The Nashville Custom House.

A correspondent at Washington informs us that he has had an interview with the Secretary of the Treasury, and learned that the site for the Nashville Custom House has been paid for, and that plans for the building will be prepared, and proposals for its construction invited by advertisement, in the manner prescribed by law. The Secretary says, we are further informed, that the work will be commenced as soon thereafter as the condition of the Treasury will authorize. We are gratified in being able to make this announcement, for we had come to the conclusion, from what the President said in his message, in regard to stopping the public works, and what we had previously heard as to the intention of Mr. Cobb, that the building of the Nashville Custom House was indefinitely postponed. The Treasury is, at this time, in a state of depletion, but will soon be replenished by means of Treasury notes or a loan.

The Opera Troupe.

A large and brilliant audience attended the Theatre Saturday night, to enjoy the Opera of the "Child of the Regiment." Miss Durand personated the part of Marie with a great deal of spirit and grace, and sang with much sweetness and effect. She looked charmingly, but her beauty was sadly disfigured by the quantity of rouge that glowed upon her cheeks. Miss Hodson's Tonio was excellent, and was received with the satisfaction it deserved. Beyond these two parts, we saw nothing in the performance worthy of especial note. As a whole, it was tamer and less effective than we had expected. The introduction of a dance between the two acts, was a very pleasant diversion. The "fairy" dances assumed, on this occasion at least, pretty substantial human forms, and were as lithe and active as any one could desire. The "poetry of motion," as represented by them, was particularly attractive, and appeared to give delight to the whole audience. For our part, we just "knocked under" to it, without an effort to resist. There was but one objection to it, and that was, it was too transitory. But bliss is always short-lived, and we should not complain.

To-night, the Troupe will favor the public with the Opera of "Cinderella," which we believe is new here.

☞ We are requested to state that the land and stock advertised to be sold on the 22d inst., by Mr. W. H. Johnson, has been disposed of privately—consequently, there will be no public sale.

The Last of the Randolph Family.—St. George Randolph, a nephew of the celebrated John Randolph, of Roanoke, who died in Charlotte county, Va., on the 4th inst., was the last in the line of the Randolph family. He was born deaf and dumb, but was highly educated in France. On returning home to Virginia in 1814, he heard of the hopeless illness of his brother at Harvard College, and immediately became deranged. From that time to the day of his death he is said never to have known a lucid interval.

Inhumanity.—Some of the French papers are hotly distressed at the inhumanity of the British soldiers in Delhi. Perhaps if, instead of putting the Sepoy scoundrels to the sword, they had scowled them to death as old Polonius did the Arabs, they would have proved themselves merciful and compassionate. They might have learned from the French Revolution some lessons of civilized warfare.—Rich. Disp.

His Boots.—The Charlestown (Mass.) Advertiser says a whale of the humpe-back species was driven ashore at Nahant, a few days since, and, upon being cut open, a pair of boot marked "J.," in a good state of preservation, were found in his entrails. It is supposed that the boots, as they were marked "J.," belonged to Jonah, and were taken off and left behind by accident when he made his exit from the big fish.

The Frenchman's Revenge.—The following anecdote, which we give from memory, became current during the suspension of specie payments in the financial crisis of 1837:

A Frenchman rushed into one of the banks soon after the general suspension, with a hundred dollar bill in hand, and demanded the specie for it.

Frenchman—Vill you pay zis bill? Vill you give me ze mounaie?

Teller (blandly)—We cannot redeem it at present. We have suspended.

Frenchman—Suspended! Vat's zat hang by ze neck like one dam thieving dog? Oh no sare! You no deceive me, sare! I vill have l'ord l'argent—what you call ze gold, ze silvare—ze coppere!

Teller—We will redeem our notes when other banks redeem theirs.

Frenchman—When ze oder banks redim zares. By gar, ze oder banks say ze same sare. I vill shoot you sare—viz ze peestole, ze gun, ze cannon, sare!

Teller—You had better wait, sir—you had better keep cool.

Frenchman (excitedly)—By gar, I vill not wait! I vill not keep—vat you call?—cold! I vill 'ave by gar, revenge! Sacre! I tear your paper note all in leetle piece! I chew him! —(uniting the action to the word)—I spit on him! I spit on him! I stamp on him! You loose your leetle dam billet, now! There, sare—I am revenge! I am, by gar r-r-revenge!

Having destroyed the note, looking full defiance at the cashier, tellers, and others present, the little Frenchman stalked out of the bank with the air of Napoleon.

SINGER'S SEWING MACHINES.

Honesty and fair play are admirable in advertising as in everything else, and in the long run produce the best results. Competent judges of unquestioned impartiality, at a public exhibition (the Mechanics' Fair) decided Singer's Machines to be superior to Grover & Baker's machines, and that Singer's are adapted to every kind of work, while Grover & Baker's are not. So we were content to leave it, but our opponents attempt to reverse the effect of this decision, by making long winded and absurd statements, in the papers in the abused name of "Justice." To some of the points made we briefly reply, as follows:

1st. Our Machines did obtain the favorable judgment of the Committee at the Fair.

2d. Singer's machines, do in fact, use much more than one third less thread in sewing a seam than Grover & Baker's whence it follows, as a certain consequence, that a Grover & Baker Machine, if used constantly, will soon waste thread enough to buy one of our machines.

3d. Singer's Machines use just enough thread to make a perfect seam.

4th. No sensible person can doubt that the best Sewing Machine for making fine clothing, and "capable of doing all kinds of work, from the finest cambric to the heavie cloth," must be the best machine for family use.

5th. Singer's Machines make a fast stitch and seam, while Grover & Baker's make a raveling seam.

6th. It is absurd to say that in sewing a seam with two threads the seam can be made any stronger by using three times as much thread on one side as on the other. The seam of the shuttle machines is just as strong as the size of thread employed can make it, that is, the strongest possible. In Singer's Machines a cheap quality of thread can be used in the shuttle if desired, and it is often done on cheap work.

7th. Singer's Machines have hitherto been made with a view to strength, durability, and to be applied to every variety of work, but we have just produced and are ready to receive orders for which we will warrant to perform all family sewing in better style than any machine ever sold for similar purposes. This is a machine which is beautifully decorated, making an elegant parlor ornament, and we believe no lady who wants the best and most beautiful thing, will purchase any other. I. M. SINGER & CO.,

STEAMBOAT AND RIVER NEWS

ARRIVED.

Dec. 19.—Blanche Lewis from Paducah.

DEPARTED.

Dec 19—V. K. Stevenson for Paducah.

Dec. 19.—Blanche Lewis for Paducah.

The river is falling rapidly, but there is still, and likely to be for some time to come, plenty of water for any of our steamboats.

For St. Louis.—The superb passenger packet, Sallie West, will leave for the above and all intermediate points, this day at 4 o'clock. She is in charge of that excellent commander, Capt. Corbett, assisted, in the office, by Mr. J. M. Smith, one of the most attentive and courteous of river men.

☞ The fine passenger boat Tempest, Parr master, will leave for Louisville and Cincinnati this day, at 5 o'clock. An excellent opportunity for all wishing a pleasant and comfortable trip in that direction.

☞ The regular Paducah packet Cuba, arrived yesterday and will leave this morning on return trip. For a fast and pleasant trip the Cuba is a desirable institution.

☞ We take pleasure in calling attention of our readers to the hardware house of Messrs. McCall, Vanleer & Co., No. 44, South Market street. These gentlemen will be found attentive and obliging, and are now offering all goods for less than market value to cash or prompt paying time customers. We solicit for them an investigation of their stock and prices by all that visit this market

Hard Times—Prices to Correspond.

Owing to the tremendously tight times on and after Monday, 14th of this month, and January, 1858, we propose to offer our stock of dry goods at cost for cash. We don't do this to run off a lot of old goods, for our stock is nearly all new, having been in business but a short time, but because we wish to reduce our stock on hand.

We have a splendid lot of Velvetanik Cloth Cloaks, Black and Fancy Silk, Embroideries, Laces, &c., white and Linen Goods, besides a great many different kind of goods which it is needless to mention. Come one, come all, if you wish to buy better bargains than you have had an opportunity of doing for a long time.

General Debility.—We would advise all who may be afflicted with General Debility, to try McLean's Strengthening Cordial. It is certainly a valuable remedy; many of our friends have tried it, and they recommend it very highly as a Tonic and Alterative. It is very pleasant to take.

Every country merchant, in laying in his supplies, should be sure to take some of this Cordial—It sells rapidly, beyond the most sanguine expectations of the proprietor. One dozen lost week be sold every bottle he had on hand. Now, with increased facilities, he is able to supply all demands. See the advertisement in another column. dec. 15—1w.

Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion.

Another great cure effected by Burhave's Holland Bitters.

The wife of Firmen De Witte, living in Holland Town, Sheboygan county, Wisconsin, suffered much from Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion. She had been under a physician's care for some time, but the disease seemed to baffle even his skill. She purchased some HOLLAND BITTERS at our office, which has given tone to her stomach; her appetite and strength are returning, and we firmly believe that this is another great cure effected by your medicine.

We have still to record many wonderful cures effected by this remedy, but must wait another opportunity. One thing you can rely upon, what we have published are from persons much respected in our community, and are literally true. J. QUINTUS,

Ed. Sheboygan Nieuwsbode, Sheboygan, Wis.

If you are sick, the probability is that the root of your sufferings is in the stomach. From a weak stomach proceed dyspepsia, languor, oppression in the diaphragm, jaundice, headache, nausea, bodily weakness, dimness of sight, heartburn, costiveness, dysentery, and a legion of other tormenting diseases. Indigestion produces thin blood, and therefore destroys the strength and vigor of the system. To restore the tone of the stomach, and enable it to throw off and dismiss forever all these tormenting and dangerous complaints, nothing is necessary but a persevering use of Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. There is no mistake, no failure in their sanitive effects.

For sale by druggists and storekeepers in every town and village in the United States, Canadas, West Indies, and South America, at 65c. per bottle.

Earache Cured.

This painful affection, to which so many persons, especially children, are subject every fall and winter, is ready curable by the use of Bragg's Arctic Liniment. A few drops upon a piece of raw cotton should be put into the ear as warm as can be borne, and the surrounding parts well bathed with the liniment, applied with gentle friction with the hand. Thousands of cases have been relieved in a few minutes by this invaluable liniment. It is also an infallible cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sprains and Bruises, Burns and Scalds, and all diseases of the skin. Its for sale by all respectable Druggists.

Persons of Consumptive Habits, Read This!

TO THE GRAEFENBURG COMPANY: For the first time in my life am induced to certify to the truly wonderful efficacy of a popular medicine, but in sending you the certificate I feel that I am only discharging a duty that I owe to the Graefenberg Company, and more especially to suffering humanity.

About the first of June last I had a negro man taken with a Cough, attended with restlessness, spitting of blood and other dangerous symptoms of consumption. I immediately called in a truly skilful and scientific physician, who told me it was a case of consumption. He treated him for several weeks, but he gradually grew worse. I then had another physician of great reputation in lung diseases. He examined him, and also decided it to be a hopeless case of consumption, and said it was useless to spend money in trying to cure him.

I had previously promised the Graevenberg Agents here, (Messrs Wells & Lowell,) that when the doctors gave him up I would try the Graefenberg Consumptive's Balm. I did so, and to my astonishment, to my surprise, the man began to improve after taking only five or six doses. He took only two bottles of the Balm and three bottles of the Graefenberg Sarsaparilla Compound, which cost me the small sum of nine dollars, and to-day I consider him entirely cured. He is worth $1,200, and he is doing me good service on the plantation. I consider him perfectly sound and well as he is fat, hearty and strong, without a vestige or sign of disease left.

JOHN MYELS,
Claiborne, Ala

I have used the Graefenberg Consumptive's Balm in severe cases of Consumption, in my practice, with the happiest effect. I wish all would use it.

S. MEDARIS, M. D.,
Tobias' Wells, Tenn.

The Graefenberg Consumptive's Balm will effectually cure Consumption and all Complaints of the Lungs. In case of Cold on the lungs and Chest, Languor combined with Difficult Breathing, Pains in the Chest, and Bronchial, the Graefenberg Consumptive's Balm will effect a complete cure and prevent the disease from becoming a confirmed Consumption. In all cases it is agreeable. They are so an hundred fold to all diseases having a tendency to Consumption. We earnestly advise all to procure the Consumptive's Balm in season.

☞ The price of the Consumptive's Balm is $8 per bottle. ALEX. McKENZIE, Nashville.

Agent for the Graefenberg Co., for Tennessee, Alabama and Georgia. (oct16 tf
