus Clarke investigated the matter and the evidence justified the decision. Boys, it seems, will carry pistols, and if the law took no cognizance of the same, the mere fact that they are not susceptible of reasoning, a priori should be sufficient cause to restrict them from carrying deadly weapons. Parents should notify merchants not to sell their minor sons pistols, jack-knives, etc. Boys who are large enough to don pantaloons need a father's and mother's care as well as those who have not attained the age of an ordinary ability to make a sharp bargain.

Mr. Henry C. Adams recently lost a cow and before her death she suffered like horses that have died in consequence of Cerebro Spinal Meningitis.

So far as our limited knowledges compass—we dare not judge any man—our few acquaintances, and we trust that they are not to be catalogued with the narrow-minded, essay to do their duty towards one another, that is, act strictly in line with the rule which teaches us to do to all men as we would they should do unto us. This may appear paradoxical to some persons. We speak subjectively, bearing in mind Him who caused the fleece of Gideon to lie dry on meadows sparkling with dew, by bushes hung thick with diamonds.

We notice that shipping barreled oysters by W. P. Powell, Herbert Yeatman, James Hall and others is being done, and fair figures per bushel are realized.

Some sickness and we trust that over the sick one's beds ethereal brightness shines.

THE KNOTT ROBBERY.

Because of the great interest manifested in the preliminary hearing in the Knott robbery case we have given a synopsis of the evidence. It is a source of sincere regret that we have had such a case to record. We have no comments to make upon the evidence. We have but printed its salient points as brought out at the hearing, and our readers must draw their own conclusions.

EYE GLASSES.

There are no better lenses than I give you. I can furnish Christmas presents for old and young, married or single, rich or poor, white or black as cheap for the cash as can be bought in the city.

For a New Court House.

Successive Grand Juries have virtually condemned our Court House as unsafe, and for some time past the question of repairs has been agitated. Matters reached a focus last Tuesday when the County Commissioners met and adopted the following resolution: "Whereas, several Grand Juries have recommended that the Court House be repaired, and whereas, several experts in company with the Board of Commissioners have recently examined said building and pronounced it dangerous, therefore, Be it Resolved, this 11th day of December 1900, by the Board of County Commissioners for St. Mary's county, in regular meeting assembled, that they rebuild the Court House.

And be it further Resolved, that Judge J. Parra Crane, Robert C. Combs, and Enoch B. Abell be and they are hereby appointed an advisory committee to act in conjunction with the County Commissioners in determining the terms and plan of such rebuilding.

Pursuant to this resolution the committee met and organized by clothing John T. Ballenger, chairman, and Enoch B. Abell, secretary.

It was ordered that the original system of repairs and specifications for repairs on the Court House as submitted by B. F. Smith, architect be and the same are hereby adopted.

On motion of Judge J. P. Crane B. F. Smith's bid of $11,350 was unanimously carried.

It was further ordered that the contract be entered into without delay.

After the meeting of the committee, we secured an interview with Mr. B. F. Smith and he furnished us with the following information: "My plans were accepted and a contract was awarded the B. F. Smith Fire Proof Construction Company to remodel and repair the Court House. A new court room is to be made on the second floor and four new offices are to be fitted up below; the offices of the Clerk to the Circuit Court and of the Register of Wills are to be fire-proofed, and all modern devices put in for the preservation of the county records, such as metal rolling shelves and compress files. There will be a 25 feet addition to the main building; a new roof on general repairs throughout, making the Court House when finished an up to date building. The contractors are going to "thore up" the old building in order that March Court may be held there with safety. All the improvements will cost $11,350 and by the use of the old walls will give your county a $25,000 Court House."

COMMUNICATED.

VALLEY LEE, MD.

The young ladies and gentlemen of St. George's are making great efforts to add spirit, enjoyment and improvement to the monotony of a cheerless winter in the country, and with this aim in view have organized a "Society." This is a step in the right direction, and with the aid of other neighborhoods they will be able to shorten many dreary evenings, and at the same time be much improved thereby.

Thinking, Messrs. Editors, that you and your many friends might feel an interest in what we did, and propose to do in the future, I send you a copy of the minutes of our first meeting as reported by the Secretary:

EUROPEAN SOCIETY,
Dec. 7, 1900.

The young ladies and gentlemen of St. George's met at the Rectory on Friday, December 7, 1900, and organized a literary, debating and social society under the name of "The European Society of St. George's," and selected the following officers for the term of one year: Miss Sallie Bean, President; Miss Nan Vaughan, Vice-President; Mr. Ernest Bohanan, Recording Secretary; Miss Sarah Vaughan, Treasurer. The selection of other officers was postponed for next meeting.

A committee of three, viz: Miss Sarah Vaughan, Miss Nan Vaughan and Mr. Ernest Bohanan, were appointed by the President to draft a constitution and by-laws for the government of the Society and to report same at next meeting. The dry discussions of parliamentary rules were interspersed not infrequently by music rendered by the Misses Vaughan. After discussing many things looking to the welfare and growth of the Society, a motion was made to adjourn, and being duly seconded, the President, after calling a meeting at Mr. Morris Milburn's on Friday, the 14th instant, at 7:30 P. M., for the purpose of discussing an entertainment for the Yule Holidays, declared the meeting adjourned.

The members then busied themselves in preparing to seek "home," each member thanking the kind host and hostess for the hospitality they had received at their hands and the deep interest they had shown in the organization of the infant society.

Signed: E. BOHANAN, Rec. Secy.

Hoping I have not taken too much of your time and space, I am admirably Yours,
B.

Consumption

is destruction of lung by a growing germ, precisely as mouldy cheese is destruction of cheese by a growing germ.

If you kill the germ, you stop the consumption. You can or can't, according to when you begin.

Take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil: take a little at first.

It acts as a food; it is the easiest food. Seems not to be food; makes you hungry; eating is comfortable. You grow stronger. Take more; not too much; enough is as much as you like and agrees with you. Satisfy hunger with usual food; whatever you like and agrees with you. When you are strong again, have recovered your strength—the germs are dead; you have killed them.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

A Runaway.

On Sunday last, a horse belonging to Robert McKay, of Hermonville, took fright and ran off. Mr. McKay having met a friend on the road near Dr. Richardson's, who was riding a wheel, and stopped to take him in and they were both at the back of the buggy lashing the bicycle on, when the horse became frightened and started off.

The runaway took a straight course passing Great Mills, and going on down in St. George's. The animal was caught at Mr. Adams' gate about two miles below Dryden.

The only damage done by the runaway was to Robert Uakle's vehicle with which he came in contact near Lewis T. Clarke & Bro., breaking the shaft, wheel and harness. Mr. McKay and friend following the horse's track found him about 11 o'clock that night with nothing broken except the cross bar and lines.

We bet on Derby's bottom and rejoice that the damage done was no worse.

Pneumonia Prevented.

Among the tens of thousands who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds and a gripe during the past few years, to our knowledge, not a single case has resulted in pneumonia. Thos. Whitfield & Co., 240 Wabash Avenue, Chicago, one of the most prominent retail druggists in that city, in speaking of this remedy, says: "We recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a gripe in many cases, as it not only gives prompt and complete recovery, but also counteracts any tendency of a gripe to result in pneumonia.
